THE REVOLUTIONARY LIBERALS.

The Halifax Reporter regards the change of Government philosophically, and appears to have a poor opinion of its representatives. It says:

From a national point of view, though not from a Party point, there is reason for congratulation that the Mackenzie-Dorion Party have succeeded to power and to the trusteeship of our national affairs. They were becoming terribly reckless—so much so as to have received and merited the title given them by a London journal, that of "Revolutionary Liberals." So long out of positions of trust they knew not how to make allowances for the difficulties of reigning and governing. So long in the cool shades of Opposition they had become envious of the titles and honours showered upon the other party. Recklessness and audacity are born of envy and lack of official pressure; and recklessness and audacity might, if not curbed by the restraints of office, lead to very great detriment to "this Canada of ours." You see that we prove to a demonstration that it is good for the nation that the Mackenzie party find out from actual experience how necessary it is that generous treatment be extended to a Government—how right it is that forbearance be occasionally exercised.

"It seemed so easy, from the Opposition side, to run the Governmental machine when you looked on and saw how the wonderfully fertile mind and amazing tact of Sir John A. smoothed over some difficulties, pushed others ahead of him having no time to settle them, and in one way and another, led the youthful nation through many difficulties.

But Mr Mackenzie has had forty-eight hours of it, and already he has discovered how difficult it is do that which one would suppose he had already "cut and dried." He has made at least three attempts to form a Ministry—has shifted the cards the several directions, and still finds himself without a Ministry that will be generally acceptable. The first Ministry that was announced in the Chronicle excited a shout of laughter; it seemed to be arranged upon the plan of giving every man the portfolio he knew least about. The second—that announced in our latest Ottawa special last evening is, as a whole, a strange Cabinet in every way.

But viewed from the particular stand point of Nova Scotia's interest, 'tis a woeful fal from the past. Just imagine the fourteen Cabinet Ministers in consultation. There is Dorion, a sharp, keen polished blade, a skilled parliamentarian, to look out for Quebec. There is Blake, an able speaker, to look out for Ontario, Smith to look out for New Brunswick, and who have we? President Coffin, who could not say fifty words, and could be wound round the fingers of such active men as the other Provinces have, in twenty minutes; while Ross would scarcely possess gumption enough to know that his turn would come next. Nova Scotia has very great reason to be ashamed of her Representatives in the Cabinet, and will suffer for the trickery of the men who turned out the Macdonald Administration."

THE ROYAL CANADIAN INSURANCE COMPANY

Authorized Capital $5,000,000.

THE present rates for Fire Insurance throughout the Dominion (the result of combination among the various Insurance Companies) are, it is believed, not only excessive, but unnecessary; and however severe the losses to those Companies may have been in the late calamitous fires in Chicago, Boston and other cities in the United States, the losses in the business of Insurance throughout the Dominion, does not warrant the great increase which has lately taken place in the rates.

Such being the case, this Company represented by the wealthiest merchants of the Dominion obtained a charter during last session of Parliament, and are now prepared to do business at moderate rates. The promoters can with full confidence rely on the citizens of Kingston, giving this Company a liberal support, the directors pledge themselves that in the event of loss claims will be settled in the most liberal manner, and risks will be taken on their merit irrespective of any Company.
