SPECIAL TELEGRAMS.

Fire at Invermay.

Owen Sound, Jan. 20.—At 3 this morning the store, Post Office, and Montreal Telegraph Company offices, Invermay, were burned. Miss Bell Neilands, had her leg broken by jumping from a window to save herself.

Toronto—Election of Mayor.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Alderman Manning was elected Mayor of Toronto.

We regret to observe the announcement of the death of Mr Graves, one of the M.P's. for Liverpool, on Saturday. Mr Graves paid a visit to Canada about a year ago, and was the guest of Mr Weir Anderson in Kingston,

THE HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.—Our readers will please bear in mind the musical and literary entertainment at the City Hall, on Friday next, in aid of this deserving charity. The tickets have been left at nearly all the stores in the city, and the directors hope that the benevolent and humane citizens will assist them generously in this undertaking, destined as it is to ameliorate the sufferings of the indigent sick. An excellent programme has been prepared, and will be found in another column. We may also mention that it is arranged to have another reading on the 11th of February, and a calico ball on the 25th February, the day preceding Ash Wednesday.

HEGIRA.—The Tandy Bros., Messrs Keeley and Robbs left town this afternoon, the former for Port Hope, to sing at a concert this evening, and the latter at Colborne to-morrow evening.

MISSIONARY MEETING—This evening the public meeting connected with the Kingston Branch Wesleyan Missionary Society, will be held in Queen Street Church—good music, and appreciative addresses.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE—LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—On Friday evening the classic halls of Queen's College again resounded with the tramp of citizens and witnessed the gathering of a fair proportion of the inhabitants of Kingston. The occasion was a Literary entertainment given by the members of the Elocution Association, a society which has now been in existence, in connection with the College, for some years. Professor Mackerras, the President of the Association, occupied the chair, and opened the proceedings of the evening by a few remarks on the work and ends of the society. An interesting and well selected programme was then effectively carried out, the manner of rendering the different pieces reflecting great credit on the performers. Evidently the motto of the society is "Excelsior," and the performances of the gentlemen abundantly show that they are rapidly approaching Elocutionary perfection. All the readings were listened to with marked attention, and received with great applause, some of the pieces being so comic, that they kept the audience in continual laughter. We spent a very pleasant time indeed and after the last reading the audience dispersed apparently well satisfied. It is highly gratifying to see the spirit and energy of the students in getting up entertainments of this kind, and we think that they ought to be largely patronized by the friends of the College. The citizens of Kingston ought to consider Queen's College as peculiarly their own institution, and do all in their power to further its interest. The members of this society we understand, intend giving another entertainment of a similar nature in a month or so, when we hope to have the pleasure of again hearing the "jolly studes."

RELIGIOUS ANNIVERSARIES. — We would call the attention of our readers to the religious anniversaries to be held during this present week, and urge their attendance thereat if they desire to obtain information as to what is being done towards supplying the nation's of the world with the pure Word of God, without note or comment—with a sound and wholesome literature—and in obtaining for all the sons of toil a sacred day of rest in every week. The annual meeting of the Kingston Society in connection with the British and Foreign Bible Society, will be held to-morrow (Tuesday evening.) The venerable parent Society has during the sixty-eight years of its existence circulated over sixty-five (65) millions of copies of the Word of God; scattering them over the length and breadth of the habitable globe, well nigh wherever the feet of man has trod. This Society is purely unsectarian, and all bodies of Protestant Christians unite to swell its resources; among its vice-presidents are the two archbishops, twenty-six bishops and divines, dukes, earls, knights and squires innumerable. On Wednesday the anniversary of the Kingston Auxiliary of the London Religious Tract Society will be held. With this worthy institution well-nigh all readers of books are familiar, for from its presses teem forth books, tracts, periodical and leaflets countless as the leaves in Vallambrosa. At its council board sits representatives from all denominations, and each work is examined by all before its publication, so that none who seek to follow the lead of Luther, or Melancthon, of Calvin, or Cranmer, need fear to endorse every work put forth. The Sabbath Reformation Society seeks to carry out in its entirety the command "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," and strives to obtain an unbroken day of rest for all, employers and employees, masters and servants alike; and also to see that the laws of the land are enforced and all needless labour prevented, and all taverns closed on the Lord's Day. We trust that the meetings of these useful and honourable societies will be well attended by the members of our various city churches, for we doubt not that valuable information will be gained by all who listen with attentive ears to the speeches and addresses then and there to be delivered.

The communication of "Pater Familias" is unavoidably crowded out of to-day's issue.
