The Daily News.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV 15

President Grant has determined upon the immediate recall of Mr Motley as Minister to England. A despatch from Washington announces that Secretary Fish has been instructed to send a telegram by cable charging Mr Motley to give his office over to the Secretary of Legation, Mr Moran, as Charge d'Affaires. This immediate action on the part of the President is ascribed to a desire to come to an immediate understanding with the government of Great Britain and Canada on the fishery question and other international questions pending between the governments of the United States and Great Britain. It denotes great urgency to find Mr Motley summarily recalled and the business of the mission entrusted to subordinate hands. Irrespective of the explanation, however, the act is more a slight to Mr Motley than an indication of a changed policy on the part of the government at Washington. Mr Moran will no doubt soon make some statement to Earl Granville by which the attitude of the American government on the fishery question will be made to appear. In the meantime we may expect to hear a great number of sensational stories from Washington manufactured out of the fabric of Mr Motley's sudden recall. If we do not have reliable news either from Washington or London speedily, we may depend upon the President's message delivered at the opening of Congress, in the first week of December, for an official explanation.

M. Thiers has made a report on the incidents and result of his mission to obtain an armistice. A translation of this official document (which is of deep interest in view of the magnitude of the consequences involved in the failure of the negotiations) has appeared in the London Times, a summary of which is telegraphed by cable to-day. According to M. Thiers he and Count Bismarck were in perfect accord up a certain point, and everything gave taken of a speedy conclusion of an armistice; but the final point appears to have been reached when Count Bismarck resolved to refer the question of revictualling to the King and the military commanders. M. Thiers ascribes the failure as due to the military spirit of the Germans which has been inordinately excited by their great successes. They are no doubt bent upon the capture of Paris, the conquest of the frontier provinces of Alsace and Lorraine, perhaps also of French Flanders, and are determined upon the thorough humiliation of France. Paris, as we know, is hastening rapidly to its fall through the exhaustion of its food supplies, and when this event happens France will be at the mercy of her conqueror. The whole nation will be virtually conquered by that event, for after the surrender of the army of Paris, the trained forces left to the government will be altogether inadequate to compete against the great armies of Germany. It is to enlist the sympathies of other people, and to command the action of the powers in an intervention in behalf of France that induces M. Thiers to lay before the world this statement of how Prussia has treated and is treating her. He finds words of great bitterness to cast against the fallen Emperor Napoleon, whose folly, in entering on a war that might have been avoided by diplomacy, is the cause of all the gigantic troubles that have fallen upon France.

FROM MONTREAL.

Montreal, Nov. 15.—Regis Bernard, a saloon keeper, in Common Street, died very suddenly yesterday, of hemorrhage of the lungs.

Business on the St. Lawrence Canals for Oct. shows a falling off as compared with the same period of 1869.

The S. S. St. Patrick, which arrived here from Glasgow on Saturday, being out 21 days, had a very stormy passage and was considerably damaged. Thomas Anderson, ship cook was killed during the gale.

There are now 320 prisoners here being a low average.

Three Magdalene establishments are represented to have done much good during the past two years.

A labouring man about 40 years of age fell into the canal last night and was drowned.

Last evening three companies and band of the 60th Rifles left by the Richelieu steamer for Quebec.

Last evening the Victoria Rifles, headed by the band of the 1st Prince of Wales' Corps, marched through several of the main streets, and returned to the military school shortly after 10 p.m.

Yesterday while a storeman in the employ of Messrs Colson & Co., Hospital street, was working on the second flat, the joist on which he was standing gave way and he fell to the basement, breaking one of his legs. He was taken to the General Hospital.

Rev. Mr Lang, minister elected for St. Andrew's church, arrived here yesterday by the steamship Moravian. The church will be opened next Sunday.

The wife of Marcel Poonier, tavern keeper, Mountain Street, who was on Sunday night so severely burned by breaking of a coal oil lamp died yesterday from the effects of the injuries. Verdict accidental death.

As the steamship Lake Ontario arrived yesterday, several of the men attacked the mate. Mr Murray, son of one of the Directors of the company, tried to help the mate, but was himself badly injured.

Light showers of snow fell last night.

A REMARKABLE LIBEL SUIT.—The suit brought against the proprietor of the Berlin Telegraph by a hotel keeper in Brantford, named Fleming, was tried at Brantford on the 11th instant. During the Press excursion last summer a dinner was given the Association by the authorities in Brantford, which the Telegraph characterized as a "miserable and meagre affair." This raised the ire of the hotel keeper, and he sued the Telegraph for damages. The case was conducted by Messrs Fitch & Hardy for the plaintiff and the Hon. E. B. Wood, John King and Wm. Watt for the defence. After a number of witnesses had been sworn and after long and witty speeches by the lawyers, the jury retired, and after five hours were summoned into court and discharged, not being able to agree; six being for conviction and six for acquittal.

SABREVOIS MISSION MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Kingston Auxiliary to this Mission was held in St. George's Hall on Monday evening.

Though not very largely attended, the meeting was very successful and added a further testimony to that borne on Sunday in the various churches of the city of interest in its work.

The chair was taken by the Rev. J. A. McCooke with whom were Revds. Canon Bond, F. W. Dobbs, Wm Short, Conway, E. Cartwright and F. W. Kirkpatrick.

After the usual introductory prayer, the treasurer's report was presented, showing receipts during last year to the amount of $141.

The chairman then called on the Rev. Canon Bond to lay before the meeting a statement of the claims of the Mission. In his usual happy style this was done, and the meeting interested during a speech of considerable length.

Tracing the origin of the Sabrevois Mission, the speaker showed how essential it was that the work should be engaged in. Many things combined at the present time to excite a spirit of inquiry among the Romanists of the Province of Quebec, among which were mentioned, the operation of infallibility as residing in the Pope of Rome, the issue of the present war, so far as it has gone, destroying the prestige of the French power, and lastly the occupation of Rome by the troops of the Kingdom of Italy. Some objected to the work, no doubt, on the ground that other work at home called for their first aid, but it is always found that missionary labour is conducive to the interests of home work. Nor was it possible as some advised to let them alone. Rome is essentially aggressive, the opposition between the churches of Rome and Christ is plainly stated in the formularies of the latter, and it seemed to be the duty of those believing this opposition to exist, to lend their aid, both in resisting aggression and in extending the light of the truth.

The speaker then adverted to the width of the field in which work lies before the Society, and concluded his address with some details of the work at Sabrevois.

A resolution appointing the office-bearers for the ensuing year was then submitted by the Rev. F. W. Kirkpatrick, who regretted the cordial approbation of both the late and the present Bishops of Montreal, as a sufficient guarantee for the prudence with which the Mission is conducted.

The Rev. W. Short, in an appeal, characterized by great fervour, asked for increased exertions, and the meeting was closed with some words from the Rev. Conway E. Cartwright, and the benediction from the Rev. F. W. Dobbs.

CITY COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of the City Council took place on Monday evening in the Council Chamber, his Worship the Mayor in the chair. Present Messrs Allen, Davidson, Dickson, Gibson, Gildersleeve, Kinghorn, A. Livingston, C. Livingston, McCormack, Price, Richardson, Stewart and Tomkins.

The minutes of the last two meetings were read and adopted.

MOVED, BY

From Joseph Pratt, drawing attention to the fact that the house occupied by him on King street was rendered untenable owing to a leak which existed in the roof. Referred to the committee on city property.

From James Agnew enclosing a letter to the effect that a suit for $[illegible] damages had been brought against the corporation by Mr Evans, administrator to the estate of the late W. B. Holt, who had been fatally injured by falling on the sidewalk into the quarry on Montreal street.

PETITIONS.

A number of petitions relating to taxes were referred to the Court of Revision.

Alderman Robinson brought up the petition of James Kearns, Manager of the Montreal Telegraph Company, for permission to erect a sign over their place of business, Ontario street. Granted.

Alderman Allen brought up the petition of Widow Geraghty, praying for assistance from the council, owing to her very reduced circumstances.

Moved by Alderman Allen, seconded by Alderman Robinson, that the petitioner receive half the sum, $50, granted her late husband yearly by the council. Lost.

Moved in amendment by Alderman Allen, seconded by Alderman Robinson, that the Widow Geraghty be granted the sum of $20.

The motion, on being put, was lost, several members stating that they were quite willing to assist the widow, but in so doing a precedent would be established, which, as a corporate body, none would afterwards wish to follow.

Alderman Cunningham brought up the petition of Mr C. F. Gildersleeve, praying that as he is desirous of putting together a steamboat during the ensuing year, he be allowed to use the slip at the foot of Union street, and the water for that purpose, not to interfere in any way with public traffic. Granted, under the supervision of the City Engineer.

Alderman Tomkins brought up the petition of Mrs Mary Regan, of Victoria Ward, praying that she be granted a shop license at reduced rates, one half of the year having already passed away.

Alderman Tomkins moved, that a portion of this year's license be remitted to the petitioner.

Alderman Robinson thought it time enough to make a remittance when application had been made and the license taken from the Commissioners for that purpose.

Alderman Tomkins begged the last speaker's pardon. The license had been asked for, and it was their duty as representatives of the citizens to grant it. He wished to inform the council that this business was no pettifogging, as some supposed, but a large wholesale store—the largest in Victoria Ward.

The Mayor ruled the motion out of order for the present.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Alderman Davidson handed in the report of the committee on finance and accounts, which was received and adopted.

Alderman Robinson brought up the report of the committee on fire, water and gas, as follows:—

The committee on fire, water and gas beg to report that they have met the committee appointed by the Directors of the Kingston Water Works Company, and have had before them communications of the Manager of the Company, enclosing accounts, etc.

Mr George A. Kirkpatrick, President, on behalf of the Company, laid the claim for water to be used from the new hydrants annually at $700, which sum your committee could not entertain, and after considering the subject referred to them, and in order to have the matter satisfactorily arranged, agreed to recommend to the council to pay the Water Works Company annually, for a period of ten years, the sum of $275 for water to be taken from the new and extra hydrants, twenty in number, for the extinguishing of fires and other purposes, and for watering the streets, this amount to cover waste and leakage at old and new hydrants.

If this offer be not accepted by the Company, your committee recommend that the new hydrants be cut off from the supply or main pipes, and that hereafter no water be taken from the new hydrants; and further, that the account rendered of $100,81, for water taken from the new hydrants up to the present time, and repairs, be paid, on condition that the Company withdraw the Division Court action, and pay their own costs thereon; but that the penalty of $100, also claimed by the Company, be not paid.

And your committee, in conclusion, recommend that the old hydrants be re-distributed so as to make them more effective, under the direction of the committee; and also, if the above mentioned offer is accepted by the Company, the same be done to the new hydrants.

The report, after considerable discussion, was adopted by striking out the words, "and watering the streets," in the latter part of the second clause, and adding thereto, "and from any hydrants that may be erected during the aforesaid ten years."

Ald. Allen presented the report of the committee on streets and improvements, relating to the opening of new streets, as follows:—

On the petitions of William Martin and others, for the opening up of Montreal street, and of Macnee & Waddell, for the opening up of Bagot street, through the Artillery Park,

Your committee recommend that a sub-committee, consisting of Aldermen Allen, Brophy, and Kinghorn, be appointed to wait on the Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald as early as possible for his influence in procuring the right of way for the continuation of Montreal and Bagot streets through the Artillery Park from Queen street, and that the City Engineer accompany the deputation.

Your committee herewith submit a sketch of the streets proposed to be opened up and the estimate of Montreal street.

On the petition of Lewis Biglow and others, for the opening up of Young street, your committee recommend that Messrs Brophy and Gibson be a committee to wait on Mr William Patterson, and ascertain what arrangements they can make with him to purchase the right of way for the continuation of Young street, and also to wait upon Alderman Tomkins on a similar subject.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A report from the City Engineer, furnishing the cost of opening up Montreal street, $180, and also a sketch of the proposed street was received and approved of.

The Mayor informed the Council that the property through which new Bagot street would lead, had been purchased recently for $800, and he had no doubt that amount would be taken now for it. There would be little or no grading as the land was perfectly level.

Alderman Allen considered both streets were very much required, but the difficulty remaining in the way was whether permission could be obtained from the military authorities to have them opened through the Artillery Park. The reason why an estimate had not been prepared was because there was a great deal of property to be bought from private individuals, and if they become excited by this project they would be seeking twice its value.

Alderman C. Livingston hesitated not for a moment at the cost of the work, if all other arrangements were complete. Montreal street, in particular, he would urge to be opened, as that street would facilitate the traffic to and from the Grand Trunk Railway depot.

Alderman A. Livingston remembered some years ago the same matter had been introduced to the Council. At that time the petitioners promised to advance funds for the opening of the streets, and he believed that if the streets were commenced, it would not entail one cent of expense to the city.

Alderman Davidson stated that a few years ago when the Imperial Government had been asked for the same object, they were refused point blank, although he presumed it would be granted now, since the power rested with the Dominion Government.

Alderman Price moved, seconded by Alderman Cunningham, that the report be received, and that the Mayor and Alderman Dickson be added to the committee to confer with Sir John A. Macdonald, to solicit his influence to obtain the right of opening up the two streets.

A long discussion here ensued, in which two or three members contended that the previous resolution, adopting the report of a committee, was an insult to the committee on streets and improvements, while others viewed the motion as a proper one, the object of the mover being intended to strengthen the influence, if possible, necessary on making the application.

The resolution was finally submitted and carried unanimously.

Moved by Alderman Gildersleeve, seconded by Mr Kinghorn, that the thanks of this Council are due to Colonel Ferguson and George A. Kirkpatrick, Esq., M.P., for their successful exertions at Toronto to war against the Provincial Exhibition here next year. Carried.

The Council then adjourned at 9.50 o'clock.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE EVENING LECTURES.—The second lecture of the course will be given by Professor Mowat in the Convocation Hall this evening at eight o'clock. Subject—"Edmund Burke." Admission without tickets ten cents.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.—On Sunday evening last, immediately after Vespers, the Roman Catholics presented the Very Rev. James Farrelly, Vicar General of the Diocese, in the hall of the Christian Brothers' School, with an address and a testimonial, in the shape of a handsome and costly gold chalice, on the occasion of his leaving Kingston for Trenton. The reverend gentleman seemed much affected and spoke at some length in grateful terms of the compliment paid him.

MISSIONARY DEPUTATIONS.—The following clergymen have been appointed by the Lord Bishop of Ontario as Missionary Deputations for the winter of 1871.—Deputation No. 2, Rev. J. A. Preston, M.A. (Convener), Rev. J. S. Lauder, M.A., Rev. G. W. Grout, M.A., the Clerical Secretary—Christ Church (Belleville), Trenton, Carrying Place, Hillier, Consecon, Melville, Gerow Gore, Wellington, Picton, Milford, Marysburg, Adolphustown, Fredericksburg, Amherst Island, Bath, Portsmouth, Kingston (St James's). Deputation No. 3, Rev. H. Garrett (Convener), Rev. J. Carroll, Rev. G. J. Low—Shannonville, All Saints, (Tyendinaga), Mill Point, Frizelis Mills, Roslyn, Thomasburgh, Tweed, Madoc, Queensboro, Empey's, Marmora, Stirling, Frankford, St. Thomas (Belleville). The Rev. E. P. Crawford, M.A., was appointed to the parish of Hillier, Prince Edward County.

FAST LIVING.—A young man, who gives his name as Robinson, alias LaRue, has, according to accounts, been leading rather a fast life since his arrival in Kingston a few weeks ago. He has visited the principal cities and towns in Ontario and Quebec, and as a consequence, is ready and willing to participate in any scheme which has the least indication of success. About two weeks ago he was implicated in a larceny, stealing a purse of $60 from a mechanic with whom he was boarding, and after making his way to Gananoque on foot, for the purpose of taking a train going east, was arrested by a friend who had been acquainted with the case, and obliged to disgorge the stolen money, and also a silver-cased watch. Not wishing to entail any further trouble, he was permitted to go at liberty, only, however, to concoct other plans of a similar nature. On Monday last, on his way back from Gananoque, he stopped at Birmingham's Hotel, township of Pittsburg, where he remained until Saturday, during which time he displayed himself to the best advantage, and manifested a decided distaste to mix up in the society of the "ignorant, ill bred farmers." On the last mentioned day he intimated his intention of proceeding to the city, and desiring to have a little hunting, should opportunity present itself, took with him a double-barrelled fowling piece, belonging to the proprietor of the hotel, and borrowed 50c. to purchase powder and shot, stating as he did so that he had nothing less than a $100 note, which he would discount. The young "sport" did not make his appearance since, but a relative of Mr Birmingham, while driving over Barriefield hill on Monday, discovered him dressed in Volunteer uniform, in company with another person about the same stature, who, it appears, deserted from duty on Saturday, and to prevent detention, had changed clothing. As soon as they were aware that they had been identified, both jumped the fences and struck for Kingston Mills, and, although a guard of the Reserve Militia has been sent in search, have not yet been arrested.

THE CONDEMNED PRISONERS.—At present there is no foundation in the report circulated about the city yesterday, that either one or both the condemned prisoners, Mann or Deacon, had made confessions respecting the murders of which they are convicted. It is not at all likely that such will be the case for a time yet, as criminals are generally apt to delay making admissions of any nature until every possible hope of reprieve has vanished from their minds.

lon, Nov, 12.—Count Von ed the following circular t tives of North Germany giving his version of the for an armistice:

Excellency: You will lea Thiers, on the part of the F ress a desire to be admitted to Cabinet representatives of F g at head-quarters, after he entered into communication members of the Government at Tours and in Paris. In c ders from His Majesty I de ess to grant the interview M. Thiers was, in consequen allowed first to proceed to Pa on the 30th ult., returning to arters next, the 31st of the first time that a statesm distinction and importan oes had accepted plenipotent e hands of the Paris Governm ced me to hope that propos itted to us by him on the part ptance of which would be po nterest of the conclusion of p f. Thiers with that respectful ial demeanour and conduct inguished position, not to sep slations, entitled him g the interview M. Thiers dec induced by the expressed de Powers, was ready to accept hus his Majesty the King ha he first declaration of M. Thie he fact that any or every ed during the war would in i many all the disadvantages d with the prolongation of a ch come during such moment perations to every army which lies, particularly its supply of tant sources. Besides this resolves the obligation to leav ops, which had become fully capitulation of Metz, in the ny occupied on the day the ed, and to renounce the occu territory of the enemy, which t achieve without any, or cert esistance. The German arm ect much in the way of reinforc during the next few weeks and, France would, by the co stice, be enabled to develop its complete the organization of at are now forming, and when eopen after the armistice she oppose to us troops which at p to all these considerations th hich was felt by His Majesty a first step in the interest of and I was empowered to adva y granting an armistice of tw L. Thiers afterward wished, tw the basis of the simple statu l on the day of signing. g the interview I proposed to would define, by a line of de would be regularly agreed to a several positions of the troo t hostilities during a space so that France could proce of parliamentary elections fo of a national representation side this truce would have re fleeting the renunciation of in them, always disastrous arm of a useless and, to us, incomp f ammunition from the guns o Paris during the period of its expect to the elections in Als to declare that we shou any stipulation which wou the right of the claim of Fra departments before the con and that we would not make o habitants of these parts resp pearance in a French National constitutional representative men.

s surprised at the French P (M. Thiers) declining these pro all the advantages were on and at his declaring also tha an armistice only in the ev n to an extensive provisioning l that this would include so military concession than a ret gue, or, indeed, to anything it could not be expected. I s in a position to offer his M y equivalent in return? M. in reply, that he was not in any military offer in return obliged to ask this concession g of Paris, without offering in the readiness of the Par accord to the French nation tion of a representative b probably constitute an auth t would be possible for us this shape I had to subo our negotiations and converse the King and his military ad jesty was justly surprised at military claims by Fran appointed in his expectation a result of the negotiations ered with M. Thiers. The that Prussia should give up efforts which she had made the past two months, su dvantages she had gained. he situation back to the cond at the moment when the in as commenced, could only p merely looking for n French nation the right of , and that they were not people an opportunity to c without interruption. nced by my desire to m n come to an understandi basis of settlement, M. Thier n the line of the army o mbers of the Paris Governm tant, so as to propose either basis of the status in quo f of time than that which w ple convening of the elec any treaty or armistic I, said I could guaran ion of French voters to Pa g of every facility which c h our military situation and ny. arding the substance of his in Favre and Trochu, M. Th me any approximate infor merely inform me that the the delivery to him of advice tions with his Majesty and since the completion of an a g the right of reprovisioning be attained. M. Thiers retu place on the 7th inst., at an orning.

course of the negotiations w pressed me with the convict at rulers of France did not, f ing, sincerely wish to hear rench nation expressed in a r mentary body, constituted b trolled election, and that jus their intention to bring about hat they stipulated for a con know from the first to be hat they only asked for thes der not to give to the neutra support they count a direct conclusion, I beg to request yourself to the government credited in accordance with despatch, to the reading of or of State for Foreign A empowered.—Accept, &c.,
