The Daily News

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 15

CABLE NEWS

[illegible]

[illegible] Bismarck [illegible] the rep[illegible] Napoleon [illegible] the late neg[illegible] an armis[illegible]

[illegible] Versailles [illegible] by this [illegible] French peo[illegible] authorized to negotiate [illegible] peace [illegible] His Majesty [illegible] after having pre[illegible] occasions with the [illegible] of the Government of National [illegible] and [illegible] In compliance [illegible] from His Majesty I declared my [illegible] great [illegible] view which he [illegible] was in consequence of this [illegible] to proceed to Paris, which [illegible] the 1st of October [illegible] returning to the royal [illegible] as a statesman ex[illegible] and importance as M [illegible] accepted plenipotentiary pow[illegible] of the Paris Government. The[illegible] me to hope that proposals wou[illegible] by him on the part of France [illegible] of which was, if possible, an[illegible] of the conditions of peace. I re[illegible] respectful attention [illegible] to speak of an[illegible]

[illegible] M. Thiers declared that [illegible] expressed desire of [illegible] accept an armis[illegible] Nogent, in the [illegible] M. Thiers to co[illegible] of every arm to co[illegible] war will then recommence [illegible] hostilities charged [illegible] of a compact [illegible] of deceit [illegible] France would, to the conclusion [illegible] been blind to deceit, rise to the [illegible] gan to arm and when [illegible] occupied on the day the armis[illegible] of Meaux, the occupation of [illegible] enemy, which at present [illegible] The German army [illegible] in the way of reinforcements [illegible] next few weeks. On the [illegible] France would, to the conclusion [illegible] been blind to deceit, rise to the [illegible] gan to arm and when [illegible] occupied on the day the armis[illegible] of Meaux, the occupation of [illegible] enemy, which at present [illegible] The German army [illegible] in the way of reinforcements [illegible] next few weeks. On the [illegible]

[illegible] Versailles, Nov. 11.—[illegible] Bismarck [illegible] negotiate [illegible] France [illegible] of National [illegible] In compliance [illegible] from His Majesty I declared my [illegible] great [illegible] view which he [illegible] was in consequence of this [illegible] to proceed to Paris, which [illegible] the 1st of October [illegible] returning to the royal [illegible] as a statesman ex[illegible] and importance as M [illegible] accepted plenipotentiary pow[illegible] of the Paris Government. The[illegible] me to hope that proposals wou[illegible] by him on the part of France [illegible] of which was, if possible, an[illegible] of the conditions of peace. I re[illegible] respectful attention [illegible] to speak of an[illegible]

[illegible] M. Thiers declared that [illegible] expressed desire of [illegible] accept an armis[illegible] Nogent, in the [illegible] M. Thiers to co[illegible] of every arm to co[illegible] war will then recommence [illegible] hostilities charged [illegible] of a compact [illegible] of deceit