THE EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

The January Meeting was very well attended. The snow didn't stop our members but did cut drastically the public attendance at the nearby Boat Show, thus leaving lots of parking spaces for T.M.H.S.! Our thanks to all who brought or sent slides for our theme show, and our apologies to those whose slides could not be shown because we ran short of time. We should note that members could assist us on open slide nights by having their slides ready in trays before the start of the meeting, and by keeping their comments about each slide to a very short duration.

The Case of the Missing Photopage - Solved: Our trusty photopage printer, Bas Headford, of Minett Printing & Photographic, is now back to work after his recent surgery, and thus not only do we have a regular photopage with this issue, but we also are enclosing (loose) the A. McVITTIE photopage to be inserted into the January issue. We thank the members for
