CABLE NEWS.

London, August 14.—The death of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens has created a profound sensation here. Nearly all the journals have long obituaries this morning.

Paris, Aug 14.—The steamer Columbia, from New York, August 5th, arrived in the river to-day.

Paris, Aug. 14.—The Times, after referring to Mr Stevens' prominent connection with the recent impeachment proceedings, says his views relative to the payment of United States five twenty bonds, form the article with the following sentiments:—"The death of Thaddeus Stevens is not a public loss. His impeachment was an incalculable injury to his party, and the financial dishonesty he encouraged dies with him. He was a cynical, bitter, and self-willed man, not a man or deceitful. He is the last of the old Americans who had the courage to place political partizanship."

The Evening Telegraph has the following:—"Mr Stevens was neither good, wise, nor generous, but in his time he did signal work, and, with all his faults, he merits the Roman phrase, 'that was a man.'"

The Daily News concludes its article:—"The death of Mr Stevens leaves no important place unfilled, either in the lead of his party or in the councils of the nation."

Other journals have articles expressing similar views.

London, Aug. 14.—There was a magnificent military display here to-day. The national imperial guards were reviewed by the Emperor. The Empress, the Prince Imperial and a large number of notables were present. 39 battalions of troops passed in review. The city was gaily dressed and the vast multitudes thronged the streets and the enthusiasm was unbounded. The royal family were loudly cheered.

The grand French naval review came off at Cherbourg to-day, and was witnessed by thousands of delighted spectators.

Liverpool, August 15.—The steamer Nova Scotia, from New York, has arrived.
