PROVINCIAL SYNOD.

Toronto, Sept. 14.—The Synod met in the Cathedral school room.

ADDRESS OF CONDOLENCE

Archdeacon Fuller read the following Address of Condolence to Mrs Fulford, prepared by the committee appointed for that purpose.

To Mrs Fulford.

MADAM—We, the clerical and lay delegates of the United Church of England and Ireland, in the Ecclesiastical Province of Canada, in Provincial Synod assembled, desire to approach you with an earnest expression of our heartfelt sympathy with you in this hour of heavy trial; and to assure you of the universal respect and confidence entertained for our late Metropolitan, and of the deep sorrow felt for his loss; a sorrow extending to all ranks and classes amongst us, and to many outside of our communion. He appears to us to have been a Prelate preeminently fitted by his zeal, his ability, his urbanity, his wisdom, and his devotion to his great Master's service for the difficult and important post to which he was called to fill.

We, therefore, bowing with submission to the inscrutable decree of Him "who doeth all things well," we feel it a privilege to record our sense of the heavy loss which you, Madam, and the Canadian branch of the Church, has sustained; and to assure you of our earnest prayers that He who, for so many years, guided, supported and blessed your beloved husband in the discharge of his arduous duties, and "whose mercies are neither few nor small," may support, guide and bless you and your family under the heavy affliction with which He has been pleased to visit you.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

T. B. FULLER, Chairman.

RITUALISM.

Dr Helmuth read the following report:—The committee to whom were referred petitions and memorial respecting Ritualism, beg to report:

To the Lower House of the Synod of the Province of Quebec.

The Report of the Committee on Ritual, referred to them by the House, on Friday, the 11th instant.

Your Committee have considered as carefully as they could, in the limited time at their disposal, the several memorials and other documents referred to them, a schedule of which is hereunto annexed, and they respectfully report as follows:

From the greater number of the Memorials, referred to your Committee, come expressions of anxiety and alarm at the rapid progress of extreme Ritualism in England, and pray the Synod to adopt such measures as shall effectually guard against the introduction into this Province of Ritualistic practices as are, in the view of the Memorialists, of a dangerous tendency, prejudicial to the purity of the Faith and worship of our Reformed Church. Of the Memorials just referred to, one, viz, that from the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, specifies the particular Ritualistic practices objected against, which are:

1. The wearing of the Chasuble, Alb, Cope, and Tunicle.
2. The lights.
3. The incense.
4. The use of wafer bread.
5. The elevation of the elements after consecration, and the encouragement of non-communicants to remain during the celebration.

It appears to your committee learn from a resolution of the Synod of the Diocese of Huron, laid before them, that the Synod has expressed its concurrence with the Memorial of the Synod of Toronto, on the subject of Ritual.

Among the documents referred to your committee, they find a copy of a resolution of the Synod of Diocese of Montreal, which runs as follows:

"That the Provincial Synod be respectfully requested to take such steps as they may deem necessary to provide that the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer be maintained in their integrity, and make such alterations in the Rubric as may remove any of those ambiguities which have occasioned such difficulties of interpretation as to the meaning and purpose."

The other memorials referred to your Committee deprecate, in the strongest manner, any attempt to alter, in any respect, the Book of Common Prayer, or the Rubrics thereof, until the Church in Canada shall first have had the benefit of the authoritative decisions upon disputed points, which, there is reason to believe, will, ere long, be given by the tribunals in England.

With regard to the questions embraced in the several documents, the objection referred to vestments would, in the opinion of your Committee, be dealt with by resolution numbered 12, in the report on Rubrics now before the Synod, were such resolution adopted; and that as regards the other questions involved in said petitions, your Committee are of opinion that any introduction of extreme ritualistic practices, especially such as symbolize doctrines contrary to those held and professed by our reformed branchof the Catholic Church, would justly call for the interposition of the Synod, with the view of controlling them,—in the words of the report of the Commissioners appointed by the Queen, on the subject of Ritual,—the same should "be restrained." Your Committee, in considering the whole subject, have come to the conclusion that it is not expedient that the Synod should, at its present session, further deal with the questions referred to, for the following reasons:

1. Because no instance has been brought before your committee in which any of the practices specified and complained of has been introduced into any church within this Province.

2. Because, in the absence of any such infraction, legislation on the subject might justly be regarded as premature.

3. Because the whole subject is now before the legal tribunals in England, and it is desirable to ascertain the course adopted in the mother country, and in the mother church, before we inititate measures which might have the effect of separating us from her—especially at a time when so strong an effort is being made to bind together the whole of the scattered branches of our communion in the unity, not only of faith, but also of a common order and worship, so that, although free from any legal bonds, they may ever remain united by spiritual ties, and by intercommunion with each other.

Your Committee, therefore, recommend that the House content itself for the present with dealing with the measures already adverted to, in the manner above mentioned, if they see fit, and will approach the House of Bishops with their respectful request, that their Lordships would put forth a pastoral letter exhorting all the members of our communion to a faithful adherence to the doctrines and discipline of our Church, as set forth in our book of Common Prayer, and to maintain that Protest against the distinctive doctrines of the Church of Rome, which is as necessary at this day as when the Church of England first cast off Romish errors and superstitions.

Your Committee feel persuaded that such an appeal from the Right Rev. the Bishops would be attended with far more beneficial results than any which could be expected from any attempt at special legislation further than the measure hereinbefore adverted to.

All which is respectfully submitted.

J. HELLMUTH, D.D., Chairman.

We, the undersigned, concur in the general tenor of the above report, but we dissent from that portion of the report which recommends delay of action in reference to the points submitted in the memorials from the Dioceses of Toronto and Huron.

J. HELLMUTH, D. D. Chairman;
CHAS. BANCROFT, D.D.
GEORGE V. HOUSMAN,
LT.-COL. FITZGERALD.

SCHEDULE REFERRED TO IN THE ANNEXED REPORT.

1. Petition from the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, praying the aid of the Provincial Synod in preserving the worship of the Church and preventing the introduction of the Ritualistic practices, such as wearing the Chasuble, Alb, Cope and Tunicle; the elevation of the elements after consecration, the use of incense, altar lights, wafer bread, and the encouragement of non-communicants to remain during the celebration of the Holy Communion.

2. Resolution from the Synod of the Diocese of Huron, adopting the sentiments of the petition from the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto.

3. Resolutions from the Synod of the Diocese of Montreal, requesting the Provincial Synod to take steps to remove any ambiguities in the interpretation of the Rubrics, and to provide that the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer be maintained in their integrity.

4. Petitions from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, in the City of Montreal, praying for the introduction of Canon Law, and against the introduction of Ritualistic practices in the Church of Canada.

5. Petition to the same effect from the members of St. Luke's Church, Diocese of Montreal.

6. Similar petition from the Christian Young Men's Church of England Association, Diocese of Montreal.

7. Similar petition from the Vestry of St. James Church, Kingston, Diocese of Ontario.

8. Similar petition from the members of the Church of England, Ottawa, Diocese of Ontario.

9. Resolution from the Vestry, St. Paul's Church, Lanark, Ontario, embodying similar views.

10. Petition from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Prescott, Diocese of Ontario.

11. Petition from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Franklin, Diocese of Montreal.

12. Petition from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Iron Hill and Fulford, Diocese of Montreal, that the Prayer Book be not altered.

13. Memorial from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Diocese of Toronto, against any alteration in the Prayer Book.

14. Memorial from the members of the United Church of England and Ireland, Toronto, embodying similar views, and against superseding the Act of Uniformity.

The Dean remarked that no committee could have acted more unanimously or in a more christian spirit than this one over which it was his privilege to preside. (Cheers.) He gave notice that he would move the consideration of the report tomorrow morning as the first business.

Mr B. T. Norris (Lennoxville) moved, second by the Rev. Canon Loosemore, that the report be printed for the use of members.—Carried.

Some one, with a keen sense of irony, writing under the signature of "J. S. Wortley," has played off upon the Times a rather cruel joke. Several letters have recently appeared in the Times with reference to the Credit Foncier, and on the 17th the Times had a condemnatory leader on the subject. This was followed by a letter from Mr Grant, one of the directors, and on Monday the Times had a letter signed "J. S. Wortley," who had also been a director, announcing the intention of the writer, as soon as he could arrange his affairs, to pay into the bank, on account of a restitution fund, his share of the spoil in the shape of dividend profits, which he calculated would be about $18,000. Mr Wortley was complimented for his high sense of honour, and the unfortunate shareholders were hopeful that some of the spoil would find its way back to their pockets, but these hopes have been dashed by Mr Wortley's repudiation of the letter. The letter was probably sent in mistake to the Times instead of to Punch and the Tomahawk.

Referring to the stupendous American court dress question, the Pall Mall Gazette relates the case of the Minister at Paris some years ago, which is often told in American circles. He had to be presented to Louis Philippe, and pondered much what manner of costume he should wear. While still distracted by the doubts of a girl preparing for her first ball, he happened to see in a tailor's shop a dress which seemed expressly made for such an occasion. He had the presence of mind to order it at once. The appointed day arrived, and the Minister made his appearance before the King, clad in a uniform well calculated to surprise the head of an almost "effete monarchy." But he was amazed and disappointed to find that his Majesty wore the dress of a simple citizen. "If," said the Minister, "I had known your Majesty was going to be so plainly dressed, I would not have put on this," pointing with a rueful air to his finery. "Sir," replied Louis Philippe, "I am too happy to think that there is any costume in France which has attracted your approbation. You have done our field marshals much honour." For it was as a field marshal that he had paid his respects to the King.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED, whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or ropy, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other weakness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men, from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

Is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Druggist, 594, New York, and 104, South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Price—$1,25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6 50, delivered to any address. Sold by all Druggists everywhere.

None are genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed
