THE EDITOR'S LOGBOOK

The January Meeting was well attended and it was good to see so many of our sailing members in attendance after the close of navigation. Our theme, "Ice", was illustrated in many inventive manners by those who came with slides to show, and we thank all of our eager participants. One of our members, who resides in Winnipeg, was so caught up in the theme of our meeting that she had her own personal experience with ice, and wound up requiring orthopaedic surgery and almost a month in hospital! We hope she is now feeling better and that she will forgive Ye Ed., who was the Committee Member who suggested our icy theme topic...

In the New Member Department, a hearty welcome goes out to Terry W. German, of Scarborough, and to Christopher Dunn, of Port McNicoll.
