BY TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

London, Sept. 22.—Advices from Spain that Gen. Concha is at the head of rebel troops.

Espartero, the Prime Minister, recently resigned, has died.

Queen Isabella is at San Sebastian. The road between that place and Madrid is infested with revolutionists to such an extent that the Queen will not make the journey.

Present martial law has been proclaimed throughout the whole of Spain.

Paris, Sept. 22.—The Patrie yesterday evening published the following, furnished by the Spanish ambassador in this city: "Madrid is quiet, though the people are excited. The troops are faithful at Cadiz. All the troops and citizens are faithful, and the garrison has been reinforced as a precautionary measure. The other towns throughout the towns are quiet."

London, Sept. 22.—The telegraph wires in Spain are disordered in every direction. The news received is uncertain and contradictory. Generals Prim and De Roda, at the head of the insurgent forces, are marching on the capital.

Dublin, Sept. 22.—A party of about 60 men, all armed, and many of them masked, made an attack on the house of a Justice, near Cork, last night, and carried off a quantity of arms, which they carried off. The movement was directed by an American. There was no opposition offered. No arrests were made.

Patrick Doran and Daniel Moriarty, who were convicted of complicity in the Fenian outrages in Australia some time ago, have been pardoned on condition that they do not go to Ireland.

Michael Hanley, of this city, a convicted felon, has been pardoned.

London, Sept. 22.—The people of the provinces of Corunna, Lugo, Orenze, Ponte, Murcia, Albacete, Huesca, Saragossa and Ternel, have pronounced for the insurrectionists. The rebels are very strong in the provinces of Barcelona, Tarragona, Lerida, and Gerona. It is said that "the dignity of the people," and "appeal to insurrection," are the war cries of the insurgents.

Paris, Sept. 22.—The Moniteur has the following in regard to the royal armies of Spain: General Concha's brother has been ordered to command the centre. General Pezuela commands in Catalonia; Arragon and Navarre and Gen. Novalicheg in Andalusia.

Paris, Sept. 22.—The report is current that the Minister of War will instantly issue orders for the dismissal to their homes of 100 men from the army on furlough.

London, Sept. 22.—Despatches from Naples report that insurrections have broken out in Calabria and Sicily in favour of the Italian Republic. The Italian government is taking prompt and strong steps to put a stop to the disorders.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Telegrams to journals reconfirm the news of the rising in the south of Italy.

The Temps fears that Italians desire the overthrow of the Monarchy under Victor Emanuel.

The Gaulois asserts that Francis II., the King of Sicily, is the prime instigator of the movement and the rebels merely acting under the pretence of republican principles.

New York, Sept. 23.—The Herald's London special of last evening says:—Advices from Madrid dated yesterday evening, the report that a government decree has been issued in the capital, accepting the resignation of all the ministers of the Gonzales Bravo cabinet. The decree named General Jose Concha President of the Council of State, in the Queen's name, but he had not however formed a ministry when the telegrams were despatched.

The Madrid Gazette of the 21st announced that a revolt against the Government had taken place at Cadiz and Seville.

The Government had formed the army into three great military divisions, which are placed under the command of Generals Pezuela, Manuel Concha, and Novaliches, and they had decided to attack the insurgents in the rural districts.

The Captain-General in command in Madrid published an official notice at the corners of each street forbidding assemblages of people in the city.

A provisional government had been formed at Seville, which declared Espertro as President.

The forces of the insurgents are estimated at numbering fourteen thousand soldiers and five thousand sailors serving in eleven ships of war.

The revolt makes progress at all points.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—The King of Prussia has returned here from his tour through the Northern States.

London, Sept. 22, evening.—It is rumoured that the Spanish fleet off Cadiz has opened fire on that city, where, at last accounts, the citizens and troops remained true for the Queen.

Paris, Sept. 22.—Official despatches from Spain admit that the insurrection has broken out at Madrid and in Seville, but its existence in Murcia and Galicia is denied.

Glasgow, September 23.—The steamer Hibernia, from New York on the 5th, arrived here on the 20th.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, Sept. 23, 1.20 p.m.—Consols 94¾ for money, and 94¾ to 94⅞ for account; Erie and American securities quiet and steady.

Liverpool, Sept. 23, 1:20 p.m.—Cotton easier but lower; sales are 12,000 bales. Provisions dearer. Pork buoyant at 89s. Bacon dearer 36s.

New York Press Despatches.

San Francisco, Sept. 23.—Barkerville, British Columbia, was destroyed by fire on the 9th Sept. The loss is estimated at as million of dollars. The safes of the Banks of British North America and British Columbia were saved.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

INSOLVENT ACT OF 1864.

Province of Ontario, } In the County Court of County of Frontenac. } the County of Frontenac.

In the Matter of GEORGE SAVAGE HOBART, an Insolvent.

THE undersigned has filed a Deed of Composition and Discharge executed by his Creditors, and on Monday, the 28th day of September next, he will apply to the Judge of the said Court for a confirmation thereof.

Kingston, July 16th, A.D. 1868.

GEORGE SAVAGE HOBART.

BARTON & PRICE,
Attorneys ad litem.

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: The death of your late member, Sir Henry Smith, having rendered vacant the representation of the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, I am induced to think that the offer of my services might be acceptable to the Electors. Long identified with the County interests, and having as an old member of the County Council, and as Warden, become thoroughly conversant with your local affairs, I am, I think, in a position to be of service to you in the Legislature. Many of you too have had knowledge of me in my business transactions, and you can thus in both respects form an opinion of my fitness for the honour which I seek at your hands.

Agriculture will have in me a warm and active friend, and I shall always be ready to lend my aid to all measures having its advancement in view.

The promotion of the settlement of the country I shall endeavour to further by seeking to have the Back Roads completed, by endeavouring to secure the passage of a generous Homestead Law, and the adoption of a more liberal policy with respect to Free Grants of Public Lands.

Education has been greatly fostered in Canada for many years past by grants of public money. I believe that most good can be done with such grants by adopting the channels which the various denominations of Christians among us have selected for the expenditure of their own means, and I will advocate the continuance of the grants to the several Colleges in Ontario which they have hitherto received.

The present Government of Ontario has met the just expectations of the people in the economical administration of public affairs, and is entitled to my cordial support.

I shall endeavour to see you as far as time will permit, between now and the Election, and will be ready to explain my views on all public questions.

D. D. CALVIN.

ART OF ADVERTISING.—Horace Greeley, of New York, says:—The most successful business men in this city are those who have advertised liberally and constantly. A small advertisement constantly appearing is better than a display column occasionally.

EFFECT OF ADVERTISING.—It is amusing at times to observe the stores of the merchants who don't advertise; to see the anxious proprietors looking into the streets and see the people go by, wondering why they don't come in, while the stores of their neighbours who do advertise are thronged with customers. Some people will learn by observation, others will not.—Daily Palladium.
