CABLE NEWS.

London, Sept. 23.—The Times' Paris letter says.—General Prim has started from Paris. He met the recently exiled Generals Dulce, Captain Malcampo, of the Spanish iron-clad Saragossa, who has declared for the insurgents, brought his guns to bear on the barracks at Cadiz, and compelled royal troops garrisoning the city to surrender the city. Having pronounced for revolution, each General sailed to prearranged points on the coast, where each raised the standard of insurrection, and set the movement on foot in his appointed theatre of operations.

Paris, Sept 23.—Madrid is quiet. Extraordinary has been made Minister of Marine. Advices from the Provinces contradictory. The Madrid Gazette says that Navaliches has arrived on the north side of the Sierra Morena with two regiments of cavalry, eight battalions of infantry and four batteries.

The revolutionary General Serrano was pursuing with a large force on Cordova to battle to the Royal troops.

Great excitement prevailed. The success of the revolutionists was considered certain. Queen Isabella has signified her willingness to abdicate if the revolutionists will accept the young Prince of Asturias as King, and act as Regent until he attains his majority. The revolutionists, however, refuse any compromise, and demand the exile of the Bourbons and the establishment of the Constituent Assembly and Provisional Government.

The authorities in England have determined to put down prize-fighting—a measure of reform which has long been greatly needed. Since the great battle between Sayers and Heenan, the "noble art" has been sadly on the wane, and the encounters have not received the attention they were supposed to merit. About a week ago a battle was to have come off between Goss and Allen, and all arrangements were completed for £400 a side. The police however, put a stop to the contemplated water excursion—for railways are out of the question now under the new Regulation act—by arresting the principals over night. They were compelled to find bail at Bow street the next morning, and an old stager—Nat Langham—was accepted as one of the sureties. In all probability, now that the authorities have shown that they have determined to reform the law, this will be the last fight arranged, and all but blacklegs and betting men will rejoice at the prospect.

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: In accordance with the desire of many of the Electors, I intend to offer myself as a Candidate at the approaching Election. I shall address you at length in the Argus.
JOHN STEWART.
Sept. 24.

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: The death of your late member, Sir Henry Smith, having rendered vacant the representation of the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, I am induced to think that the offer of my services might be acceptable to the Electors. Long identified with the County interests, and having as an old member of the County Council, and as Warden, become thoroughly conversant with your local affairs, I am, I think, in a position to be of service to you in the Legislature. Many of you too have had knowledge of me in my business transactions, and you can thus in both respects form an opinion of my fitness for the honour which I seek at your hands.

Agriculture will have in me a warm and active friend, and I shall always be ready to lend my aid to all measures having its advancement in view.

The promotion of the settlement of the country I shall endeavour to further by seeking to have the Rask Roads completed, by endeavouring to secure the passage of a generous Homestead Law, and the adoption of a more liberal policy with respect to Free Grants of Public Lands.

Education has been greatly fostered in Canada for many years past by grants of public money. I believe that most good can be done with such grants by adopting the channels which the various denominations of Christians among us have selected for the expenditure of their own means, and I will advocate the continuance of the grants to the several Colleges in Ontario which they have hitherto received.

The present Government of Ontario has met the just expectations of the people in the economical administration of public affairs, and is entitled to my cordial support.

I shall endeavour to see you as far as time will permit, between now and the Election, and will be ready to explain my views on all public questions.

D. D. CALVIN.
