They even oppose such candidates Tichborne as The O'Donoghue in Tra- lee; John Francis Maguire in Cork; and other equally strong advocates of Irish rights. The journals in Ireland which have shown most sympathy with the late Fenian agitation have come out strongly in support of these coalitions.

London, Sept. 27, evening.—Official despatches from Madrid to-night contain the following:—The rebel forces under General Serrano, and the royal army under the Marquis of Novalicheze, are gradually approaching each other, and it is probable a decisive battle will soon take place. The Marquis asks for reinforcements. General Prim is not well received by the other rebel generals, and is carrying out his own plans without their co-operation. The Spanish Government has received reports that the rebels have been driven from Alcoq, in the Province of Alicant. Madrid remains quiet. No revolutionary demonstration has been made in the Northeastern Provinces.

Madrid, Sept. 27.—The insurgents have torn up the railway in the Sierra Moreno. Count Girgenti, with his troops, is compelled to remain in the mountain defiles. General Prim is expected at Barcelona today, where the people are only waiting for his arrival to rise. Madrid and Saragossa are also ripe for revolt. The vanguard of the army under Novalicheze, numbering 3,000, had joined the insurgents. Novalicheze, in consequence, was obliged to wait for reinforcements. The French squadron had arrived at Barcelona.

London, Sept. 27.—A battle was hourly expected between Novalicheze and Serrano near Cordova. The Royalists had lost over six hundred in the fight at Santander, but succeeded in regaining possession of the city. General Colonge marches to-morrow on Santona. He has resolved to burn the place if it makes any resistance.

There has been a large amount of smuggling done recently between Windsor and Detroit. Several Americans who had visited Canada with the view of benefitting by the low prices prevailing in a lightly taxed country, have lately been arrested on their arrival in Detroit, and large quantities of clothing and other goods found upon them "confiscated."

J. O'Farrell, advocate, writes a letter in the Quebec Chronicle, stating that if unfortunately the obstruction placed on the Grand Trunk railroad, to attempt the life of Mr O'Reilly, be traced home to any countryman of his, he will withdraw from the defence of Whelan and the other Irish prisoners at once, and from Irish affairs for ever. He thinks the rumour that the obstruction was intended for Mr O'Reilly's life is erroneous.

The steamship St. George in entering Quebec harbour collided with the steamship Merritt, loaded with flour for Pictou; both vessels were in motion at the time. The St. George received no damage, but the other vessel sustained a considerable amount in the hull, and the bulwarks were torn away, and she was obliged to put back.

Hastings County makes but a small show in the Provincial Exhibition prize list. For the best 3 factory cheese, not less than 50 lbs. each, H. Ostrom, of Huntingdon, took the 2nd prize, of $25; and J. D. Farley, of Sidney, the 3rd prize for dairy cheese, not less than 30 lbs., $6.

The following insolvents are gazetted: James Christie, Elora; Henry Winter, Sombra; John H. Bartlett, Granby; Calvin Hall, Manvers; J. & W. Hogg, York Township; Thos. J. Jones, St. Marys; J. Z. Phillips, Montreal; John Caswell, Stanbridge; A. & M. Walsh, Montreal; W. Hilton & Co., Montreal; Ephraim Cronk, Aylmer, County of Elgin; Thos. L. L. Lewis, Innisfil; Thomas Hula, Otonabee; Dr. Wilson, St. Marys; Hoskins & Clelland, Toronto; W. B. Bowie, Montreal; Wm. Palin, Ottawa; W. A. Pates, Mitchell village; Thos. McFaul, Picton; P. NEW DOMINION HOUSE,

Sept. 17. 82 KING STREET. 82

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: The death of your late member, Sir Henry Smith, having rendered vacant the representation of the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, I am induced to think that the offer of my services might be acceptable to the Electors. Long identified with the County interests, and having as an old member of the County Council, and as Warden, become thoroughly conversant with your local affairs, I am, I think, in a position to be of service to you in the Legislature. Many of you too have had knowledge of me in my business transactions, and you can thus in both respects form an opinion of my fitness for the honour which I seek at your hands.

Agriculture will have in me a warm and active friend, and I shall always be ready to lend my aid to all measures having its advancement in view.

The promotion of the settlement of the country I shall endeavour to further by seeking to have the Back Roads completed, by endeavouring to secure the passage of a generous Homestead Law, and the adoption of a more liberal policy with respect to Free Grants of Public Lands.

Education has been greatly fostered in Canada for many years past by grants of public money. I believe that most good can be done with such grants by adopting the channels which the various denominations of Christians among us have selected for the expenditure of their own means, and I will advocate the continuance of the grants to the several Colleges in Ontario which they have hitherto received.

The present Government of Ontario has met the just expectations of the people in the economical administration of public affairs, and is entitled to my cordial support.

I shall endeavour to see you as far as time will permit, between now and the Election, and will be ready to explain my views on all public questions.
