CABLE NEWS

Paris, Sept. 28.—Count Walewski died yesterday, aged 59 years.

The Moniteur has the following news from Spain:—Alcoy, a city of about 30,000 pop. in the province of Alicante, has revolted. Three ships appeared off Carthagena. It is supposed they formed part of Gen. Prim's fleet. Marshal Paira of the Spanish army is still recruiting. It is said that the town of Leon has pronounced for the revolutionists, also Saragossa; and that Gen. Pezuela, Count of Cheste, was killed.

London, Sept. 28.—Advices from Spain confirm all the previous reports that the insurgents are marching in force upon the capital of the nation. The royal troops were sent against Santander, and since the capture of that city have been engaged in pursuing the rebels in that quarter, have received orders to return to Madrid for the purpose of protecting the capital. The revolution is rapidly progressing in the interior. The city of Valladolid has pronounced against the Queen, and the revolt has also extended to most of the provinces in which Old and New Castile are divided.

Berlin, Sept. 28, evening.—The Emperor Alexander of Russia visited the King of Prussia yesterday at Potsdam, and to-day departed for Warsaw. The King of Prussia left for Baden.

Paris, Sept. 28.—M. Pinara, Minister of the Interior, has forbidden the passage of refugeards through France on their way to Spain.

London, Sept. 28, midnight.—The following is the very latest from Spain. The revolting of Carthagena has been bombarded by the rebel fleet. General Prim has gone to Valencia. The Marquis of Novalichez, commander of the royal troops in the field, is retreating before the advance of Marshal Serrano.

Paris, Sept. 28, evening.—La Patrie says the situation in Spain is grave. The rebels are gaining strength every day, while the forces of the Government to withstand the movement are evidently becoming weaker. The last ship of the Spanish navy has now joined the rebels, and all reports indicate that public opinion throughout the kingdom favours the revolution. The portion of the army which still remains faithful to the Queen is disorganized, and little dependence can be placed on it.

Liverpool, Sept. 29.—The steamers America, of Baltimore, and Tarifa, have arrived.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Liverpool, Sept. 29.—Yarns and fabrics at Manchester flat. Cotton firmer and more active. Breadstuffs firm. Red wheat 10s 10d. Pork dull. Pork quiet.

London, Sept. 92, 1:20 p.m.—Consols 94¼ for both money and account; Erie flat at 32; Illinois Central firmer at 95½.

New York Press Despatches.

Boston, Sept. 28.—The international cricket match between the All England eleven and the United States 22 commenced to-day. When time was called the England eleven had made 89 runs and had five wickets down.

Cincinnati, Sept. 28.—The Pitcher tunnel on the Marietta and Cincinnati railroad, which caught fire some days ago, caved in yesterday and buried two men. While the reconstruction engine was backing up to the scene of disaster it ran over two hand cars containing eighteen men, instantly killing five of them and seriously injuring three others, two of whom are not expected to recover.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 29.—An enthusiastic meeting was held last night in aid of the Ogdensburgh railroad.

New York, Sept. 29.—The steamer Helvetia, from Europe, has arrived.

The officers and men of the United States steamer Wateree and two survivors of the Peruvian, the vessels wrecked by the earthquake in South America, reached this city yesterday.

Additional details of the terrible scenes during the late earthquake are thus received. In Ecuador alone, it is now stated, the list of killed amounts to fifty thousand. In Peru the dead are yet hidden under the ruins of houses. In many instances a stench infects the air, which, it is thought, will produce a pestilence. A band of robbers are roaming through the ruins, robbing everyone who has anything left.

Buffalo Sept. 29.—A fire last evening destroyed the printing and press-room of the Commercial Advertiser office, together with the files of the paper and many valuable lithograph and stereotype plates which cannot be replaced. Loss $125,000. Insured for $60,000.

COMMERCIAL.

SHOCKING BARBARITIES BY MUTINOUS COOLIES.

A Bombay paper publishes the following horrible tale of an incident which it fears too often occurs in connection with the traffic in coolies:—"The Italian ship Theresa recently arrived at Macao, after having left that port for Callao about five months ago, and brings with her one of the most horrible tales of mutiny which I have heard for many years. It appears from the statement of the captain (Bolos) that she sailed from Macao with 296 coolies, and a general cargo of silk, tea, &c, on the 3rd of February last. Things seem to have been as usual, and, after a passage of sixty-two days, land was sighted, which proved to be New Zealand. While the men were employed in the fore part of the ship a rush was made aft by the coolies to seize the cabin and arms, which they accomplished, and before 10 minutes had elapsed 12 of the crew were killed, cut to pieces, and thrown overboard; the second mate was also killed on the topgallant forecastle while fighting manfully, by one of the ship's crew, who shot him with a rifle to save his own life. The mate had 17 wounds, and was placed in irons; and, after 80 days' torture, such as driving nails into his head, &c., was killed about two days before the ship arrived off the coast of China. But now comes the most horrid part of this story. The Hakkas and Puntis after the ship was taken, had a free fight, and in less than two hours 50 were killed, and their hands taken off; after which they were placed in boxes and put in the ship's hold. The stench after 60 days was dreadful, and to add to this, the captain's wife was placed in the 'tween decks, and not treated with the greatest kindness. There is no doubt but that the greater part of the coolies were pirates, as they made the captain steer for the harbour of Tin-pack, and had quite a knowledge of the use of the compass and of the chart. The ship, after anchoring in the port of Tin-pack, was stripped of everything of value, and in this plunder, we are informed, the mandarins gave every assistance. The ship's name was taken off all her boats, and after many trials she reached Macao Roads with a crew of about eight Europeans alive, including the captain's wife."

The London and North Western Railway, with its thirty thousand officers and workmen, make such arrangements for the conduct of Sunday work as to enable every man to attend church at least once on Sunday.

One of Brigham Young's disciples, named Kimball, has been trying to drum up recruits for Mormondom in Louis Napoleon's dominion, but the women in La Belle France do not take kindly to the idea of contenting themselves with any fractional part of a husband, and his converts are few. Failing in this direction, Kimball has turned his attention to vine culture, and acquired a valuable fund of information on that subject, which he proposes to make available in Utah.

In looking at the return of the expenses incurred in following out the Repeal folly, laid on the table of the House the other day by the Provincial Secretary, the editor of the Halifax Witness thinks that "the travelling fees to members coming to a 'Convention' not recognized by law are extravagant;" and adds, "Here is Mr Chipman from Cornwallis charging $35, when it is well known that $5 or $6 would cover his travelling expenses, and $3 or $4 his board. The same remark applies to other cases. Is it any wonder that the Province is in debt?" Certainly not. But as "patriots" invariably require to be well paid, our only fear is that even the "probable deficit" of $12,791.24 set down by the Provincial Secretary will be far exceeded. But there must be a deflict or the "patriots" would be no prophets.

There is a leading bank in New York where a thief is employed at a good salary. This paradox is thus explained. Some months ago a large sum of money was stolen from the bank safe. All the evidence showed that if the theft could be the work of no outsider, it must have been committed by some one in the bank. Consequently, detectives were employed, and all the clerks, from cashier down, are now under strict surveillance. They all know that one of their number must be guilty; but who it is, the guilty one alone can tell. No clerk dare resign, for he would at once be suspected of the crime; nor can the real thief make use of his booty, because any unusual expenditure would direct suspicion towards him. A pleasant bank that, to be connected with!

Poor Train never was blessed with much sense, but his long continued imprisonment for debt, appears to have made a drivelling idiot of him. In a letter to the New York World he says that "he dismissed Adams, and that if Johnson does not attend to his case, he will send him home." He also says that he has "changed his mind about Canada and wishes the Fenians to go there, rip up the railways, promulgate a declaration and Constitution, send out letters of marque, and then take Ireland." Has this unfortunate man no friends or relations who care enough about him to prevent his publishing his folly to the world? He cannot help being a lunatic, but he might be prevented from exposing his insanity.

Napoleon, since he became Emperor, has many times tried his hand at newspaper writing; and, as experts at the business, we must confess that his occasional article in the Moniteur evinces an ability and force that few editors of the present day could equal. It is still more surprising, however, to hear that the Pope has taken to writing in the newspapers. A letter from Rome says that he seems to have caught the infection while reading the proofs of the Civitta Catolica, for it is from the annotations he then made that he has composed several articles which have appeared in the official journals. The last Giornale di Roma contains some anonymous strictures by his Holiness on a Canon Vienna, who, it appears, held condemned doctrines and lately died unrepentant. Though we do not feel that the profession of journalism derives any particular dignity from the fact that the Emperor and the Pope appear among newspaper writers, yet nothing could show more strikingly the power of the modern press. The Pope has again denounced the newspaper as a child of the devil and an enemy of God. The Emperor is more afraid of the newspaper than all the kings and armies of the world. And both the Pope and the Emperor, having utterly failed to extirpate or control that great engine of thought and freedom, have humbly sought its assistance to spread their ideas and strengthen their authority.—New York Times

NEW DOMINION HOUSE,

Sept. 17. 82 KING STREET. 82

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: The death of your late member, Sir Henry Smith, having rendered vacant the representation of the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, I am induced to think that the offer of my services might be acceptable to the Electors. Long identified with the County interests, and having as an old member of the County Council, and as Warden, become thoroughly conversant with your local affairs, I am, I think, in a position to be of service to you in the Legislature. Many of you too have had knowledge of me in my business transactions, and you can thus in both respects form an opinion of my fitness for the honour which I seek at your hands.

Agriculture will have in me a warm and active friend, and I shall always be ready to lend my aid to all measures having its advancement in view.

The promotion of the settlement of the country I shall endeavour to further by seeking to have the Back Roads completed, by endeavouring to secure the passage of a generous Homestead Law, and the adoption of a more liberal policy with respect to Free Grants of Public Lands.

Education has been greatly fostered in Canada for many years past by grants of public money. I believe that most good can be done with such grants by adopting the channels which the various denominations of Christians among us have selected for the expenditure of their own means, and I will advocate the continuance of the grants to the several Colleges in Ontario which they have hitherto received.

The present Government of Ontario has met the just expectations of the people in the economical administration of public affairs, and is entitled to my cordial support.

I shall endeavour to see you as far as time will permit, between now and the Election, and will be ready to explain my views on all public questions.
