TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

Paris, Sept. 29.—Mr Henry M. Watts had an audience with the Emperor of Austria, at which he presented his credentials, was received as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States to the Court of Vienna.

Count Serr has been indicted for issuing a circular address against laws passed by the Diet.

Madrid, Sept. 29.—The Moniteur has the following news from Spain —The city of Santander joins in the revolt. Marshal Serrano, the royal army at last accounts completely surrounded by the insurgent forces, and is probably captured by this time. The insurrection is general throughout Spain. It is thought that Concha himself will soon join the insurgent Gen. Serrano. The rebels have retaken Santander, which has been declared a free port by the insurgents. The Paris journals despair of Queen's cause.

Madrid, Sept. 29.—The Queen of Spain arrives at San Sebastian. She is attended by Carlos Merfort, one of the members of the last cabinet.

The Moniteur says that Jose de la Concha, the head of the government in Madrid, and Manuel de la Concha in command of the troops in the field, have both sent in their resignations to the Queen. In the communication they inform her Majesty that they decline to return to Madrid unless accompanied by her minister Merfort, despairing hope of checking the insurrection. The Queen has accepted the resignations of Concha, and has sent for the Count of Lucchas, and has sent for the Count of Lucchas to form a new ministry. The Queen has also summoned a council of State to meet at San Sebastian.

Paris, Sept. 29, 10 p.m.—The following has been received from Spain to-night: Serrano is sick and unable to take an active part in political affairs. General Prim is hourly expected to arrive off Barcelona. It is believed that the city will declare against the Queen as soon as the fleet arrives.

It is rumoured the insurrection has broken out in Madrid, and that the Queen had left San Sebastian and crossed the French frontier.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Paris, Sept. 30, a.m.—Money quiety, at 3½ for both money and account; French securities steady; Bonds 73¼; Erie and Illinois Central 95¼.

Liverpool, Sept. 30, a.m.—Cotton buoyant, Orleans and steady at 27s 6d. Corn 35s 9d. Wheat quiet.

New York Press Despatches.

New York, Sept. 30.—Advices from Paraguay state that a mine had exploded at Humaita, almost annihilating the allied troops who had just taken possession. A truce between the contending parties had been partially arranged by the Chilian and British ministers. It was probable that the Argentine Republic would agree to the terms proposed, but Brazil, flushed with recent victory, would probably refuse any terms of peace. Additional intelligence from the scene of the late earthquake is received. In Quito the stench arising from the buried bodies is horrible. Pillaging is going on in Arica, Arequipa, Peru. The artillery battalion at Arica were at odds with the people, who accuse them of treachery. The stores of the United States at Wateree were being distributed to the poor in Arica. Shocks were felt as late as August 29th. Some people were still being dug out of the ruins alive; one woman among them having been entombed six days alongside of his wife's corpse.

New York, Sept. 30.—On Friday night the Garibaldian Legion are to serenade the Prince. They will be dressed in uniform, and bear torches. The procession, it is expected, will number forty thousand.

The Board of Aldermen of this city effected an organization to-day after disputing for four months. The Democrats gave way under a compromise, the Republicans being seated, and elected one of their number President of the Board. This action places the whole city government in the hands of the Republicans.

A large and magnificent meteor was seen in the north-eastern part of the heavens last night. When about half way upon its course it exploded; the remainder continued on its course, and finally also exploded.

THE HUSBAND POISONING IN FRANCE.

A French paper gives the following particulars of the poisoning of three men by their wives at Marseilles:—"The previous conduct of the husbands who had been poisoned was irreproachable; that of their wives left much to be desired from a moral point of view. The way in which this series of crimes was discovered was this. A married man, who was on intimate terms with one of the accused, first gave information under the following circumstances. After her husband's death this woman made no secret of her wish to marry again. 'Do as I did,' she said to him, 'get rid of your wife. If you want to obtain poison, I will enable you, and teach you how to use it.' And when he grew pale and gave no answer, she added, 'I am not advising you. I command you, and if you don't obey, I will poison you.' This infamous audacity conquered the man's hesitation, and he went to the Procureur Imperial and told everything. An herbalist who lives in the Old Quarter of Marseilles aided the prisoner in her criminal proceedings, and is said to have sold a considerable quantity of poison to other women, her friends, who bought it with the openly avowed intention of murdering their husbands, 'pour les en debarrasser.' Four, if not five, women altogether are implicated, besides some men employed in commerce and manufacture, whose intimacy with them was well known. The woman first arrested is a foundling that a wine merchant took out of the hospital and married. She has given circumstantial details of the crime, which agree in all particulars with the information laid. The herbalist also is in prison."

The Prince of Wales contemplates a visit to the African continent. Should the Prince carry out this intention, his Royal Highness will visit Egypt and the Cataracts of the Nile.

Reverdy Johnson, the American Minister to England, has changed the office of the Legation in London, and is living there in very handsome style. He intends to entertain a good deal, and to keep the Legation fully up to the standard of other diplomatic establishments maintained by European nations in London.

The Italian government, says a letter from Florence, is disconcerted and uneasy on account of the Girgenti visit to Fontainebleau, and the sort of fuss made about Francis II's brother and his wife at the French Court. It is remembered that Italian unity was never the Napoleonic project, and if great wars and great events come, who can foresee what may be in store for the southern provinces?

On Thursday Southport was startled by the report that Mr T. B. Hodgkinson, the accountant to the corporation, had been arrested for embezzlement. The report proved too true, and the amount is very large, he having acknowledged, it is said, £8,000. Mr Hodgkinson had been many years in the service of the Improvement Commissioners before the council was appointed, and was looked upon as of unimpeachable character, and he has had the custody of all moneys.—Manchester Courier.

A man entered a cafe near to Paris, where, after partaking freely, he said that having only two francs left he could not drink any more, as he wanted that sum to purchase charcoal enough to suffocate himself. "Nonsense" replied the landlord, "for ten centimes you can buy rope enough to hang yourself." "You're right," said the man, and accordingly spent all but ten centimes. The next morning his body was found hanging to a branch of a tree in front of the cafe.

NEW DOMINION HOUSE,

Sept. 17. 82 KING STREET. 82

To the Electors of the County of Frontenac—

GENTLEMEN: The death of your late member, Sir Henry Smith, having rendered vacant the representation of the County of Frontenac in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, I am induced to think that the offer of my services might be acceptable to the Electors. Long identified with the County interests, and having as an old member of the County Council, and as Warden, become thoroughly conversant with your local affairs, I am, I think, in a position to be of service to you in the Legislature. Many of you too have had knowledge of me in my business transactions, and you can thus in both respects form an opinion of my fitness for the honour which I seek at your hands.

Agriculture will have in me a warm and active friend, and I shall always be ready to lend my aid to all measures having its advancement in view.

The promotion of the settlement of the country I shall endeavour to further by seeking to have the Back Roads completed, by endeavouring to secure the passage of a generous Homestead Law, and the adoption of a more liberal policy with respect to Free Grants of Public Lands.

Education has been greatly fostered in Canada for many years past by grants of public money. I believe that most good can be done with such grants by adopting the channels which the various denominations of Christians among us have selected for the expenditure of their own means, and I will advocate the continuance of the grants to the several Colleges in Ontario which they have hitherto received.

The present Government of Ontario has met the just expectations of the people in the economical administration of public affairs, and is entitled to my cordial support.

I shall endeavour to see you as far as time will permit, between now and the Election, and will be ready to explain my views on all public questions.
