CABLE NEWS.

London, Nov. 9.—In the case of Miss Lydia Becker, the Court of Common Pleas has rendered a decision in which all the Judges concur, that the common law of England gives no woman the right to vote.

It is reported that Sir William Mansfield, Commander in Chief of the forces in India, will succeed Lord Strathnairn at the head of the troops in Ireland.

The Morning Post regrets the postponement of the negotiations for a new reciprocity treaty between the Dominion of Canada and the United States. It regards the conclusion of such a treaty as the only sedative for the discontent of Nova Scotia.

Madrid, Nov. 9.—Marshal Serrano has nominated twenty five Councillors of state, Justices of the Peace have been re-appointed in all the Provinces of Spain.

Popular demonstrations have been made in the Balearic and Canary Islands in favour of religious toleration, and petitions have been sent here praying the Government to immediately issue a decree establishing the freedom of public worship.

London, Nov. 9.—The Times' Madrid correspondent writes to that journal that the Crown of Spain will probably be offered to Espartero. The decree, removing Lersundi from the Captain Generalcy of Cuba, and appointing General Dulce in his place, was officially published on Saturday

Lisbon, Nov. 9.—The mail steamer from South America has arrived at this port. She brings dates from Rio de Janeiro to the 12th ult.

The allied fleet and army were before Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay. News of the surrender of the city was hourly expected at Rio.

It was reported that the United States squadron, under Rear Admiral Davis, was going up the Paraguay river to Asuncion

Rome, Nov. 9.—The Pope has just paid a visit to the fortifications of Civita Vecchia, where he was received by General Dumont of the French army and by General Kanster. After a thorough examination of the work, his Holiness invited the two Generals to his table, and complimented them upon the magnificent appearance of their troops and the strength of the defences.

Vienna, Nov. 9.—A despatch from Bucharest announces that Menotti and Ricciotti, Garibaldi's two sons, have established their general quarters in the latter city for the purpose of revolutionizing the Turkish empire.

Cork, Nov .9.—A great popular demonstration took place here yesterday on the occasion of the funeral of Mr James Mountain, who is supposed to have held a prominent position in the Fenian organization. A procession of over six thousand men and women followed the remains to the cemetery. Mr Mountain formerly resided in the United States, and was a delegate to the Fenian Convention held at Chicago in November, 1863.

New York, Nov. 10.—The following are the Democrat's cable specials :—

Madrid, Nov. 9.—The anti-slavery meeting has decided that after the 30th of the present month all negro children below seven years of age would be enfranchised.

The population of Madrid made a great demonstration against the penalty of death. After several speeches, the crowd marched to the public square and burned the scaffold as a protest against Spanish jurisprudence in all penal questions. Everything went off in perfect order.

London, Nov. 9.—Queen Isabella has retained apartments for herself and retinue at Brighton. She is to be here in the course of a week. Her visit is an object of great comment among the people and politicians of England.

Brussels, Nov. 9.—The health of the Prince Royal of Belgium is declining every day, and there is but very little hope of preserving his life.

Geneva, Nov. 9.—The Congress of Geneva, just adjourned, has declared to adhere to the Conventiou of 1864, by which hospital service and ambulance waggons will hereafter be regarded as neutral by belligerents, and protested by contending parties.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, Nov. 10, 1:20 p.m.—Consols 94¾ for money ; Bonds 74¼ ; Erie 27¼ ; Illinois Central 96½.
