BY TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

London, Nov. 21. Attempts have been made to organize anniversary obsequies in commemoration of the hanging of the Manchester Fenians in this city and Dublin to-morrow. The proceedings will doubtless prove abortive through the action of the Government officials.

Paris, Nov. 22.—After the celebration of Niem mass and the last offices of the Madeleine, yesterday, the remains of Rossini were taken to the cemetery of Père La Chaise. The funeral was rather of a private and domestic character. The procession was not large, nor was the display unusual, but immense throngs of people lined the streets through which the procession passed, and testified their respect for the great composer by a profound and mournful silence.

Pesth, Nov. 22.—In the preface of the official red book, which has just made its appearance, the maintenance of friendship with Prussia and with all the Northern and Southern States of Germany is advocated, and a speedy settlement of the Schleswig dispute is warmly urged.

London, Sunday evening, Nov. 22.—The election returns show the Liberals have at least 150 majority in a full House. It is estimated that they will have 120 majority on an amendment which will be proposed to the Parliamentary address in reply to the Queen's speech. Some people are disposed to think that such strength of numbers will be dangerous to the Liberals, fearing that it will tend to produce disunion in the party. This apprehension is perhaps imaginary, as nearly all the Liberals who have been elected have pledged themselves their constituents to sustain Mr Gladstone; and the fate of the Adullamites, who have all come to grief, is a warning to waverers. Two fortunate results are considered to have been secured, viz. the displacement of the Conservatives, and the acquisition of power sufficient to exert a decisive pressure on the House of Lords for pushing through the measures for the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

The aristocratic section of the Whig party are charged with intriguing to have Earl Granville invited by the Queen to form a new ministry, and the radicals are indignant at this underhand course. It is anticipated that the new House of Commons will be on the whole remarkably practical and business-like in character. The exclusion of Mr Osborne, Mr Roebuck, and other eccentric individuals, is a matter of general congratulation; nor is the loss of the Conservative lawyers, including the Attorney-General and the Solicitor-General, much lamented. Regret is felt that none of the workingmen's candidates, who failed for want of money and organization, will be in the House to represent that new element in the Government. The elections in the counties have not all been finished, but they will be completed before the end of the week.

Vienna, Nov. 22.—The Hungarian official Red Book denounces the disloyalty prevalent in the Danubian Provinces to the Sultan's Government, and says they have forfeited their claim to the protection of the Great Powers.

London, Nov. 22, evening.—Mr Burlingame and his mission have gained ground daily; his relations with Lord Stanley are intimate and satisfactory.

Advices from Paris state there is growing discontent in France consequent on the press seizures. Prosecutions are urged by the Government with unsparing energy.

A despatch from Berlin states that there is much surprise at the omission to consult the King on the subject of his arbitration upon the Alabama claims.

Count Bismarck has recovered from his illness and resumes his post this week.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The Prince of Wales is at Compiegne.

Intelligence from Spain is to the effect that General Prim is charged with delaying the elections and reorganizing the army with the design of a coup d'etat, and the establishment of an Empire. It is said that handbills are freely circulated urging his election to the throne, and that they emanate from his immediate friends.

Liverpool, Monday, Nov. 23.—The steamship St. Patrick arrived to-day.

Queenstown, Nov. 24.—The steamship Cuffa has arrived.

New York Press Despatches.

Havana, Nov. 21.—Later dates from Portau Prince are at hand. The revolutionists are again making progress. The excitement against the Americans has not abated, but seems to be on the decrease. Late advices from Caraccas represent that the country was generally quiet; a few small bands of malcontents were roaming in the mountains, but the citizens everywhere desired peace and were disposed to acquiesce in the authority of the existing Government. Congress was to meet on the first of January, when the President would be inaugurated.

Havana, Nov. 21.—The news from the seat of insurrection, though of a vague and unsatisfactory character, still shows its growing importance. The insurgents have 2,000 men under arms, and hold several important places. They have been supplied with arms from the Bahamas, and claim to be daily receiving reinforcements. Their Commanding General and principal leaders are said to be Dominicans, and many Mexicans have cast their fortunes with the revolutionists. The Government is evidently alarmed at the proportions the insurrection has assumed, although it professes to have become alarmed at the proportions the insurrection has assumed, although it professes to have information that all manner of misfortune has already befallen the insurgents; that they are sadly in need of provisions; that a disagreement has already broken out among the leaders in regard to the presidency, and that as soon as reinforcements arrive from Spain, the insurgents will be awed into submission. One hundred families recently left Santiago de Cuba for Jamaica, dreading attack from the insurgents, who were within four miles of the city. The revolutionary committee have issued a stirring address to the friends of free institutions in all countries, setting forth the evils which Cuba has ever laboured under as a dependency on Spain, and showing that the happiness and prosperity of the Island requires a separation.

The Tribune's Havana correspondent says:—"After much investigation it is certain that the insurgents have formed a poor sort of Provisional Government at Cayamo, a town of about 17,000 inhabitants. It is said that they have declared a Republic, that Carlos Maria Espedes has been appointed President and Commander-in-Chief, and that Aguilera is one of the generals high in command."

New York, Nov. 24.—The steamship Germania, from Southampton, has arrived.

The steamships City of Paris and America have arrived.

It is said that one of the highest dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada has intervened in the controversy between La Minerve and Le Nouveau Monde respecting Attorney-General Guimet's efforts to obtain the passage of an Act last Parliament to legalize the irregular sale of some Montreal property, efforts which were severely denounced by Le Nouveau Monde as a fraudulent attempt to legalize an illegal deed—the dignitary's decision being in favour of the course taken by La Minerve.
