CABLE NEWS.

Constantinople, Nov. 22.—Hon. F. Joy Morris, the American Minister, has presented to the Porte an energetic protest against the imprisonment of the two American citizens at Damascus.

London, Nov. 22.—Despatches announce the election of Charles Buxton, liberal, from East Norfolk; Mr W. Johnston, conservative, for Belfast, Ireland; Sir R. Blennerhasset and Viscount St. Laurence, both liberals, for Galway borough, and Lord J. Manners, conservative, from Leicestershire North. The following liberal candidates have been elected: The Marquis of Hartington, for Lancashire Northwest, and Right Hon. Fitzmaurice, for Stroud.

Berlin, Nov. 23.—Count Von Bismarck, President of the Ministry, makes no secret of his design to leave the Federal Diet, with which he has been for a long time connected, and join the Liberal organ of the Diet.

Naples, Nov. 23.—The eruption of Mount Vesuvius is subsiding. There are no longer fears for the safety of the adjacent villages.

A rumour is in circulation that Joseph Mazzini, the great Republican leader, died on Friday last at Lucerne in Switzerland.

London, Nov. 23.—A banquet was given to the Hon. Reverdy Johnson by the authorities of Brighton, on Saturday. George Peabody and George W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, were also guests of the corporation, and many distinguished Englishmen and local celebrities were present. Mr Johnson's remarks were similar to those of former occassions. The Mayor of Brighton also made a speech, in which he eloquently extolled peace, the American Minister and Mr Peabody.

Madrid, Nov. 23.—The advocates of republican institutions appear to be gaining ground in Spain. The city of Barcelona favours the establishment of a Federal Republic.

London, Nov. 23.—The funeral of a man shot at Drogheda, Ireland, during the election, was the occasion of a Fenian display in that city, on Sunday. Great crowds lined the streets, and it was computed that there were fully 8,000 men in the procession. The Fenian demonstrations in Dublin, and in Hyde Park, in this city, which for the occasion of this funeral had been arranged, proved to be small and unimportant affairs.

Madrid, Nov. 24.—The Provisional Government has promulgated a decree, regarding the schedule of import duties, and making reductions on many articles. The changes are to go into effect on the 1st day of January. The following are among the provisions of the new decree:—All vessels permitted to enter the Spanish ports on paying tonnage dues of from 50 to 130 reals per ton. The reductions of the tariff which are made by the decree of October are revoked. The payment of the semi-annual interest on the public debt is provided for. It is officially announced that the elections for the Cortes to the Constituent Cortes will take place on the 15th of December, and the Cortes will meet on the 15th of January, 1869.

Madrid, Nov. 24.—Large public meetings have been held in Barcelona by both the Monarchist and Republican parties. All proceedings here have been peaceable and order is respected. The Monarchists are largely in the ascendant, though the Republicans seem to be gaining ground. There is every indication of a lively canvass for the forthcoming election.

London, Nov. 24.—Mr Gladstone, in a pamphlet entitled "Chapter of an Autobiography," just published by Murray, defines and defends his changes of opinion on the subject of Church Establishments. All the leading journals review the book; but apparently copies were not furnished to the conservative press, as they are all silent upon it. The Times regards the publication as a voluntary and hazardous confession.

Dublin, Nov. 24.—The corporate authorities of this city have petitioned the Government for the pardon of the Fenian convicts.

London, Nov. 24, evening.—The Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone and his Liberal colleague, Mr Grenfel, have been defeated in Midwest Lancashire. The vote stood as follows:—For Mr Cross, Conservative, 7,730; for Mr C. Turner, Conservative, 7,670; for Mr Gladstone, Liberal, 7,390; for Mr Grenfel, Liberal, 6,920.

London, Nov. 24.—The report of the death of Mazzini is contradicted.

Madrid, Nov. 24.—A transport with a number of war stores sailed from Cadiz for Cuba yesterday. A fleet of transports with troops for Cuba will sail on 2nd December.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—The new Prussian Gazette, a semi-official organ of the Government, in reply to the Hungarian Red Book, says war should ensue from the Schleswig dispute, the Germans of the north would show the same enthusiasm, and the Germans of the South the same patriotism as was shown in 1813.

London, Nov. 24.—Among the candidates elected yesterday are Sir John Simion, Liberal, for the Isle of Wight, Sir Patrick O'Brien, Liberal, for Kings County, and Mr Brady, Liberal, for Leitrim.

Letters from Buenos Ayres report that Mitre is desirous of having the command of the army given to one of the United States Generals who distinguished themselves in the war of the Rebellion.

The editors of the Temps, Tribune, Journal de Paris, Reveil, and Lavoro, have been summoned to appear before the civil tribunal on Friday next to answer charges made against them for promoting the subscription for the Bondin Monument.

London, Nov. 24, midnight.—The counties in which elections were held to-day return a majority of Conservatives. Middlesex has been carried by Lord G. Hamilton, Conservative, and Lord Enfield, Liberal. Cambridgeshire elects Lord G. Manners and Lord Royston, both Conservatives. Messrs. Broderick and Peck, Conservatives, are returned from Mid Surrey. At this hour the figures are—Liberals elected 363; Conservatives elected 246. Liberal majority 117.

London, Nov. 25.—The Globe has an editorial on the reception of the Chinese embassy by the Queen. It attaches great importance to the mission of Mr Burlingame, and after describing its objects, says America is favourable to a protective system, while England desires uninterrupted intercourse. The interests of Europe and China are not conflicting, the interests of Great Britain and the welfare of China are identical, and if there is the smallest chance of advantage accruing from the proposed treaty, let us ratify it without the least possible delay.

Liverpool, Nov. 25, p. m.—The ship Louvre, from Quebec for Liverpool, was abandoned at sea. The crew have arrived at Sycily.

Brest, Nov. 24.—The steamship St Laurent, from New York, has arrived.

Liverpool, Nov. 25.—The steamship Nestorian arrived to-day.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, Nov. 25, p.m.—Consols 94¾ for money and account; Bonds quiet, 74¾; Illinois Central 96; Erie 23¾; Railways steady.

New York Press Despatches.

New York, Nov. 24.—The steamship Russia, from Liverpool, has arrived.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The President's message will contain the first official announcement of negotiations with Great Britain for the settlement of the Alabama claims and other difficulties with that country.

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—In the Fenian Convention to-day only preliminary business such as the appointment of committees, &c., was transacted.

COMMERCIAL.

KINGSTON MARKETS.

Kingston, Nov. 25.—Flour—Western millers being anxious to store here may be taken as an indication of dullness in the market. Grain—A few loads of rye realized to-day 68c; and a small lot of peas 85c. Buckwheat dull at 45c. No barley. Oats none. Tallow and lard unchanged.

Oswego advices of to-day report: Wheat quiet; No. 1 spring 1,60; No. 2 1,45. Corn quiet at 1,05. Peas quiet; sales 5,000 bush 1,40 free. Barley dull and no sales.

Money market unchanged and steady.

Corn firmer; receipts are 44,000 bush; sales are 47,000 bush at 1,10 @ 1,12 for unsound; 1,13 @ 1,16½ for sound mixed western. Barley steady; receipts are 18,000 bush; sales are 2,000 bush French at 2,20. Oats firmer; receipts are 1,150,000 bush; sales are 64,000 bush at 71 @ 71½c for western, chiefly at inside prices. Pork lower at 26,50 @ 27,50 for new mess; 25,50 @ 26,00 for old. Lard heavy and lower at 15 @ 16½c for steam; 16½ @ 17c for kettle rendered.

This is the way a coloured gentleman of Great Barrington announces his intended marriage, combining business with pleasure:—"NOTICE.—Sezar Carter will be married at Miller's Hall, November 25, 1868, at 7 o'clock, p m. Admittance to the hall 50 cents. A good time expected. Come one, come all. SEZAR CARTER."

THE CAUSES OF CRIME.—At the annual meeting in London lately, of the United Kingdom Alliance Temperance Society, the Chairman, Mr W. R. Callender, said that "as a magistrate of many years' standing, he could not call to mind a single crime which could not be traced to the influence of strong drink." Dr. Wines, of New York, Secretary of the Prison Discipline Society, in a communication to the Independent, gives it as his opinion that while drink, bad company and lewdness are the most active immediate causes of crime, yet, that "back of all these, underlying all, and giving potency to all, is the want of early parental restraint, care and discipline." He marks the steps in the downward road as follows: First, absence of parental restraint and guidance; this almost invariably is followed, secondly, by association with bad company; this, in like manner, nearly always leads, thirdly, to Sabbath breaking; and, fourthly, to the formation of intemperate habits; which prepare the way for, fifthly, a connection with bad women; and the expense incurred by such connection conducts, sixthly, to larceny, forgery, robbery, homicide and other crimes against person and property.

The recent convention in Boston of the friends of woman suffrage developed considerable strength for the movement. Mrs Julia Ward Howe avowed herself a convert. Senator Wilson made a speech. George Wm. Curtis wrote a letter. T. W. Higginson, James Freeman Clarke, and other influential men, took a prominent part in the proceedings. It appears, however, that there is a division in the ranks, and a very serious one. Invitations had been sent to Mrs Stanton and Mrs Anthony to be present, but were withdrawn for the reason that the course of the Revolution is objectionable, and likewise the association of those ladies with Mr Train.

A case under the Church Discipline Act was heard on Monday at York, involving a charge against the Rev. John Robinson, the rector of Downess, Cumberland, of drunkenness whilst engaged as curate in the parish of Chilton, in the diocese of Oxford. The Chancellor, before whom the case came for decision, ordered the reverend defendant to be suspended for a year, and condemned him in costs.

THE CIRCULATION of the DAILY NEWS is fully one-half larger than that of any other daily journal published in Kingston. The circulation of the old established weekly CHRONICLE AND NEWS is also greater than any other weekly published in the county. Advertisers will perceive that these journals are the best media for attracting public attention in this locality.
