THE EDITOR'S LOGBOOK

By the time these words reach most of our members, our Annual Dinner Meeting will have come and gone, and a great time will have been had by all who attended. If you were not part of the crowd, you should speak with someone who was, and on hearing how much fun it was, you should plan to be with us for next year's dinner.

We extend our sincere thanks to David Wright of Heritage Cruise Line, our guest speaker at the dinner; to David Bull, Programme Chairman, for arranging the entertainment; to Bill Wilson, Treasurer, for making the dinner arrangements and handling ticket sales, and to Captain John's for the delightful meal served to us aboard JADRAN.

Now that the May issue of "Scanner" is behind us, Ye Ed. begins his summer respite from the keyboard and from printing deadlines, a "holiday" that becomes more valuable to us as each year (this is the 30th) of our editorship passes. We love preparing "Scanner", but we also appreciate some other things in life, to which attention can now be turned for a few months. Our next issue will be coming your way during August, so watch for us then.

And please remember to keep the marine news coming our way during the summer months. You may write to us, phone us evenings at (416) 203-0815, or
