TUESDAY EVENING, DEC. 15

BY TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS

London, Dec. 14. Mr Gladstone has issued an address to the electors of Greenwich, preliminary to his re-election for that borough, rendered necessary by his acceptance of Ministerial office. He says after the part taken by him in the movement for the disestablishment of the Irish Church it was impossible for him to decline the task of forming a Ministry. He trusts the new administration will deserve the confidence of the country, and promises to use every exertion which he urged while out of office in the House of Commons.

Petitions have been presented contesting the elections of 34 Liberals and 37 Conservative members for boroughs.

Lord Clarendon held a levee on Saturday. It was attended by Hon. Reverdy Johnson, Minister of the United States, and Hon. Anson Burlingame, Chief Ambassador of China.

London, Dec. 14.—The Times eulogizes the United States newspaper postage system, and urges the adoption of it in England.

The Herald's London special says: Lord Stanley received the foreign ministers formally on Saturday. Negotiations for a treaty of commerce are to be opened immediately with Mr Burlinghme's Chinese Embassy.

New York, Dec 14.—The Herald's Madrid special says.—Gen. Roda yesterday issued the following proclamation to the citizens of Cadiz:—"A revolution incited and fomented by the secret enemies of the country has already deluged the streets of this beautiful city. It has found no echo in the rest of the Peninsula. I have come to suppress this rebellion with the forces placed at my disposal by our Government. Lay down your arms and your lives shall be spared. This I guarantee in the name of the Government, upon whose clemency you may rely. Such are the only means by which insurgents can escape being treated with inflexible rigour. I will wait you until to-morrow at noon, in order that the old men, women and children, and persons peaceably disposed, may withdraw from the town. Inhabitants of Cadiz, it will not be my fault if with the means of war which the imperious law of necessity places me to employ, there should come upon Cadiz a day of mourning and ruin. I sincerely regret such result to the bottom of my heart, but I shall do my duty." This proclamation produced a deep impression on the insurgents, who sent a delegation accompanied by the United States Consul and Gen. Caballero with a flag to place their arms in buildings which he should designate. Gen. Roda expects to enter Cadiz to-day, notwithstanding the proclamation. The messages to the Herald bureau in this city, contain numerous accounts of collisions in different parts of Spain and deepseated bitterness between the republicans and monarchists.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The Moniteur to-day publishes in an extra issue the following:—Madrid.—The insurgents in Cadiz, according to the terms set forth in the proclamation by General Caballera de Roda, surrendered yesterday, and the people have given up their arms to the Government. The troops now hold all the quarters of the city.

The Correspondencia of Madrid says the Duke of Montpensier had previously made offer of his personal services to the Provisional Government to assist in suppressing the revolt. This action on the part of the Duke was prompted by the belief that the insurrection was a movement instigated and conducted by the Carlist party.

Madrid, Dec. 14.—The insurrection in Cadiz has terminated with the surrender of the insurgents. Many of them desired to carry off their arms at the American Consulate, instead of delivering them up to the Government authorities, but General Dekalb refused to allow them to so dispose of the weapons, and held them to a strict compliance with the terms of his proclamation.

Cadiz, Dec. 14.—The insurrection here has no end. The insurgents have given up their arms to the military officers, and the people generally are returning arms which they had secreted at their homes. Perfect quiet now prevails, and there are indications of recent disturbance, except the presence of soldiers in the streets, and military guards around the City Hall and other public buildings.

Vienna, Dec. 14.—The Ministerial budget has been made public. The deficit for the year 1869 is estimated at £3,500,000.

Paris, Dec. 14.—The Etendard says that the great powers will continue their efforts to settle the dispute between Turkey and Greece, and they do not despair of success.

Marseilles, Dec. 14.—Late advices from the Holy State Revds. Messrs Griffith, John and George Cueley, of London western District, who left the city some time ago, on an extended tour through the Chinese Empire, had safely returned. These gentlemen had travelled through all the western Provinces of China, to the confines of Thibet, a distance of over 3000 miles. They were well treated by the natives everywhere. They say there is an abundance of coal, and traces of gold, silver, and lead mines. Catholic missions were very numerous throughout the country; clergymen were found even in small villages, and converts to the faith were numbered by hundreds of thousands.

New York, Dec. 15.—The Herald's Cadiz special says:—

The insurgents surrendered their arms to the American consul, who, according to the arrangement previously made, turned them over to the military authorities. From six to a thousand troops and nine war vessels were ready to attack the city. At noon all was quiet. The flag carried by the insurgents was a tricolour.

Over thirty thousand persons have left the city. There is great distress among the poor who remain, and among those who fled to adjacent towns. All foreign consuls and their families, except the Swedish and American, left the city.

General de Roda entered Cadiz this afternoon with all his troops. The insurgents seem satisfied with the result. Their feelings are undoubtedly in favour of a Republic.

Five hundred persons were killed and wounded on both sides during the fighting of last week.

The Government promises to act magnanimously.

The Herald's Madrid special says:—Notwithstanding the surrender of the Cadiz insurgents, there is a reactionary movement spreading throughout Spain. Disturbances are prevalent in many places. The National Guard was again called out yesterday to prevent the workmen from rising. Families continue to leave Madrid in fear of coming troubles. The poor are in a fearful condition, and business in general is paralyzed.

The governor of Tarragona telegraphs that the Carlists are fomenting agitations in the direction of Mont Blanc. Associations formed there have branches which extended all over the country. The Marquis Viluna is president of the organization. It is ostensibly formed for the protection and the unity of Catholicism, but is in reality established for the propagation of absolute principles preparatory to a rising in favour of Don Carlos.

The Herald's Vienna special says:—In compliance with the demands of the Turkish ultimatum, the Greek Government is requested to disband its volunteer corps and forbid Grecian officials from participating in the Cretan insurrection, and also permit the families of the insurgents to return to Crete. Greece refuses these demands and looks upon them as offensive. The Turkish Minister is preparing to depart from Athens.

The Herald's London special says: Advices from the west coast of Africa report that the Spanish inhabitants of Fernando Po were holding a great jubilee over the downfall of the Spanish Bourbons.

Southampton, Dec. 15.—The steamer Union, from New York, has arrived.
