CABLE NEWS

London, Dec. 16. A letter from Reverdy Johnson, the American Minister, to the London Workingmen's Society, is printed this evening. Mr Johnson justifies his friendly intercourse with Mr Laird and other gentlemen friendly to the South during the late civil war in America, by the example of Generals Grant and Sherman in their treatment of ex-rebel officers. If he is guilty of treason, so also are Grant and Sherman. General Grant has entertained in his own house a distinguished Confederate leader. He ascribes the attacks upon him in the American newspapers and elsewhere to a secret dislike for the preservation of peaceful relations between the two countries.

Johnson, the Americans Minister, in his speech at the anniversary of the Westminster Hospital, declared that Lord Clarendon was of the same mind as Lord Stanley in regard to the settlement of the questions pending between England and America, and peace between the two countries is certain.

London, Dec. 16. — The London Daily News, in a leader on the financial portion of President Johnson's Message and the treatment by Congress, complains that the resolutions condemning repudiation have been called forth by the Message, still leave open the question of the payment of the national debt in greenbacks.

John Stuart Mill has written a letter on the result of the recent elections. He attributes the defeat of the workingmen's candidates to the heavy expense of an election, as now conducted; and as a remedy for this evil, he argues that Government should pay the necessary expenditure and abolish all other out lay illegal and penal.

London, Dec. 16.—The ultimatum addressed by the Sublime Porte to the Government of Athens demanded the disbandment of the Volunteer force in Greece within three days; the prohibition of further volunteering immediately; the dismasting of vessels used for conveying supplies to the insurgents; the restoration of Cretan refugees on the island; the punishment of the persons who assaulted and branded the Turkish officers at Syria; and a strict conformity with the terms of all treaties.

It is rumoured in Paris, that the Greek Government, pressed by the Great Powers, has yielded to the demand of the Sultan. Some of the French papers to-day allude to such concession. The Moniteur says all European powers recommend King George to respect the rights of nations, but they insist on moderation in Constantinople as well as in Athens. The Moniteur thinks this harmony of counsels among the Powers is a pledge of peace in the East.

Cadiz, Dec. 16.—The fleet, with Gen. Prim on board, sailed yesterday for Cuba.

New York, Dec. 18 — The Herald's London special despatches from Cadiz of the 14th instant were stopped and couriers detained. They described fully the situation of affairs at that time, and state that the Government troops were badly beaten in an encounter with the insurgents. While the fight was progressing, Mr Farrell, the American Consul, is said to have mounted one of the barricades in the Union and displaying the American flag in his hand he appealed to both parties to stop the struggle and put an end to the bloodshed. The fight was shortly after brought to a close, and the slaughter ceased. Numerous meetings throughout the city bear witness to the fight. The City Hall was shattered by cannon shots. The Government troops it is reported have been guilty of excesses and plundered many dwelling houses. A number of English and American tourists were arrested by the military authorities, but subsequently released through the interposition of the American Consul. The Consul's private residence was the resort of people of all nationalities. The insurgents loudly proclaimed the advent of a Republic, and cheered loudly for America. They also declared if the city is bombarded, they would ask that the country be annexed to the United States.

The Herald's Berlin special says, Prussian interests being strongly in favour of maintaining European peace, the government has endeavoured to induce Greece to comply with the demands of Turkey so far as the demands are founded on international law.

The Herald's London special says, telegrams from India state that reports which had reached Bombay were subsequently confirmed, that a sanguinary battle was fought in the Pass of Daliam in Affighanistan between Shereali and his rebellious nephew, Abdool Rahman Khan. The latter was defeated with great loss.

Shocks of earthquake are reported at Peshawur, Lahore, and Jubbulpoor.

Famine is again threatened in Central Asia. The food crops are deficient and the prospects are worse than before.

Liverpool, Dec. 17.—Intellegence has been received that the ship Louvre, from Quebec, bound for Liverpool, was abandoned at sea.

Madrid, Dec. 17.—The appointment of Senor Mauriero Roberts as minister of Spain to the United States is officially announced. Senor Novara has been appointed to Turkey.

Berlin, Dec. 17.—The Official Correspondence of this city says, it is expected with confidence that the Turkish and Greek Governments will listen to the warnings of the Great Powers and abstain from hostilities.

Dr. Lemercier, in a recent lecture in New York, on the gorilla, explains how this amiable rustic produces the horrible noise which, according to all writers, is his special forte. He says he has bagpipes under his arm-pits, connecting with his windpipe and glottis, and by compressing these with his arm, he sets the whole forest in an uproar.

The popular vote in England gives the Liberals a majority of 172,000—more than 14 per cent of the whole number of votes given. The Scotch, however, who are certainly the most impartial judges of the leading question, gave an overwhelming vote for the Liberals, being 5 to 1 in the boroughs, and even in the counties a majority of about 20 per cent on the total county vote. Taking Great Britain as a whole, the majority on the popular vote is about 232,000 in a total vote of 1,278,000, or more than 16 per cent.

Money continues to accumulate in Europe, and there are now more than three hundred millions in gold in the Banks of England and France. During the early part of the war, when cotton was rising, and England monopolized most of the commerce of the world, there was much speculation in Europe. New joint-stock companies were established. Ships and steamers were built and all kinds of speculations set afloat. For a time commerce expanded, and all went merrily; but in 1865 came a change. Down went cotton dealers, speculators, and banks. Ships and manufactures fell, and all enterprise was repressed. A collapse took place in railways, and general distrust followed. For two years few new undertakings have been commenced, and the rate of interest has declined, until the current rates in London and Paris have been for months 1½ and 2 per cent, not a month, but for a year. During the panic many of the large railway companies were obliged to issue debentures at five per cent, and these went at a discount. Recently they have been in demand, and now sell at a large premium, so that stockholders who have had no dividends complain that they have not had their share of the five per cent debentures. Of late the abundance of money has been so great that many millions have been sent to India under Government guaranties of five per cent to invest in railways, and Russia, Turkey, and Egypt have absorbed large sums in loans for railways or canals.
