OUTRAGE AT FORT GARRY.

Fort Garry, July 7.—On Tuesday evening last, Lord George Gordon, who lately gained a most unenviable notoriety in New York by his connection with General Dix and the Erie Railway, while sitting on the verandah opposite the Hon. James McKay's house, was surprised by two men who presented pistols at his head, tied his arms and legs, thrust him into a carriage and carried him off to Pembina. Mr. Brady, the collector of customs at that Port, was immediately notified of the abduction by telegraph and had the whole party arrested while attempting to cross. The Hon. Mr. Fletcher, a member of Congress for Minnesota, two Yankee detectives and one Merrian, a broker of St. Paul, have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the affair. Public feeling is very much against the Prisoners and it was with considerable trouble they were saved from being roughly used by the enraged crowd who met them at Fort Garry, on their return in charge of a detachment of volunteers.

The military expedition from the east arrived on saturday. The men are in good health and spirits.

This is not Mr Brown's first little railway scheme. That old Reformer, William Lyon Mackenzie, ought to be a credible witness. In his Message of September 4th, 1857, Mr Mackenzie says:—"I thought, last session, when Mr Brown vociferated and exclaimed so violently against the (Grand) Trunk, and in favour of the Western, he was hired to do it, and it appears he got $50,000 for lumber." We should have thought Mr Brown would have put up his price in the interim, but it seems to have remained $50,000 in '57 and '71. There are a few other spots in the honourable gentleman's history which would make interesting reading just now, as for instance, the Upper Canada Bank matter, the Penitentiary job, and the wood dealings with the Great Western generally, but one item is sufficient to show the honesty of the Government maligner.—Oshawa Vindicator.

12TH OF JULY IN NEW YORK.—We cut the following from the New York Sun:—"The Orangemen have decided to parade on the 12th inst. It is believed that there will be about 1,000 men in line. The procession will form in Lafayette Place at 10 a. m., the right resting on Eighth street. The proposed line of march is through Eighth street, Broadway, Fourteenth street (around the Washington statue), Fourth avenue, Irving place, Lexington avenue, Twenty-Fourth street, Madison avenue, Forty-second street, and Fifth avenue to Fourteenth street, where the ranks are to be broken. Superintendent Matsell and Inspector Waling have approved the route." We also observe by the same paper that Mr William White, of Tweed, Grand Director of Ceremonies of British America, was present at Gideon Loyal Orange Lodge No. 10, on the 1st July, which met at Continental Hall, Eighth avenue, New York, upon the presentation of a Flag, and addressed those present. He has since been presented with a very handsome Sash by the New York Orangemen.
