The Montreal Witness, whose prejudice against the Goverment is well known, says: "Judge Day, it is reported, has been appointed President of the Royal Commission to enquire into the Pacific scandal, and which, it is added, will sit with open doors. This does not look so bad."

The Duke of Manchester and Viscount Mandeville have returned to Quebec, and are the guests of His Honor the Lieut.-Governor at Spencer Wood, where a dinner was given in their honor Friday evening. The noble tourists leave to-day for the Saguenay.

On Wednesday afternoon while Col. Gurty was standing in Palice Street, Quebec, with his foot in the stirrup, about to mount his horse, and conversing with a friend, the animal made a start and broke away, throwing the Colonel against the windo of a jeweler. The window was completely smashed and the Colonel recieved some severe cuts from the broken glass; his injuries are not considered dangerous.

THE FISHERY COMMISSION,—Her Majesty (says the London Shipping and Mercantile Gazette) has been pleased to nominate Mr Henry Cadogan Rothery, Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, as Commissioner for the settlement of the Fishery question between the Canadian Dominion and the United States, under the Treaty of Washington, which is to hold its meetings in Halifax. The object, as is well known, is to determine the compensation to which the negotiators of the Treaty of Washington considered our North American colonists were entitled for the withdrawal of certain privileges of fishery which they were compelled by the Treaty to renounce in favour of the Americans.
