"WHAT'S 'A THE ROW, GEORDIE."

Why sure that phrase, "Pacific,"
Has wrought effects 'mirific,
Else why at great Sir Hugh
(Whom once so well you knew,)
Do you thrust with fight and main,
In hopes the helm to gain;
Altho', wixt you and me,
You'd better let him be,
Or faith the Knight may turn,
And you, your fingers burn,
Should he whisper in your ear,
"Was that 'Subsidy' quite clear?"—
Moreover, he may add
(What's pretty near as bad,)
That little banking trick,
Which once saved you i' the nick
Of "monetary" trouble
And financial bubble-bubble;
Or with a Knightly jeer,
Tell of other things as queer,
Such as contracts, or of "stations,"
Or "Penitentiary" rations!
Oh! why forever thunder
And eternally thus blunder?
For sure you know full well,
That as bucket to a well,
If you patch it in too oft,
'Twill break, nor come aloft!
So, no doubt, you're fully able
To remember that old fable,
Of the "Kettle and the Pot,"
And the dickens knows what not!
Why, the worst that you can say
Is that Sir John half a-day,
So that all the Yankee ring
At Macdonald take a fling
What, and if he took a leaf
Out of their most tricky brief,
Or Sir Allan raised a fund
To carry out his "Bund,"
Where's the sin or the disgrace?
You'd have done the same in "place,"
Nor have stood on p's or q's,
Or, election aid refuse!
So pray moderate your ire,
And abate your virtuous fire.
Remember all ar'n't Saints,
And that tho' the world still paints
Old Nick as black as ink,
If he painted, don't you think,
He might "limn," in angry fit,
His counterpart—a Grit?
C'ase then, thy bolts to throw
On each thou judgest a foe,
Nor dare with factious hand
Play "Old Harry" in the land.
