NEW YORK DESPATCHES.

New York, Aug. 26. During an interview police commissioner Bourdan, of Brooklyn, said he believed Kate Stoddard had put herself murder Goederich, but that he witnessed his assassination by a man bearing the name of Roscoe. Ex-chief Kendall, however, believes that the mystery surrounding Goodrich's death was fully cleared with the capture of Kate Stoddard.

Nine thousand and forty-four emigrants landed yesterday.

Dobester, N.Y., Aug. 25. A party of young people boating on the lake to-day organized by the swell of the steamer Clinton and Miss Maggie Buck, one of the party, was drowned.

As the express train due here at ten o'clock this evening was approaching Batavia it ran into a carriage, killing both of the occupants. The engine struck the wheels of the horse attached to the carriage and killed. The names of the occupants were Andrews and Dennis Delaney. One was thrown into a field and the other was dragged along until the train was stopped. The body was horribly mangled. The engineer, John Day, stopped the train as soon as possible and got off the engine to see what he had done. In passing in front of the engine he was covered with blood and brains and was overcome by the shock that he walked a few steps, when he fell. He was carried into the smoking-car and died in a few minutes.

New York, Aug. 26.—Arrived, the steamer Limerick from Liverpool.

There is now at Paris, in the national printing office, dressed as a workman in white trousers, the Prince Macao, one of the highest noblemen in Japan. He has been directed by his sovereign to learn the art of printing, and is doing so in every branch.

ALEXANDER MACKENZIE.

The Halifax Reporter say, we have no wish to appear inhospitable towards any man belonging to the Dominion. Visitors are always welcome, especially friends from the west. On this ground we should like to see Mackenzie and should like to hear of his enjoying his proposed visit among us. He is coming on Insurance business, and without any eye to politics. Certain factionists of this city are anxious, apparently, to make political capital out of the visit of the Grit leader. They are concocting a public dinner for him. This is a pity; this is simply dragging politics into business, and business into politics. If Mackenzie is to be feted and dinnered by a narrow, wretched action, he will at once recall attention to the position he has held towards Nova Scotia,—his bitter opposition to our just claims, his favourite cry of Nova Scotia owing Ontario $1,000,000, and so forth. If Alexander Mackenzie is wise he will decline the proposed dinner. If the Grit faction here are foolish they will go on with their proposal. It is their own business, however; the great public will care little how the matter goes.

PUBLIC OPINION.—A correspondent of the New York Herald has been exploring Canadian sentiment in the direction of St. Catharines, Ont. Anent the Pacific scandal, he says he finds considerable sympathy expressed in St. Catharines for Sir Hugh Allan. He adds: "The Chicago informer, McMullen, is, however, universally execrated, and some want to know what is the use of having t Suspension Bridge if that rosy old gentleman, Sheriff Woodruff, should not be required to exercise his official functions in the case of such fellows." This is rather hard upon the deeply injured individual who by various suits in our Courts is seeking about a quarter of million dollars for injury to what, we suppose, by courtesy must be dignified with the term "his character!"

A few days ago Mr Vibon, an official assignee for the County of Hochelaga, instituted proceeding before the Superior Court Montreal claiming the appointment of assignee to the estate of Mr Alex. McGibbon, grocer. The grounds of his claim are in substance that the Insolvent Act requires a trader to make an assignment only to an assignee in the county, in which he (the insolvent) resides. Mr Vibon contends that, McGibbon's assignment to Mr Craig, whose jurisdiction is the city, was therefore illegal, as the insolvent resided on the St. Catharine Road, in the County of Hochelaga, and though doing business in the city, the assignment should have been made to an assignee resident in the County of Hochelaga. Should the proceedings by Mr Vibon be sustained, as it is said they are likely to be everything that has been done in regard to the McGibbon estate will have to be annulled, and a new and regular assignment have to be made.
