PROSPECTUS OF THE LEADER.

IT is proposed to publish, in the City of Toronto, on or about the first of March next, a semi-weekly newspaper, to be called THE LEADER.

'The Leader' will aim to harmonize the great interests of the Reform party, as the only practicable means of securing and maintaining their ascendancy. With ample means at its disposal, the Upper Canada section of that party has again and again been driven to the verge of defeat, when it was practicable to have obtained an overwhelming victory. Indeed it is obvious, that if the process of party disintegration be not arrested, the principles held in common by all Liberals will continually remain exposed to the peril of unmerited defeat. To avert these dangers is an object that will be regarded with anxious solicitude by the 'Leader.'

While 'The Leader' will adhere with unswerving tenacity to those great distinguishing principles on which alone the Liberal party can successfully maintain its stand, it will treat with courtesy and fairness those who hold opposing political sentiments. Decided in the expression of its political views, it will eschew that rancorous spirit which tends to create a popular distaste of all political discussion. Its tone will be firm, but pacific, and decided without being offensive.

A strictly secular journal, 'The Leader' will not encroach on the domains of religion—but be guided by the conviction that with questions of polemical theology and church government, it is not the province of political newspapers to interfere. But the same reason that will influence 'The Leader' to take this course, will also cause it to resist the encroachments of any religious denomination on the rights of the community at large.

Strictly independent of Executive influence 'The Leader' will extend to the existing liberal government such a measure of support as may best assist us in the 'carrying out of that Liberal policy, which the projectors of 'The Leader' have every confidence it is intended to pursue.

'The Leader' will not descend, even in retaliation, to those personalities which wherever they are indulged in become the degradation of the Press. In this respect, it will follow strictly the British models. With facts, arguments, opinions and principles, it will deal; preserving a tone of conscious dignity towards all its contemporaries, whether politically friendly or otherwise.

Taking advantage of the use of Steam as applied to Printing, as well as of all other modern improvements in the art, 'The Leader' will, with the assistance of the Magnetic Telegraph, be able to give the latest intelligence on all occasions.

The Editorial management of 'The Leader' will be placed under the control of Mr. Charles Lindsey, who has long been connected with the Liberal Press of this City.

'The Leader' will be printed on good paper, with new type of the latest patterns.

The Semi-weekly 'Leader' will be published by the proprietor, Mr. James Beaty, every Tuesday and Friday morning, at the Office in King Street (120), a few doors east of the Market. The terms will be 15s. per annum, if paid in advance; 17s. 6d. if not paid within six months. A Weekly 'Leader' will also be published every Wednesday morning, at 10s. per annum, in advance, 12s. 6d. if not paid within six months.
