FLORENCE WHITE.
AN UNCHANGEABLE GLOSS WHITE PAINT,
For insides of Houses, Stores, Ship and Steamboat Cabins, which is the most durable and economical Paint yet known, being unaffected by darkness or impure air, which is the cause of Paint changing and turning yellow. It is also easily cleansed of dirt and smoke without injury to the surface.

It has been in use for the past three years, and has proved itself permanent beyond a doubt. The proprietor has full confidence in its remaining white and in good condition at least four times has long as common lead or zinc white paint. It has already attained a high character as the best paint, and is coming into general use for all nice white painting.

People are cautioned against impositions practiced by some persons in selling an imitation article under the same name, which is unfair and decidedly unjust, as they rob one of that which they cannot repay. I claim to have the best article yet invented. I do not wish to prevent others from producing a superior, but only ask that each shall stand on its own basis.

The genuine article, ready prepared for use, can always be had at my store, in neat packages of 10 and 20 lbs. each, and the liquid to thin it with, which requires about one gallon to 10 pounds of the White.

The first cost of this article, compared with white lead paint, is found to be but one quarter more, but being of greater body and fineness, it spreads further, dries and works well, and is not liable to crack. Directions for its use accompany the article.

Sold in any quantities by the proprietor,
