MEETINGS

There will be no further meetings until October, at which time we will have our annual autumn slide night. Watch for details in our Mid-Summer issue.

THE EDITOR'S LOGBOOK

The April meeting featured a presentation by Ron Walsh concerning Kingston harbour and its shipping over the years. It was an excellent programme and was much enjoyed by all present. We thank Ron for putting it together under difficult personal circumstances.

Our regular electronic typewriter is now back in service after a spell in "drydock" and we are most happy that it is. Putting together the April issue with a different machine was not fun, nor was the appearance of most of that issue very pleasing. Thanks for your patience.

Ye Ed. now embarks on his annual vacation from the "Scanner" keyboard, and the more years pass, the more we appreciate the break! We'll be back to you with the Mid-Summer issue in late August, and then again in October with the first issue of the new Society year. We wish all of our members a happy summer of shipwatching.

By the time you read this, the Annual Dinner Meeting will be history and those present will have enjoyed a memorable evening. We thank Paul Gockel for his interesting programme on the big steam yacht VENETIA and, as usual, we thank our Chief Purser, Bill Wilson, for making the arrangements with Captain John's restaurant, and also handling ticket sales. If you were not amongst the happy crowd at this year's dinner, won't you please plan to attend next year?
