Commission, Custom-House, and General Mercantile Agency.

JAMES WATT, with sincere thanks to his friends for their past support, respectfully intimates that he has commenced upon the OCCUPATION of the FORMER WAREHOUSE, on the lot under Chester Stone Buildings South side of the Street, foot of Queen-street—possessing ample accommodation as a Grain or Produce Store, an eligible and convenient Storage and Wharfage,—that he will continue to carry on his business of an AGENT for the Purchase and Sale of Merchandize, Produce, &c., on Commission, as heretofore, and he has made arrangements for SELLING at AUCTION such Goods consigned to his care, as may be ordered to be sold in that manner.

J. W. begs also to tender his services to IMPORTERS of Foreign Goods, in preparing and passing their entries at the Custom-House, and in transacting any other business relating thereto.—Parties residing at a distance desiring his services, by transmitting to him a power of Attorney and the ORIGINAL Invoices, along with full instructions, may rely on having their Custom-House business promptly attended to.

J. W. will be happy to receive employment in any other business in the capacity of an AGENT or ACCOUNTANT for which he may be competent, promising his best endeavors to give satisfaction.

REDUCTION IN PRICE

—OF—

BOGLE'S HYPERION FLUID

FOR RESTORING, PRESERVING, AND ADORNING THE HAIR

To the following low rates, viz:

Bottles formerly sold at 50 cents reduced to 25 cts
" " " 75 " " 50 "
" " " 100 " " 75 "

The many worthless imitations of this celebrated Hair Restorative, palmed on the public under the lure of cheapness, have determined the Inventor to oblige them, by selling his famous "Fluid" at even a lower price than they can afford to sell their vile trash. At the same time, he assures the public that the "Hyperion" will always continue to be as good as heretofore, which has given it celebrity throughout the Globe.

This, with Bogle's "Electric Hair Dye," and other preparations, are sold by his Agents everywhere in the United States and Canada.
