Professor Alex. C. Barry's Tricopherous,

OR

MEDICATED COMPOUND,

FOR Beautifying, Curling, Preserving, Restoring and Strengthening the Hair. Relieving Diseases of the Skin, Curing Rheumatic Pains, and Healing External Wounds. Bounded by no geographical lines, the reputation of BARRY'S TRYCOPHEROUS pervades the Union. The sales of the article of late years have increased in a ratio that almost exceeds belief. Professor BARRY, after a careful examination of his sales' book, find that the number of bottles delivered to order, in quantities of from half a gross upward, during the year 1852, was within a trifle of 95,000.

It is unnecessary to present at length the evidences of the wonderful properties of the Tricopherous, when the public have furnished such an indorsement as this. The cheapness of the article, and the explanations given of its chemical action upon the hair, the scalp, and in all cases of superficial irritation, first recommended it to the attention of the people. This was all that the inventor desired. Every bottle advertised itself. The effects of the fluid exceeded expectation. It acted like a charm. The ladies would not be without it. Country dealers in every section of the United States found they must have it; and thus was built up a wholesale trade of an extent hitherto unheard of as regards articles of this kind. The highest point has not yet been reached, and it is believed that the sales this year will be a million and a half of bottles.

THE WAVERLY MAGAZINE.

NEW VOLUME IN JULY.

Great Improvement—New Dress.

The proprietor of this splendid weekly paper deems it proper to give this early notice of his intention to commence its next volume, July 1st, with an entire change in its typographical appearance, which he believes will make it the largest and most beautiful sheet ever published in this or any other country. The changes which he contemplates will be both useful and ornamental, which are,

1. To appear in a new Scotch type, of a clear and beautiful face, of a size which will enable the publisher to insert a whole book, if necessary, without continuation, and giving nearly DOUBLE the reading that the paper now contains for only SIX CENTS; a book which otherwise would cost 25 cents, can thus be obtained for 6 cents, besides a great variety of other matter—poems, music, etc. We intend to give, each week, a compendium of all the stirring events of the week, so that our readers will be posted up on all interesting subjects.

2. No Continued Stories will be inserted in the next volume, but each number will be complete in itself. Much trouble is experienced by mail subscribers, in losing a number which contains an unfinished story. It is for this particular reason that the publisher has concluded to complete everything in each number.

3. A new and beautiful Head, much handsomer than the one now used, will then be obtained. Also a much neater border. The type sent one is not in good taste, but its expense was too much to be discarded till it had been used.

4. Embellishments. The paper will contain each week, a large and beautiful engraving, illustrating either a poem or story. It will also contain a monthly bouquet of flowers, embracing those which bloom in each month. Also a monthly engraving representing the latest fashions for the ladies, and patterns for embroidery and needle work, taken from the latest London and Paris reports.

5. A beautiful Paper. On the next volume a more highly polished paper will be used. For mail subscribers it will be as heavy as the present postage law will allow, but those who purchase the paper of carriers, at six cents, will obtain a thicker and more polished paper, much better than is used on any other paper now published.

A distinguished literary gentleman will assist in the editorial department.

With all these costly improvements in view the proprietor would impress it on the minds of those who intend to take the next volume, to SEND IN THEIR ORDERS IN JUNE, so that he may calculate how many to print. He cannot promise to furnish back numbers to new patrons more than four weeks after the volume commences; paper is too expensive to work up a large quantity to keep on hand. A subscription ought to be renewed a month before it expires, if subscribers would secure complete files.
