ARE YOU A TREE OR A MATCHSTICK?

Ever heard this old proverb about the power of our words?

One tree can make a thousand matchsticks, but it only takes one matchstick to burn down a thousand trees.

Encouraging or inspiring words can convince and empower people to do remarkable deeds. But poorly chosen or maliciously chosen words can shatter people's dreams and self-esteem.

So, which words are you using? Are you finding ways to inspire, to encourage and to give hope to those around you? Your words matter. Or are your words more like a matchstick that burns down trees?

And, which words are you listening to? Do you have people in your life who compel you to do more with your life? Do you allow them to build you up and strengthen your spirit? Or are you surrounded by matchsticks that reduce you and others to ashes at every opportunity in an effort to establish their value?

Choose wisely.

Speak wisely.

And help to make something magnificent!

Be encouraged. Visit a local place of worship this week. Meeting times and locations are published in the attached ads to help.
