

Halton car shows are a must-see for car enthusiasts

Car enthusiasts are in for a treat across Halton region with the many car shows offered throughout the summer. Take a trip back in time with displays of classic cars in Burlington and Milton or enjoy some European vehicles at the one-of-a-kind event in Oakville.

Downtown Milton Classic Car Show

Lining the streets of downtown Milton with classic cars, the annual Downtown Milton Classic Car Show displays 140 classic cars that take you back in time.

Presented annually by Wallace Chevrolet Cadillac Buick GMC and hosted by the Downtown Milton BIA, the classic car show combines displays of cars with live music, extended patios, shopping and prizes for fun for the whole family.

At this year's event, held on Friday, July 19, the Milton District Hospital Foundation was selling raffle tickets for a chance to win an Iron 883 Harley-Davidson bike.

Burlington Downtown Car Show

Showcasing something for everyone, the Burlington Downtown Car Show features classic cars, muscle cars, cruisers, sports cars, tuners, exotic sports cars and much more. In addition to cars, the day-long event has live music, sidewalk sales, local merchants and automotive vendors.

The event kicks off with a garage party the day before the official event day at the Burlington Performing Arts Centre. The garage party is the organizer's way of saying thank you to the sponsors, vendors and car show enthusiasts with hors d'oeuvres, cocktails, car displays, art exhibits and much more.

The annual festival is held on the streets of downtown Burlington and is in support of the Burlington Lions Club. This year's festival, held on Saturday, July 6, drew out hundreds of visitors to Burlington's downtown core to enjoy all the car-themed fun.
