DON'T QUIT - KEEP PLAYING

A beautiful story comes our way from the life of Poland's famous concert pianist and former Prime Minister, Ignace Paderewski:

An eager mother, wishing to encourage her young son's progress at the piano, bought two tickets for a Paderewski Concerto. Upon arrival at the Music Hall, the duo found their seats near the front and eyed the majestic Steinway piano waiting on stage.

Soon, the gregarious mother found a friend to talk to, and the young boy slipped away unnoticed. Suddenly, the spotlights came on, the audience quieted, and the only sound that could be heard was that of the young boy who had escaped his mother's attention and who now sat on the piano bench innocently playing "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star."

Mom gasped, but before she could retrieve her son, the master, Paderewski, appeared on the stage and quickly moved to the keyboard.

"Don't quit! Keep playing!" he whispered to the boy. Leaning over, Paderewski reached down with his left hand and began filling in a bass part. Soon his right arm reached around, encircling the child, to add a running obbligato. Together, the old master and the young novice held the crowd mesmerized.

In our lives, unpolished though we may be, it is the Master who surrounds us and whispers in our ear, time and again, "Don't quit! Keep playing!" And as we do, he augments and supplements our efforts until a work of amazing beauty is created.
