Fifth of News.

Miss Cecile of Picton was presented with a purse of money last week by some friends, in appreciation of her good qualities.

Messrs Gibbard & Son, Napanee, are plying their factory for the purpose of heating it with steam. McKelvey & Birch, Kingston, are doing the work.

Mr Diamond of Napanee estimates his total shipments of barley this season at 200,000 bushels, and he has just received direct from the maltsters an order for 100,000 more.

Messrs Monigan, aged 108, from the village of Bath, is an inmate of the general hospital, Kingston.

Mr Allan Dalton, of Newburgh, has been suffering from an attack of erysipelas for months. We are pleased to learn that he is improving. For a time his case was considered hopeless.

There were forty-seven convictions made by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the county of Lennox and Addington during the December quarter.

The Grand Trunk Railway Company is introducing the electric light into the Point St. Charles workshops with great advantage. The superiority of electric lighting in this instance, at least over gas, is not to be disputed.

A minister was questioning his Sunday school concerning the story of the young man who, listening to the preaching of the Apostle Paul, fell asleep and falling down was taken up dead. "What," he said, "do we learn from this solemn event?" when the reply from a little girl came pat and prompt, "Please, sir, ministers should not preach so long!"

"Madonnalia," said a witty and gallant septuagenarian the other day, making his demand for the hand of a young lady still in her teens, "I am seventy and you are seventeen. Will you do me the honour of becoming my widow?"

The Kennedy family attended church at Sarnia on Sunday morning, and sang in the choir. In the morning the church was crowded inside and out, but no Kennedys appeared.

An editor wrote a head line, "A Horrible Blunder," to go over a railway accident, but though it was the printers' fault that it got over the account of a wedding, the editor was the man threshed all the same.

A scarcity of ice next summer is threatened it may sound paradoxical, but an ice famine in midsummer is by no means a nice fiction.

A rumour is gaining ground that Jay Gould has purchased the Credit Valley, Great Western, Ottawa & Quebec and Canada Southern railways. Judging from the source of information, the rumour is likely to prove correct.

Miss Vanderbilt got a Fifth avenue palace and a check for $250,000 as a wedding present. The Elmira Free Press says expenses his willingness to turn Mormon and get married about once every three weeks at that rate.

Saturday night, in the view of the Syracuse Herald, the stocking became a cornucopia—meaning, we suppose, a receptacle for corns.—Elmira Free Press. Oh, no; not at night. That happens only in the morning.

A Countryman from New Hampshire, who had never heard of a bicycle, came to Boston, and when he beheld a youth whirling along upon one of those strange vehicles he broke out into soliloquy thus. "Ain't that queer! Who'd ever 'spect to see a man ridin' a hoop skirt."

A grand opportunity is now open for the young men who stands on the street corners and smokes cigarettes. He can swear off.

Mr Archibald Forbes is on a visit to his uncle, William Young, Esq., of Picton.

"I remember," said Brewer, "I remember two young men who used to board at my house—they are both dead now." The crowd broke into a sickening smile, and Brewer wondered why they didn't wait for the funny part of the story to come.

The Canadian Artillerymen's badges of victory at Shoeburyness have arrived from England. They consist of a shield in red, surmounted with gold crown, underneath two cornucots, with the monogram "L L." (Lorne and Louise) in gold and colours. The ribbon is a gorgeous work of black, with "Shoebury, 1881," in gold.

According to the New York Commercial, Edison's favourite passage in Shakespeare is Lorenzo's speech to Jessica. "Look how the floor of Heaven is thick inlaid with patens of bright gold."

Mr Adam Wishart, of Emerson, was happily married to Miss Ellen Lonie, of the same town. Ellen is bound not to be alone any longer, and Andrew has had the darling wish of his heart gratified at last.

The Boston Star makes this libellous statement: "Twy highwaymen stole a New York editor's pocketbook, and started on a run to the ferry. They were, of course, captured, as they didn't find money enough to cross."

Messrs J. A. Little and W. Fulton have purchased for $16,000 the property formerly owned by the Presbyterian Church trustees on Saskatchewan Avenue, Portage la Prairie. The same property sold last spring for $300.

A Greenback campaign song is entitled "Dreamers, awake." "If they awake, remarks the Norristown Herald, "they will no longer be Greenbackers."

Another Remonstrance.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Dear Sir,—My attention has been recently called to a letter in the CHRONICLE AND NEWS, of the 23rd instant, headed Sanitary correspondence, in which the effort made by an author to be witty, and consequently to strike in the dark is well worthy of one, whose duty business is generally

For the past few months a young Knight of the Brush and Mortar Order to this country, whose method thus far seemingly is apparent on all occasions that he has a chance to throw himself upon public notice, in his palpable efforts to imitate the shoemaker of old and go beyond his last, has assumed the role of country correspondent, and contributed sequitur as weekly intervals to the CHRONICLE AND NEWS. To the gentle palpitations effusion appear, wanting interest, to be at times tiresome, but to some extent he has appear in a very different light, as they are systematically concocted, for the purpose of ridiculing and wounding the feelings of others. Had undainger stopped even here my former remonstrance would never have appeared in your paper, but on one or two occasions the base and calumnous contents in his production pushed the bounds of common decency. Hence my remonstrance, and in reply to the, unchivalrous base and cowardly attack, which appeared in the CHRONICLE, under the nom de plume of "Old Correspondent," and has the unblushing effrontery to say "I had no intention to hurt the feelings of any lady," which, in his reply he shows an amount of venom that certainly out of place in a he intentions been so mild and innocent as he represented it to be. I do not wonder that he strives to hide his identity, for apart from injuring the general contempt of the neighbourhood by revealing himself, it would be at variance with his nature to show his hand, in being more congenial to his tastes to act the part of the ostrich in the great, Apologizing for having so much space of your valuable paper in replying to the twaddle of a self conceited individual, I am, yours respectfully,

Why we Begin Dinner With Soup

Sir Henry Thompson says:—The rationale of the initial soup has often been discussed; some regard it as calculated to diminish digestive power, on the theory that so much fluid taken at first dilutes the gastric juices, but there appears to be no foundation for this belief. A clear soup disappears almost immediately after entering the stomach, and in no way interferes with the gastric juice, which is stored in its appropriate cells ready for action. The habit of commencing dinner with a good soup has, without doubt, its origin in the fact that aliment in this fluid form—in fact, readily digested—soon enters the blood, and rapidly refreshes the hungry man, who, after a considerable fast and much activity, sits down with a sense of exhaustion to commence his principal meal. In two or three minutes after he has taken a plate of good warm soup the feeling of exhaustion disappears, and irritability gives way to the genial, rising sense of good fellowship with the circle. Some persons have the custom of allaying exhaustion with a glass of sherry before their gastronomic no less than physiological blunder—injuring the stomach and impairing the palate. The soup introduces at once into the system a small instalment of readily-digested food, and saves the short period of time which must be spent by the stomach in deriving some nutriment from solid aliment, as well as indirectly strengthening the organs of digestion itself for its forthcoming duties.

Guilty of Wrong.

Some people have a fashion of confusing excellent remedies with the large mass of "patent medicines," and in this they are guilty of no wrong. There are some advertised remedies fully worth all that is asked for them, and one at least we know of—Hop Bitters. The writer has had occasion to use the Bitters in just such a climate as we have most of the year in Bay City, and he has always found them to be first class and reliable, doing all that is claimed for them.—Tribune.

A Pure and Effective Hair Dressing.

COCOAINE, a compound of Cocoanut Oil, beautifies the hair and is sure to allay all itching and irritation of the scalp.

The superiority of BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS consists in their perfect purity and strength.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents a bottle.

Yellow as a Guinea.

The complexion, in a case of unchecked liver complaint, culminating in a jaundice, is literally yellow as a guinea. It has this appearance because the bile, which enables the bowels to act, is diverted from its proper course into the blood. In connection with this symptom there is nausea, coating of the tongue, sick headache, impurity of the breath, pains through the right side and shoulder blade, dyspepsia and constipation. These and other complaints of the liver complaints are completely removed by the use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, which is also an checkmate of scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, ulcers, cancers, humours, female weakness, jaundice, and lumbago. It tones the stomach, renews the liver, and after relieving them, causes the bowels thereafter to become regular. High praise from a medical source has been accorded to it; and its claims to public confidence are justified by ample evidence. Price, $1; sample bottles, 10 cents. Ask for Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. The wrapper bears a fac-simile of their signature. Sold by all medicine dealers.

CRAMPS are immediately relieved by taking a teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Pain Killer in a little milk and sugar; it takes about two minutes to relieve the worst cases.

"Look Before you Leap."

When you are suffering from any internal disconfort whatever, or from any cutaneous affection, don't aggravate the case by swallowing mineral poisons, but use Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Pills, that have been a blessing to the public for upwards of forty years. Sold everywhere.

Cases in which the heart is weak and irregular in action are soon relieved to health and regularity by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. As persons whose heart's action is feeble are most susceptible to the influence of cold, it is in the advent of the cold season its use is especially advised.

The Bells of Lepertendom

patronize SOZODONT because it perpetuates and increases the most important item in the sum of loveliness, beauty of the teeth. Let the mouth be ever so small, a very cupid's bow, if filled with discoloured teeth it is repulsive. Whitened and preserved with this peerless dentifrice, the teeth form a delightful contrast to the roseate lips and lovely curve of a pretty mouth. SOZODONT is far preferable to gritty tooth powders.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS is the medicine most in repute for curing the multiferous maladies which attack humanity, when wet and cold weather gives place to more genial temperatures. In short, these Pills afford relief, if they fail of being an absolute remedy in all the disorders of the liver, digestion, and nervous energy, which at times oppress a vast portion of the population. Under the wholesome purifying and strength-giving powers exerted by these excellent Pills, the tongue becomes clean, the appetite improves, digestion is quickened, and assimilation rendered perfect. Holloway's medicine possesses the highly estimable property of cleansing the whole mass of blood, which, in its renovated condition, imparts increased strength, and vigour to every tissue of the body.

Timely Warning

Now is the season for sudden colds and distressing coughs; treat them with Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam; it cures croup, influenza, asthma, whooping cough, bronchitis, and all pulmonary complaints leading to consumption.

Joseph Ronan, Percy, writes: I was induced to try Dr. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL for a lameness which troubled me for three or four years, and I found it the best article I ever tried. It had been a great blessing to me.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balsams, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have obtained well merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25 cents a box everywhere.

THE BEST REMEDY

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

Indications of Lung Disease are so numerous and so decisive, that it would be unwise to enumerate them here. Suffice it to say, that if you find yourself coughing, you should at once take some medicine for the disease. Of all the compounds offered for the relief of pulmonary disease, we know of none so efficacious as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its wonderful curative powers are attested by the testimony of the thousands cured by its use. Its extensive sale, and the demand for it, are evidence of its superiority over all other medicines of its kind. Its uniform mildness and its adaptation to the most delicate constitutions are its recommendations to those who, in need of a pectoral medicine, fear to take it, lest it should prove too severe for their weakened condition. Its ingredients are such as will not hurt the patient, under any circumstances, if taken according to the directions. The testimony of those who have used it, and who know its value, is that it does all that is claimed for it. Many of these have been cured of what seemed to be fatal diseases of the lungs, and are now living to bear unsolicited testimony to the efficacy of this remedy. Many others, who have used it in their families, as a household medicine, for years, bear unsolicited testimony to its efficacy in the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Clergyman's Sore Throat, Asthma, and Consumption. Taken in its early stages, this preparation will cure any ordinary Cough, Cold, or Bronchial Affection. Whooping-cough and Consumption there is no other medicine so efficacious, or so pleasant to take. Pulmonary complaints are some of the many mixtures, or syrups, made of cheap and ineffective ingredients, now offered to the public, as they contain no curative qualities, can afford only temporary relief, and are sure to deceive and disappoint the patient. Diseases of the Lungs, though the most active and effective treatment, and it is dangerous experiment to trifle with unknown and cheap medicines, from the great liability that these diseases may, if neglected, or improperly treated, become deeply seated or incurable. Use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and you may confidently expect the best results. It is a standard medical preparation, of known and acknowledged curative power, and is so cheap as to render proprietors and fine ingredients will allow. Eminent physicians, having its composition, prescribe it in their practice. The test of half a century has proven its absolute certainty to cure all pulmonary complaints not already beyond the reach of human aid.
