A POOR LITTLE BOY.

A Twelve Year Old Immigrants Cruelly Treated by a Farmer.

Mr James Douglass, a farmer living just east of Lansdowne Station, two years ago received from the Youth's Home, Peterboro, boy named Alfred Irving, 12 years of age. On the agreement on which he received the boy he was to provide him food and clothing, give him an ordinary school education, and bring him up in the Protestant faith as taught by the Church of England, besides paying a yearly amount to the "Home." The boy came to his place and then commenced a way, going to Kingston on the cars; at that place he was put off, and he wandered back to near Gananoque station, where he found an old friend with Mr Harold Irwin. The reporter states that an hearing the boy's history, Mr Irwin wrote to Mr Douglass, and the latter came up on Tuesday last to reclaim his apprentice. He got Chief Constable Jackson, and the two proceeded to Mr Irwin's. The boy was at school, and when he perceived Mr Douglass coming to the school house, he made a bolt for freedom, and ran up the road near the Gananoque River. Mr Douglass quickly followed in his cutter, and caught up with the boy at John Brennan's, where an auction sale was going on. Irving right into the crowd of people, and following the twistings of the boy, Mr Douglass' cutter upset down or twice, to which accidents he avers he was covered animal, being, as usual, in sympathy with the purpose. But Mr Douglass was a determined fellow, and got sure possession of the boy, whom continued to be rescued were not without effect upon the spectators of the scene. However, the Police Magistrate happened to be at the sale, and he intimated that taking Mr Irwin so surely that the boy would be produced at his court there than evening, when the circumstances would be enquired into. In the evening all the parties appeared and were heard. It was elucidated that, contrary to the agreement, the boy had never been sent to school; and that his person had been so sadly neglected as to cover him with filth and vermin; and the boy made known a revolting process that had been used to exterminate the vermin. After hearing all that was to be said, the Magistrate cancelled the indenture, and divided the costs between Mr Douglass and Mr Irwin, which gave general satisfaction. The boy then went home with Mr Irwin. Mr Douglass claimed that he had desire to retain the boy across four days, but he would be held liable for damages by the Toronto institution.

"A RIGHT BRAVE CAPTAIN HE"

Captain Brownrigg's Fatal Encounter With a Slave Dhow.

Acting Commander Goodridge, of H. M. gunvessel Lynx, at Zanzibar, has sent him his report of the attack on the slave dhow off Zanzibar, in which Captain Brownrigg was killed. The deceased left the ship on November 27th, in the steam pinnace, with seven men, besides his steward, an interpreter and a writer, to inspect the boats engaged in the suppression of the slave trade off Zanzibar. On Saturday, 3rd of December, when passing through Kokoto Gap, a dhow was sighted about coming towards the boat flying French colours. Captain Brownrigg went alongside with the evident intention of examining the ship's papers. He had sent the coxswain forward with a boathook to make fast, and took the tiller himself. When close alongside the coxswain saw sight or ten men crouching in the boat with levelled guns. He shouted to the captain, when the men rose and fired. The coxswain shoved with one of the enemy and fell overboard with him. Fifteen or twenty five Arabs then boarded the pinnace, and as their first fire killed one man and wounded three others, they found little difficulty in driving the rest, who were unarmed, overboard. Captain Brownrigg and the steward were left in the after part of the boat. The captain seized a rifle at the first volley and fired, knocking an Arab over, but before he could reload three or four rushed towards him. Clubbing his rifle, he kept them at bay, fighting with great determination. The survivors, who were in the water, describe him as fighting like a lion. He knocked two of his assailants over, but was at length cut across the forehead and then on the hands by the long swords of the Arabs. He fought thus over twenty minutes, till shot through the heart, and having received twenty other wounds, he fell dead. Samuel Massey, A. B., was severely wounded, and was supported to the shore by Alfred Yates, leading seaman, and Wm. Collinson, ordinary. The remaining stoker and the interpreter swam ashore. The writer, John G. Dew, being been mortally wounded at first fire, there only remained the steward, who was lying all fagging death. The Arabs having sailed away in their dhow, the lead ship stoker got on board the pinnace, he being been in the water all the time. He got up steam and picked up the men on the beach. They then proceeded to find Lieut. Henry W. Target, senior officer in charge of the boats at Pemba, who, being twenty five miles distant, could not get up in time to capture the dhow. Acting Commander Goodridge, in a postscript dated December 9th, adds that the dhow has been captured by H. M. gunvessel Lynx, and that twenty eight Arabs implicated have been captured and another shot. One was believed to be captain of the dhow.

Answer This.

Did you ever know any person to be ill without inaction of the Stomach, Liver or Kidneys, or did you ever know one who was well when either was obstructed or inactive, and did you ever know or hear of any case of the kind that Hop Bitters would not cure? Ask your neighbour the same question.—Times.

The People's World-Wide Verdict

BURNETT'S COCOAINE has been sold in every civilized country, and the public have rendered the verdict that it is the cheapest and best Hair Dressing in the world.

BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS are invariably acknowledged the purest and the best.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS combine bath, sanitive and sanative powers in a high degree; by the former term is understood their ability to preserve health, by the latter their capability to restore health. With these remedies in hand, no invalid need be at fault to guide himself or herself safely through the many trials to which every one is subjected during our long and oft times inclement winters. Coughs, colds, shortated throats, quinsey, whooping cough, can be successfully treated by well rubbing this Ointment upon the chest, and by taking the Pills. During damp, foggy weather, asthmatic sufferers will experience the utmost possible relief from the affection of the Ointment, and all tender-chested persons will escape endless misery by adopting this treatment.

A Cure for Headache.

What physician has ever discovered a cure for headache? Echo answers none, but Burdock Blood Bitters by their purifying, invigorating, nervine properties will effect a cure in nearly every case. The health-giving principles of this remedy are unequalled by any similar preparation in the world.

Burns and Scalds

are promptly cured as well as all flesh wounds, sprains, bruises, callous lumps, soreness, pain, inflammation and all painful diseases by the great rheumatic remedy, Hagyard's Yellow Oil. For external and internal use. Price, 25 cents.

Just think of it—you can relieve the twinges of rheumatism, or the most painful attack of neuralgia—you can check a cough, and heal inflamed or broken skin, with a bottle of Dr. THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL, costing only 25 cents.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often (though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
