CONVOCATION HALL.

The Power of Christ and How to Acquire It.

The attendance at Queen's College yesterday afternoon was very large. The Rev. Mr Rose, of Perth, preached an able sermon. His discourse was based on St. Luke iv. cap. 32 v.—"And they were astonished at his doctrine for His word was with power."

The astonishment expressed in the Synagogue is shared in by many to day who profess they are unable to find an adequate cause for the results of the light of Christ's teaching. It was His power. The Revised edition of the Scriptures give the word an authority, which is literally correct, but power to the best word—unction, vigour, effect are all different phases of the same thing. How different are the degrees of power in the same being. In the lower animals there are degrees of power, and all through life men has a greater power to tear down than to build up.

GREATER OPPORTUNITIES

to injure his neighbour than to do him good. How different are the effects produced by similar statements uttered by different men—from one they are useless, while from the others have indescribable power. The mission of Christ was to enable men to enter into the possession of His power. All men desire power. The student desires to increase his efficiency for his life's work; the college was erected to communicate power and perpetuate moral strength. What question is more important than how to acquire this power. If a man desires power he must be certain of something; if he is uncertain he can never influence another. There are German scholars who are incapable of conferring that there is anything in the heaven above or in the earth beneath that they do not understand, but when they come face to face with a difficulty they retreat under cover of the cloudy mist of phraseology, which might be well enough for a mental gymnasium but would be useless in a practical life. They are without power. The reason the Puritans had so much power was because they dwelt in God and He in them. Purity of heart is necessary to attain this great power. Just as an athlete exercises his muscle to get power over a competitor, so the aspirant for spiritual power must train himself to that which is right and true. A man best learns the wants of humanity by experiencing them. He who

BEST CAN SUFFER BEST CAN DO.

Love is another important element in this power. The existence of it in the soul alters the relationship of that soul to others, and reciprocates affection. It does not cause when the soul is removed from this sphere. Many men have accomplished more by their death than by their life. The love of God should be the supreme object of the soul. Another necessary element to the power is the in dwelling of the Holy Spirit. The energies or natural faculties of man can never be the best until he receives that quickening that the Spirit alone can give. This gift of the Spirit did not come with the Apostles. To receptivate, while a man may cultivate all the natural gifts in his power and the faculties produced by mental and moral forces his manhood is still comparatively the power of the Highest overshadows him, until his energy is presided over, directed, quickened and increased by the energy of the eternal one. It is therefore the duty of everyone to cultivate this power. He closed with a word to the students. Many of them come to college for the purpose of having a good time, and make study a secondary matter. Others take no thought for the future.

The Strength of Man's Love.

I have spoken only about woman's love; what of man's? My sex may deem me heterodox and worthy of consignment to an earthly Hades conveniently, when I assert that I believe that man really feels the power of love more than a woman, when he does feel it at all. I have entirely out of consideration the flirt and the butterfly. They are not men, but mere entities. A man's heart is not equally susceptible with that of woman's, though of course every man, who is a man, admires, respects and loves a pretty woman. Why shouldn't he? But the average man is mentally as physically stronger than the average woman—call love in a boy or a woman lightsing days amounts to nothing; it never does him any harm, and ninety nine times out of a hundred, little or no harm comes of it, and therefore it may be looked upon as helping the youth to know himself rather than influencing his future—he will flirt when opportunity offers, and will carry a flirtation just as far as prudence and the young lady's good nature will permit. If his heart has been touched, the touch has been so light that a couple of weeks is sufficient time to make him forget, or the sight of a new face efface even the memory of a former Delilah. But when a man really does love, when the passion that takes possession of his being is based upon admiration, respect and esteem, such passion with him I believe to be lasting, to be almost unchangeable. If crowned with possession, enjoyment, peace, comfort and a happy life society, if unsuccessful, though later years may find him married, his life is a kind of hibernation—he exists. There is no life, no strength, no sentiment to his existence; it is but a condition of waiting—Alice D. Lingard in Chicago Tribune.

Fees and Doctors.

The fees of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in just at present. We believe the schedule for visits is $2.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of daily visits, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.—Post.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE

Has Received Universal Endorsement

No other preparation possesses such remarkable properties for embellishing and strengthening the hair and rendering it dark and glossy. It cures baldness and eradicates dandruff.

BURNETT'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS are the best.

A Public Meeting

should be called of the citizens of every city, town and village in the Dominion, to consider what should be done to prevent the hair from turning grey and falling out. If this important question received their earnest consideration they would unanimously decide that science had at last discovered something that would answer this purpose—and furthermore would recommend Cingalese Hair Renewer as being this something for restoring the hair to its natural colour, and prevents its falling out. For sale at WADE'S DRUG STORE, at 50 cents per bottle.

Little Specks

in the sinuses of the teeth soon grow into appalling cavities, if disregarded. Check advancing decay at the outset with SOZODONT, and the pain of toothache, the wretchedness of eating with unsound teeth, and the dyspeptic symptoms caused by swallowing half-masticated food may be prevented. This aromatic and salutary article perfumes the breath, and remedies sponginess of the gums. Its popularity is unbounded.

AT ALL SEASONS, but particularly during the winter, persons whose lungs and chests are weak should take every precaution against a cough or cold, as the breathing organs, if naturally feeble, speedily succumb to its ravages. In spite of sanitary precautions, however, coughs are very apt to fasten themselves upon weak lungs. In such a case ordinary prudence dictates the prompt use of a reliable specific. The ordinary cough remedies are too often inefficient. The best substitute for them is the highly sanctioned, long recognized remedy, Northrop & Lyman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. As is well known, the action of Cod Liver Oil is particularly marked in lung rheumatic and strumous diseases. In this preparation it is characterized by peculiar purity. The phosphorus in the hypophosphites furnishes a vital element of the blood, brain and nervous tissues, and the lime and soda supply their strengthening properties to the bones, which they are natural constituents. This combination produces very decided expectoration, enabling the bronchiae to throw off the irritating mucus which obstructs and distresses them, renders the vitiated secretions healthy and heals the lungs. This remedy has also been used with the most beneficent effects in cases of scrofula. As it is exceedingly dangerous to permit a cough to gain headway, the early use of the medicine is urged upon those whose throat or lungs are affected. Look for the facsimile of our signature on the packages and the firm's name blown on the bottles.

BRILLIANT SCIENTIFIC TRIUMPH.—Thousands cured of catarrh, bronchitis, asthma, and lung diseases by Dr. M. Souvielle's Spirometer, an instrument which conveys medicinal properties direct to the parts affected. These wonderful instruments are used in all first-class hospitals, and prescribed by leading physicians. Full directions, for treatment sent by letter, and instruments expressed to any address. It is only since Souvielle's invention that lung diseases are no longer feared until they are at last stage. Write for particulars to M. Souvielle, ex Aide Surgeon of the French Army, 13 Phillips Square, Montreal. All letters must contain stamp for reply. George King, Chemist and Druggist, Sole Agent for Kingston.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Few persons are so favoured by circumstances, or so fortified by nature, as to enable them to pass unscathed the sore trials of an inclement climate. Wills, catarrhs, coughs and influenzas everywhere abounding, it should be universally known that Holloway's Ointment, diligently rubbed upon the chest, checks the worst assaults of these maladies, and securely wards off more grave and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. The truth of this assertion must remain unquestioned in the face of thousands of unimpeachable living witnesses, who have personally derived the utmost possible benefits from this treatment when their present sufferings were appalling, and their future prospects most disheartening. Both remedies act admirably together.

☞ A GREAT SHAKE DOWN on watch bracelets at the store of Wm. David, broker. Sale will supply the public with watch crystals at 10c. each.

Mack's Magnetic Medicine

is a positive remedy for nervous exhaustion and all weakness of the generative organs in both sexes. See advertisement in another column.

The most conclusive testimony, repeatedly laid before the public in the columns of the daily press, proves that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—an absolutely pure combination of six of the finest remedial oils in existence—remedies rheumatic pain, eradicates affections of the throat and lungs, and cures piles, wounds, sores, lameness, tumours, burns, and injuries of horses and cattle.

☞ TO RENT.—A house and ten acres of land, five miles from Kingston; also, a good boat, farm for sale, containing 120 acres. Apply to the owner, William David, broker, Princess street, opposite Parkhill's Grocery.

ATROPHY ARRESTED.—Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.—Wasting of the tissues of the body is arrested, the muscles made firm, and the nerves regain their power by using Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

Rev. J. G. Stearns writes: "I consider Perry Davis' Pain Killer the best remedy I ever knew for Dyspepsia."

The Romance of a Belle of Niagara Falls—Sad End of a Beauty

A Niagara Falls despatch says: A sad romance concerning the fortune of one who was once the leading belle of this village, has been laid at rest. Her name was Mary Amelia Taylor, the daughter of a storekeeper at Niagara Falls, who was once one of the favourite summer resorts. She was remarkably beautiful, and followed with a bitterness that was almost fatal, the fate of her sister, Josephine. Her life was crowded of the romance and tragedy of life. In Georgia, she married a Mr. Hamilton, a man of prominence and wealth, who was an intemperate man. She left him and returned to England. The young man followed her, and was soon reduced to poverty. Among the Canadian officers stationed at Niagara Falls was a young man named Cathcart Wilson, who was a nephew of the Duke of Wellington, and who was a man of high character and of great intellect. He was a frequent visitor at the Falls, and was soon fascinated with the charms of Miss Taylor. He left the Falls, and in a few months was married to Miss Taylor, in Boston, and they went to England, where the young man was received in the family of his uncle, the Duke of Wellington. The young man was a favorite with the Duke, and was soon made a partner in his appanage, and the Duke was so pleased with his nephew and his wife that he made them a present of a large estate, and left them to live on it.
