

Dinner fetes Martin St. classes

Martin Street grade eights achieve several "firsts"

The close of the 1965-66 school year was heralded by the Martin St. Senior Public School principal, J. M. Bell, as a year of many "firsts" for the graduating grade eight classes.

In the message he penned to the students on the first page of the program of the annual banquet held May 25 Mr. Bell mentioned that the group was the first Grade eight class to be enrolled in Martin St. Senior Public School; the first, in fact, to be enrolled in any senior public school in Milton.

The 1966 graduating class was the first Milton student body to receive instruction in oral French at such an early level.

The large number of trial projects, however, were not without their equal share of problems, Mr. Bell pointed out.

The principal felt that the problems had been adequately dealt with by students and faculty alike.

The address also extended best wishes for success and happiness on behalf of the staff of the school.

The banquet was held in Knox

Church Sunday School room with a cold-plate supper followed by cake, ice cream and beverage.

Peter Ledwith at the piano guided the group in singing "God Save the Queen", while toast mistress Janet Tom led a toast to the Queen and grace was said by Robert Hawkins.

The head table guests were introduced by Janet Tom after her opening remarks, followed by a Liverpool-style band selection by John Purdy, Trevor Roberts, Ken Downs and Alex Borbery.

A piano number by Joanne Wilson was then heard, with a verbal appreciation for the dinner given by Peter Jacobs.

Mary Wills toasted the teachers, with Mrs. E. Emms responding and returning a toast to the students.

Rev. J. K. L. McGown gave remarks followed by the introduction of guest speaker, G. W. McKenzie by Wayne Emms.

Mr. McKenzie, who is principal of Robert Little School in Acton, and former world president of the Y's Men, a division of the Y.M.C.A., talked of his recent world tour.

Throughout his speech Mr. McKenzie wore a large white stetson hat presented to him in western Canada. The speaker sported the hat during his tour, and his talk covered the regional hats in Europe as well as the educational systems of northern Europe in comparison with Canadian methods.

Celeste Schofield thanked the speaker for his remarks and the crowd was again entertained musically with selections including piano works by Susan Waters and Peter Ledwith and an accordion solo by Donna Wrigglesworth.

The inspector of Public Schools, W. L. McNeil, gave an address with appreciative thoughts for the school board by Charles Reed following.

H. P. Johnson responded to the thanks as Chairman of the Milton Public School Board.

Further remarks were given by E. W. Foster, Supervising principal, and appreciation to Home and School Associations directed by Patricia Bousefield.

W. G. Bell, president of the J. M. Denves Home and School Association replied.

G. W. MCKENZIE, principal of Robert Little public school in Acton and a former international president of the Y's Men Clubs, talked on his recent world tour when he was guest speaker at the Martin St. senior public school grade eight dinner Wednesday evening of last week.

He's shown trying his 10-gallon stetson on student Celeste Schofield, who expressed the students' appreciation to the speaker. Looking on are school principal J. M. Bell and Mary Wills who toasted the teachers.

Open house at "HOPE"

The "open house" at North Halton's first retarded adult workshop will be held tonight (Wednesday June 1) in the former Hornby school.

The open house will be held from 7-9 p.m. and will give those interested in the training of retarded adults an opportunity to see how much they can really accomplish. The workshop (H-O-P-E, Halton Opportunity Product Enterprises) began operations in April with eight adult retardates working each week day under the guidance of Mrs. Winnifred Isham.
