Tennis club wraps up season

By TRACY MORGAN
Special to The Champion

The Milton Tennis Club Championships were held in September when finalists were still surprised to have to battle soaring temperatures and high winds.

Singles champions are Jason Bedford and Cynthia Maher. On the men's side Bedford defeated Jeff Truswell in what was for some, a surprisingly close three set battle. Truswell, though not victorious, proved himself worthy of the number one seeding.

In the women's draw, first time senior finalist Jennifer Cheevers fell to Maher in two quick sets. Maher once again demonstrated the game which has made her women's singles champion for five consecutive years.

The two women were on opposite sides of the net in the doubles final. Maher and partner Tracy Morgan defeated Cheevers and Lily Lam in two tight sets 7-6 (7-2), 6-4. Maher and Morgan employed traditional doubles strategy by attempting to control the net at every opportunity.

The two men's singles finalists met again in the doubles final with Bedford and club pro Peter Svoboda defeating Truswell and Baldev Solanki 6-3, 6-4.

In the mixed doubles Maher was denied her fourth straight 'triple crown' when she and husband Tom, lost to Truswell and Lam. The Mahers seemed unable to keep the ball away from Truswell's dazzling play at the net. The match was a close three sets and brought Lam her first senior title and Truswell his first mixed crown.

In the consolation half of the draw many were surprised at the quick finish to the men's singles final. Frank Hardy defeated the usually long battling Dave Adams in two short sets 6-3, 5-0 (retire). The women's singles final was played in perhaps the gustiest winds of the weekend. Belinda Kuipers defeated Ros Iantorno 6-1, 6-1.

Dave Adams played truer to his game in the consolation men's doubles final using three sets and partner Graham Webb to defeat Mark Brancier and Fred Ross 4-6, 6-0, 7-5. Kathleen Kennedy and Christine Manor defeated Janet Quinn and Annette Lewin 7-6, 6-2 in the ladies doubles consolation final.

Kuipers made another championship appearance in the mixed doubles consolation final. She and partner Roger Dodd outplayed veteran Frank Bernard and wife Beth 6-3, 6-4.

As usual the preliminary matches provided many hours of exciting tennis. Cheevers ladies semifinal stood out as she advanced to her first final beating Morgan 7-5, 7-5. In another long, exciting match Svoboda outlasted club newcomer John Sherren 4-6, 6-2, 5-5 (retire).

Elections for club executive were held at the annual general meeting at the end of September. Those on the 1992 executive are: Past President, Ron Furik; President, Barny Henderson; Vice President, Roy Main; Secretary, Trish Langero; Treasurer, Valerie Scott; Senior Director, Belinda Kuipers; Junior Director, Nova Sparks-Austin; Assistant Junior Co-ordinator, Lisa Donegan; Membership, Meg Brown; Social, Michele Cavanagh and Tracy Morgan; Facilities, Andrew Waugh.
