Madrid, Feb. 18.—The Cortes have re-assembled. Prime Minister Serrano to re-arrange the Cabinet. All the present members are likely to continue in office.

Madrid, Feb. 18.—Lopez de Ayala, Minister of the Colonies, has issued an important decree, to take effect in all Colonial possessions of Spain. It establishes a tribunal system of legal jurisdiction, abolishes ecclesiastical courts, and makes various modifications in the financial administration of the Colonies.

Amsterdam, Feb. 18.—The barque Royal Dutch, from Philadelphia for this port, lies ashore near Bulzan; a portion of her cargo has been saved.

Paris, Feb. 18.—M. Forcade, the Minister of the Interior, has announced his intention to repress all abuses of the right to assemble in public meeting.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The Conference of the Great Powers met to-day to receive the communication from Athens, of which M. Delyanni was the bearer.

The reply of the Greek Government to the propositions of the Conference was satisfactory, and a resolution was adopted that Greece having yielded, the Great Powers secure to themselves the right to protect the lives, property and interests of the Christian inhabitants of Turkey. The representatives of the Powers finally gave their signatures to the Protocol, and the Conference dissolved.

Queenstown, Feb. 19.—The steamer City of Paris arrived here at five o'clock, and anchored at 6.30 this morning; they left New York together on the 10th. The Pennsylvania also arrived to-day.

New York Press Despatches.

Havana, Feb. 18.—Two thousand troops are expected to-morrow from Spain. The Spanish party appear to be confident that the rebellion will finally be put down. The authorities are filling the prisons with suspected parties, while the emigration of Spaniards from the island is increasing.

New York, Feb. 19.—The Herald's Havana special says Captain-General Dulce has issued a decree closing all ports where there are no custom-houses.

A telegram from Santiago de Cuba to the Herald reports that more estates have been burned by the insurgents.

The cholera was increasing, twenty more deaths from it having been reported. Many of the troops are in the hospitals suffering from it.

Muscovado sugar was arriving rapidly. On the 15th there were three clearances for New York. In consequence of the insurrection the crop will be reduced to 20,000 hogsheads.

It is not considered probable that there will be any tobacco shipped this season from any part of the island.

Cincinnati, Feb. 18.—The stockholders of the C. H. and D. Railroad Company to-day ratified its lease to the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad Company. This lease covers all the roads controlled by the C. H. and D. Road.

Washington, Feb. 18.—According to present calculations, even with an average amount of receipts from the customs, internal revenue, and miscellaneous sources, the monthly statement will show a considerable reduction of the public debt.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations this morning agreed to recommend to the favourable action of that body the Naturalization Treaty made with England; also, the treaty giving to the Government of Switzerland the arbitrament of the San Juan Island dispute between the United States and Great Britain. The Committee came to a unanimous conclusion to recommend to the Senate the rejection of the Alabama claims treaty with England. An effort will be made to-morrow to go into executive session to consider these reports of the Committee.

San Francisco, Feb. 19.—The British Columbia Legislature have decided against Confederation.

Notwithstanding the explicit denial of the agents of the respective lines, a conviction very generally prevails that the steamers City of Paris and Russia are really engaged in a trial of speed across the Atlantic. Certain it is there is heavy betting on both sides.

Investigation into the conduct of a "Home for the Homeless Boys," established about two years ago on Staten Island, by a reverend gentleman from Philadelphia, shows that he collected about $10,000 a year in aid of his professional charity, and only expended about $2,500, leaving a very pretty balance which he pocketed for his trouble in making the collection.

Col. Warner, the American Consul at this port, received yesterday from Washington a handsome and valuable gold hunting watch, with directions from the Secretary of State to present it in the name of the President of the United States to Captain David F. Stuart, of the barque E. B. Hawes, of this port, for his humane and praiseworthy conduct in rescuing the crew of the ship "John G. Richardson," of Booth Bay, Maine. The watch has, on the inside of the case, this inscription: "The president of the United States to Captain David F. Stuart, for the rescue of the crew of the American ship John G. Richardson".—St. John Globe.

At the theatre in Douai, during the first performance of Offenbach's new operetto, a young actress who appeared for the first time was hissed. She turned deadly pale, drew a poniard from her bosom, and tried to stab herself. Fortunately the other actors succeeded in wresting the weapon from her hands. The performance was interrupted for half an hour, and when the curtain rose again, the manager appeared, and said to the highly excited audience that the young actress would re-appear again, but he begged them not to insult her, she was highly talented, and that a little encouragement given to her would at once elicit the full splendour of her talents. The gallant Frenchmen burst into deafening applause when the young girl came forward, and encored the first air, which she sang in a tremulous voice. This mark of success visibly animated her courage, and she achieved a great triumph. It was afterwards ascertained that she had gone on the stage to support her old mother, and the failure of her debut would have exposed them to extreme poverty. Hence her despair when the hissing burst forth.—Paris cor.

The Peterborough Review says the Galway Mining Company being free from debt, and having sold a portion of their ore, have declared a dividend at the rate of 20 per cent per annum on the capital paid in. This shows that, notwithstanding the numerous failures of gold mining in Madoc, we have other mines in Canada that will pay. There is every reason to look for large results from this enterprize, if the directors continue to manage it as economically as they have done. This is gratifying, showing that mining in this part of Canada, properly carried on, will pay.

The following anecdote is related by an old gentleman living in the country, and repeated in a Three Rivers paper: "A newly arrived European was travelling in the country during winter, when he perceived upon the snow large foot-prints. He inquired from his driver what marks were these. Ce sont des de raquette, answered the latter. As soon as he reached the hotel the traveller wrote in his note-book, and we shall, probably, soon read in a correspondence from North America:—"I have discovered in the forests of Canada the tracks of a large animal, whose feet are admirably adapted to walk over the deep snows. I hope soon to see the beast itself, when I will prepare for your readers a full description. They call this inhabitant of the cold wilderness a Raquette."

Early in January last a young Prussian named Karl Nubekaut, employed as mail clerk in the Post Office at Wiesbaden, Germany, appropriated a letter containing 6,500 thalers, and fled. He took passage on the steamer Austria, bound to Portland, Me. The German Consul in New York received a telegram on the 8th inst., acquainting him with these facts, and stating that the thief was travelling under the name of Gunther. On the arrival of the steamer at Portland, Nubekaut was arrested. He at once confessed his guilt, and disgorged the money embezzled by him, to the amount of $5,500. He was transported back to Germany last Thursday.

The Choctaw Indians, removed some years ago from Georgia and Alabama to the far West, and who were both Christianized and civilized, have sent a deputation to Washington to ask for the admission of their "Nation" as one of the States of the American union. The tribes occupy the territory south of the Canadian River in New-Mexico, or from Santa Fe to the northern boundaries of Texas and Mexico. They were removed to these lands from their old homes in the rich cotton lands lying between the Tombigbee River in Western Alabama and the Mississippi. They are among the most highly civilized of the Indian tribes; they have a written constitution and a regularly organized Government; they live by agriculture, and are said to be industrious and prosperous. They have schools and churches, and are at least not the inferiors of many white people in morals. If the plan of attempting to incorporate the Indians into the body politic is to be tried, there could probably be no better material on which to begin; but the small numbers of the tribe would seem to form an insuperable obstacle to their request for admission as a State. They cannot now in all probability reckon up 30,000, which is the number required by the law to authorize the application for admission.

BRAHMINICAL RASCALITY.—Mr Justice Norman had, a few weeks ago, the difficult task of unravelling a very flagrant instance of Brahminical rascality. Deb Narrain Ghole of Kurdah died in December, 1866, without issue, leaving two widows heiresses. Khetter Money Dassee, the first wife, a girl of fifteen years of age, was soon made aware that her claims to inheritance were likely to be disputed, and that three or four Brahmins had set up a will, and had fraudulently caused a petition to be presented in her name and in that of the other wife. She then left her husband's house, and in order to defend her rights went to reside with her relations in Calcutta, from whose house she was enticed by one of the defendants, with promises of obtaining her husband's property for her, and compelled by threats of divine displeasure to reside in his house. Here she was locked up and cut off from all communication with her friends, and the three Brahmin defendants forced her to execute a bill of sale of part of her husband's estate. Other documents were prepared, purporting to bear her signature, of which the plaintiff professed to have no knowledge. At length she was released and allowed to return to her home at Kurdah, whither one of the defendants came and compelled her to sign another paper. Mr Justice Norman found that the alleged will had never been made by the deceased Deb Narrain, and that the certificate had been obtained by fraud, and declared null and void the bills of sale and other documents which the widow had been compelled to sign. His Lordship also considered it clear that one of the leading witnesses for the defence was not to be believed on oath. We fear the sanctity of these unprincipled rascals will deter the widow from making them the subjects of a criminal prosecution.—Homeward Mail.

Two gentlemen of New York have made a wager of $1,500 a side to ride velocipedes to Chicago.

Intemperance has become so prevalent in Sweden that the Legislature is considering the propiety of forbidding the manufacture of spirits.

The English sparrows in New Haven, Conn., have increased to such an extent that it is hoped the inch worm will disappear.

There is a doctor for every 1,000 inhabitants in Paris, and the number of apothecaries, a very well to do class, 547. There are also 295 officers of health.

As a sample of cattle-breeding in the "backwoods," Mr T. Inglis, of Wroxeter, North Huron, the other day received $1,000 from M. T. Govenlock for fatted cattle, besides $250 for fat sheep. Last year he disposed of $1,800 worth.

A pin manufacturing company in Connecticut manufacture nearly seven millions of pins per day. The number put on papers last year approximates the enormous sum of 2,000,000,000, or more than enough to supply every human inhabitant of the globe with a pin each.

It has been computed that the recent snow-storm, which blocked up the railroad tracks and injured so much plant, has entailed an extra expense and cost to the Grand Trunk Railway Company of over $100,000.

The Times says the scarcity of ice near Chicago and other western cities has opened a new field of speculation in Hamilton, and a large amount of that article has been shipped west. Forty car loads have already been shipped to Windsor. The contiguity of the Bay to the Hamilton station lessens considerably the expense of handling the ice, and it is probable that a large trade will be done in that article this year by Hamilton men.

There were magnificent floral decorations at a wedding in New York last week. The collection embraced 10,000 camelias, 100,000 primroses, 25,000 white azalias and 2,000 heads of daphnae, and was probably the largest gathering of exotics ever brought together under one roof. Forty men and boys were occupied some days in preparing the framework, and they were all engaged during the whole of Tuesday night in arranging the flowers.

HEALTH, COMFORT, AND ECONOMY.

THE Subscribers have much pleasure in introducing to the public of Kingston NORTH'S PATENT DRUM HEATER, by the use of which a saving of fully 25 per cent will be gained. Having thoroughly tested this valuable invention they can confidently recommend it as a great fuel saver. The cost of the Heater is small compared with the great saving it effects. In many places where two stoves were formerly required, sufficient heat can now be obtained from one with the Heater attached. Parties wishing to try them can do so, and if after a fair trial they are not satisfied that the saving claimed is effected, the Heater can be returned without any charge.

HOW THEY MADE FOOLS OF THEMSELVES!

'TWAS about 9 a.m. on Saturday last that two ladies entered my Store, and asked the price of my best FAMILY FLOUR. I told them in plain English. "Oh," said one, "we can get the best flour a quarter-dollar a barrel less at a little place where they have not near such a stock of flour as you seem to have." After a little further conversation they left. Ah! but how disappointed they returned about the same hour this morning, and told me how they made fools of themselves. Of course I was aware of it.

100 barrels of the same splendid FAMILY FLOUR as I have been selling lately, to hand. 50 barrels XXX PASTRY FLOUR just received at
