

Bantam 'Hawks soar to Halton Hills' Best of the Best Tournament title

Milton's AA bantams enjoyed both tournament supremacy and high-stakes payback this past weekend in Halton Hills.

Fortifying their efforts after a 3-1 opening-round loss to the Burlington Eagles, the Winterhawks reeled off five straight victories to win the Best of the Best Tournament. That run was highlighted by a 2-1 re-match triumph over Burlington in the semi-nals that saw Ryan Hasselfeldt bury the game winner on a big point shot with about five minutes left.

Peter Croteau was the other marksman, while Jacob Strutt was between the pipes for the narrow victory.

Milton would cap their championship campaign by toppling the host Thunder 6-2, thanks to a four-goal third period and solid cage work by Ethan Currie.

Emahn Hans tallied twice, with Frankie Varga notching the eventual winner and the other singles chipped in by Gautam Varma, Keaghan Croke and Brandon Hillier.

The Winterhawks reached the final four with wins over Tecumseh (4-0), Grimsby (9-1) and Ancaster (5-4). Hans and Tyler Potvin — who sank the game winner against Ancaster with just two minutes to go, on a perfect pass from Hillier — led with seven points apiece on the weekend. Half-a-dozen of their teammates had four or more points, including Hillier, Varga, Croteau, Josh Struthers, Gautam Varma and Taylor Lemaire. Spencer Bundy also stood out with three goals.
