As a volunteer at Halton Women's Place, Casey McKay isn't told the details of those who walk through the front door.

But their heart-wrenching stories don't exactly stay secret.

"You overhear and see things that are devastating... it's hard to learn about what these women go through," said 23-year-old McKay, who serves as a receptionist twice a week at the Milton women's shelter. "You just have to keep telling yourself that they're in a safe place now."

With the 12th annual Milton Volunteer Fair set for this Saturday (Nov. 19), McKay stresses that she's gotten a lot from helping out in her community.
