

Former Barenaked Ladies singer Steven Page takes to the Milton stage

Grammy nominated, Juno Award winning co-founder and former lead singer of the Barenaked Ladies Steven Page will perform at the Milton Centre for the Arts on Saturday. The concert will feature new songs and fan-favourites by one of the most recognizable and distinctive voices in music today. Page is a critically-acclaimed solo artist, following 20 years of success as one of the founding members of the Barenaked Ladies, which has sold more than 12 million albums worldwide.

The evening promises to be an intimate affair with tracks featured from his new solo project Heal Thyself Pt. 1: Instinct.

Described as a "collection of modern pop melodies with infectious arrangements and stunning lyricism," the album features the type of songs that brought him early success with the popular band. The set-list includes Page's new catalogue as well as some Barenaked Ladies hits.

Tickets for Page's show are available at the miltoncentreforthearts.ca. They cost $35. The student/senior ticket cost is $33. High school students can take advantage of the eyeGO to the Arts program, which provides a limited number of discounted tickets at $5. Fans using the promotions code INSTINCT when purchasing tickets will be automatically entered to win a private meet and greet with Steven Page.
