The Daily News

DAILY EVENING, MAY 6.

FIRST PAGE.

TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

May 5.—The London Times, this morning, in another leading article on the Irish question, severely rejected by the House of Commons. The writer sharply criticises the speech of Senator Sumner, and says:—The question is one of feeling. It remains to be seen if Great Britain can be held amenable to the jurisdiction of law, or excess of zeal, practice of both countries. Mr. Thomas Lefroy, late Chief Justice of Queen's Bench in Ireland, died yesterday, at the advanced age of 80.

May 5.—In the House of Commons, Mr Sullivan, the Attorney General for Ireland, moved for leave to bring in a bill to disable the present Mayor of Galway from acting as a magistrate. He proceeded to give the reasons for the introduction of the Bill. He spoke of the disloyal conduct of the Mayor, culmination in the inflammatory speech he had delivered at the dinner recently given to Warren and Costello, and asked for much consideration, the House would come to the conclusion that such step was advisable.

Others deprecated the course proposed as a stretch of constitutional power, an ordinary action at law being the proper remedy.

Mr Gray, member for Kilkenny, and another member for Cork, urged the House giving the Mayor full opportunity of meeting the charges made against him, contained that the action of the Government was based only on newspaper reports.

Others deprecated as imprudent; the treatment of Fenian prisoners. If an accurate language had been taken the present step would not have been taken. He would not oppose the second reading of the bill; but urged the Government well the step proposed and the constitutional questions involved.

Mr Chief Secretary for Ireland, said he would assure those that every facility would be given to the Mayor and his friends to bring forward their case. The Government would take care that there was no ground for complaints of the mismanagement of Irish affairs. He stated that they intended to propose the appointment of a Commission to investigate the conduct of the police in the late disturbances in Londonderry.

He then replied to the remarks from Mr Gladstone and Mr Hardy, in support of the motion to introduce the Bill was carried, the Bill was read for the first time, and that a copy of the Bill, and for the second reading be, served on the Mayor of Galway.

May 5.—Don Salustiano Olozaga has demanded the establishment of a regency. It is believed that Gen. Prim is favorable to the scheme.

May 5.—The Ministers have tendered their resignations to the King. Serrano is engaged in forming a new Cabinet.

May 5.—The North German Parliament passed a resolution in favour of the payment of the Deputies. The measure was strongly opposed by the Prussians.

May 5.—The Chester Cup was won by a length by "Knight of the Garter," aged 134 pounds; "St. Mungo" second, "Dolly" third. The Great Metropolitan Stakes, for two year-olds, was won by the filly "Lambton."

May 5.—The Spanish journals discuss the capture of the brig Mary Lowell as an illegal act, and they deny that the Government, at the instance of the United States, has made any demand for the restitution of the vessel.

COMMERCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

May 5, p.m.—Consols for money 93¼; account 93½. Bonds dull.

May 6, p.m.—Cotton quiet and unchanged at 9¾d. Tallow 44s.

Market Press Despatches.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Advices from Havana the appearance of the cattle plague in that section.

May 5.—Advices from Buenos Ayres to the March state that the existing provisional government on the Allies in Paraguay have not been ratified. The cholera has disappeared. The financial crisis is prevailing at Montevideo, and a general crash is apprehended.

May 5.—The inquest in the disaster on the Long Island railroad concluded yesterday, the jury rendered a verdict that the death of the deceased was caused by the neglect of the Company to keep the road in proper order.

Mr Washington special says: Congress has been notified the Postmaster General unless the department increases the Erie Railroad services from $80,000, he shall refuse the mails. The Postmaster General says that this exorbitant demand cannot be acceded to.

May 6.—Upon all blanks for the transmission of telegraph messages by the Western Union Company, an agreement on the part of the telegraph company and the sender, enumerating the conditions upon which the message is received by the company for transmission.

The action of the commissioner of Internal Revenue has been called to the subject of the same to the solicitor of the Treasury, who has decided that the conditions constituting the nature of an agreement must be considered as a contract, and that the internal revenue stamp affixed to the receipt, is, of course, will have the effect of increasing the tariff five cents per message to be paid by the public, instead of being a charge on the part of the company, as at present form of blanks.

May 6.—The following despatches have been received in this city:—Reno Nevada, May 5.—To O. H. Palmer—The Pacific Railroad will be laid on Saturday by Executive of California, President of the Central Pacific Railroad. A party of ladies will be present for that purpose. They will drive down the last tie, made of California laurel and highly polished, and the spike made of solid gold, weighing ounces, with inscriptions. Celebration will be held on Saturday at Sacramento. H. STANFORD.

THE FUNNIEST THING
OF ALL
THE FUNNY THINGS.

WHY, MORRISON, said a friend to-day, I am proud to hear that you received an order from His Excellency the Governor General for some of your XXX PASTRY FLOUR and SUGAR-CURED HAMS; but I supposed he could have got them at Ottawa. Well, said I, if that's not the funniest thing of all the funny things. Were you aware that my Flour and Hams and Kiln-Dried Oatmeal are constantly used in many of the best families at Ottawa? Did you suppose but the Governor General knew where to get good things as well as humbler folks? 100 barrels Thistle Mill Flour expected Monday. 200 bags best Family Flour do. 25 barrels Kiln-Dried Oatmeal on hand.

Everybody deals at MORRISON'S, and Morrison thanks everybody.
