CABLE NEWS.

London, June 16—The Parliament of the Netherlands has rejected the proposed duty on corn.

Berlin, June 16—The King of Prussia arrived in this city, and was entertained yesterday at a banquet given in his honor by the city. He made a speech, in the course of which he said, if Providence favored the accomplishment of the wishes of the nation, he would effect the accomplishment of the unexpected work through himself alone, but by his people by himself alone, but by his princes and allies also that the work was to be executed. All that was sought for by the present generation had not been accomplished; but their successors would see the fruit and witness the completion of the edifice, the foundation of which has been laid. In conclusion, His Majesty expressed his thanks for the reception he had met with, and drank to the prosperity of the city of Berlin.

London, June 16.—Murphy, the anti-Irish preacher, who was arrested in Birmingham on a charge of vagrancy, has been discharged on the ground of informality in arrest.

London, June 16.—A party of four men attacked the house of Mr Gray, a magistrate of Stockbridge, last night. The inmates resisted and fired upon the assailants. One of the latter was mortally wounded, and his companions fled, leaving the injured man on the road near the house.

Madrid, June 16.—In the Cortes yesterday, the subject of the future form of Government being under discussion, Senor Olozaga stated he was in favour of the abolition of a King. He pointed out the disadvantages of a Monarchial form of Government, which, he said, was more inconsistent with the traditions of the people of Spain. He, himself, preferred the reign of Don Carlos. Senor Becerra spoke at same length, contending that the rights of Don Carlos were extinct, and never be revived.

Madrid, June 16.—Advices from China state that the Chinese Government had apologized for the insult to the French Secretary of the Legation.

London, June 16—The press generally approve Bright's letter to the Birmingham meeting. The Times, commenting on the proceedings in the House of Lords on the Church Bill, says the debate exhibited moderation and patriotism. The Times says that the vote of the Peers was given on a judicial consideration of the arguments based on the provisions of the Bill and the judgment of the nation.

Madrid, June 16.—Negotiations between Spain and Belgian governments for the settlement of commercial differences have commenced and are progressing favourably. It is probable that they will be terminated before the end of the present month.

Madrid, June 16.—Signor Lobbia, a member of this Chamber of Deputies, was attacked today by an assassin in the street. After a desperate struggle the assassin leaving, was very badly pounded.

Madrid, June 26.—News from South America states that the Allied iron-clads have passed the Paraguay to a point near the town of Lopez, but were unable to proceed further on account of shallow water and want of coal. The Paraguayans made an effort to obstruct the river and prevent the allied fleet, but without success. An English officer, with permission of the Brazilian commander, passed through the lines of the allies with despatches for Senor Lopez and returned with despatches from Mr McMahon, the United States Minister.

Constantinople, June 16.—The frontier question between Turkey and Persia have been settled, and the Persian Ambassador has resumed his functions.

London, June 16.—The Emperor has written to M. Ackan, one of the newly elected members of the Corps Legislatif, acknowledging the receipt of a communication addressed to him by that gentleman in the name of his constituents. The Emperor in his reply says the government is determined to suppress disturbances and disorder, but the concession of principles and personal sacrifices are always in order in the presence of a popular movement. A government which would preserve self-respect ought not to yield to pressure. The Emperor adds:—"I am assured that these are the views of the majority of Frenchmen as I am convinced that they are the same which are entertained by a majority of the Chambers."

London, June 16.—The National Cortes has passed a decree establishing a Regency with Marshal Serrano. The vote on its adoption stood 193 yeas to 45 nays.

In the Cortes speeches were made in the debate today by Castellar and Olozaga, the former attacking and the latter defending the Imperial Empire.

London, June 16.—Baron Stanley of Alderley died to-day, aged 67.

COMMERCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, June 17, p.m.—Consols for money and account 92¾; Bonds quiet at 80¾; Erie 20; Illinois Central 95¼.

Liverpool, June 17, p.m.—Cotton a shade easier; Uplands 12¼; Orleans 12¼. Flour 21s for Western. Wheat 8s 7d; White wheat 9s 7d; Red 8s 7d; new do 27s 6d; Barley 58; Oats 2s 3½; Pork 99s; Lard 73s.

New York Press Despatches.

New York, June 16.—The Coliseum was crowded today with fully fifty thousand people, many were taken, and thousands were unable to find even standing room. Garibaldi's reception on entering was enthusiastic. The programme to-day was of a classical character. The Star Spangled Banner and the Anvil Chorus were tumultuous enthusiasm, and were repeated.

New York, June 16.—The Herald's special says Senator Summer since his Alabama speech, wherein he alluded to some private information obtained in his private intercourse with foreign diplomats has been very cool with members of foreign

THE IRISH LAND QUESTION.

A London correspondent writes: I encountered yesterday in the Strand an intelligent Irish land agent, well acquainted with the country and large owners of property. He had just arrived and confirmed all the reports of difficulty, disaffection and disorder. In some sections the people boldly refuse to pay, and when threatened with writs of ejectment, coolly defy them, saying, that sort of thing has had its day, and we're going to have no more of it. "And what," I asked, "has been the cause of this new manifestation?" "The speeches of John Bright," was the answer, given with some bitterness. "Two years ago he gave his plan for purchasing the Irish lands and giving them to the people; now he is in the Government, and believed to be the most influential member, and the people believe he can and will do what he promised, and mean to hold him to it anyway." There seems to be no doubt that the hopes and fears of the two classes of tenants and owners are much excited. The triumphant progress of the disestablishment bill has made the people believe that every demand they make will be complied with. The Irish Catholics see a measure carried against the most urgent protests, and even the most violent threats of the Protestant party; and they think, not unreasonably, that if Parliament, led by Gladstone and Bright, will disestablish a religion which has been maintained by the State for centuries, there cannot be any greater difficulty in disestablishing the mere holders of the dirty land.
