Plans in the works to celebrate Milton and Canada's anniversaries

Get ready, Milton - 2017 is going to be a year of celebrations.

This was the main message delivered Friday morning during the annual Mayor's Breakfast hosted by the Milton Chamber of Commerce.

It was a full house at Rattlesnake Point Golf Club, with local dignitaries and business-people turning out to hear a keynote address from Mayor Gord Krantz and Town Commissioner of Community Services Kristene Scott.

Krantz highlighted the two main celebrations being recognized this year — the Town of Milton's 160th anniversary and Canada's 150th birthday — and told the audience there will also be many other milestones reached in the community throughout 2017, such as the opening of the Milton District Hospital expansion.

"As I've always said, the best is yet to come, so stay tuned," he quipped.

Scott said the anniversary theme would be infused into a variety of Town initiatives during the year, such as Family Day activities, June's Recreation and Parks Month, camps and programs.

Around town, residents will see interpretive signage popping up in neighbourhood parks that illustrate the history of the different areas of Milton (i.e. Dorset Park, Dempsey, etc.).

"So many of the things that we love about Milton were built by the same caring community spirit that's still true of Miltonians today," said Scott. "After 160 years, there's no question our small town isn't the same as it once was; it's growing, evolving and changing. But growth has also brought us tremendous opportunity and excitement about the future of Milton."

The anniversaries will also be celebrated at various events throughout 2017, like the Downtown Milton Street Festival, which was launched during the Town's 150th anniversary 10 years ago.

"This event is always well-attended and is one of the highlights of the summer for many," said Scott. "With the added flavour of celebrating our sesquicentennial, I'm sure it will be a smashing success."

The commissioner encouraged local organizations to share their plans for anniversary celebrations, which may allow the opportunity for the Town to cross-promote the festivities.

In honour of Canada's birthday, the Town will also be planting some of the special Can- 34
