ASSAULTS (ASSAULT) OF NURSES

TORONTO GENERAL HOSPITAL.

The House resumed by presenting a report from the Committee appointed to inquire into the affairs of the Toronto General Hospital.

Mr. Bowell presented the report, that they have had the business referred to them under consideration, and have had interviews and conversations with the trustees and medical officers, all of whom they found willing to render every information in their power, and to make every suggestion in relation to the property and past working of the Institution.

Your committee beg to report that they have found the business in a satisfactory state, and that the trustees and medical officers have been anxious to render every assistance in their power to your committee in the discharge of their duties.

Your committee would also beg to draw the attention of your hon. House to the necessity of some legislation being passed to enable the trustees of the Institution to carry out the objects of the Institution, and to enable them to hold property in Upper Canada, free from the mortmain laws of Great Britain, which, if not remedied, will cause the greatest injury to the Institution, and prevent the carrying out of the intentions of the generous donors who have contributed to the Institution.

Your committee would also beg to draw the attention of your hon. House to the fact that the property of the Institution is in a most unsatisfactory state, and that the buildings are in a ruinous condition, and that the expenditure of the Institution has been for some years past much more than its income, and that the Institution is now in debt to the extent of $[illegible] and that the trustees have no means at their disposal to meet the current expenses of the Institution, and that the Institution is in danger of being closed for want of means to carry on the work of
