London, Feb. 19—A-en, the Fenian pri-oner, who was discharged from custody yesterday, after being examined on the charge of causing the Clerkenwell explo-sion, was soon after re-arrested and impri-soned on a charge of murder

Berlin, Feb 19—In the Prussian House of Deputies yesterday the government was asked to explain why the United States at Jerusalem was allowed to pro-tect the arrest of one Matous, a Jew sh-ject of Prussia, with whose maid, a ward of the American Consul, sought to elope, and why after her guardian had put the young girl in prison to facilitate the at-tempt the Prussian Consul at Jerusalem re-newed his demand as a subject of the King of Prussia for protection. The case creates much excitement among the Jews

Vienna, Feb. 19—The members of the Hungarian Family of Hanover, and a number of Hanover's low nobility, met at a private ban-quet this week at which King George was present. It is reported that in a speech on the occasion the King assured the com-pany he would soon return home and re-gain his seat upon the throne of Hanover despite of Prussia

London, Feb 19—Despatches and letters from Lisbon represent that the political situation continues The new Government very unpopular

Private advices from Brazil state that a mass conscription had been ordered by the Government to pay deficiencies of the army of the Paraguay

London, Feb. 19—The House of Com-mons this evening passed a bill for the con-tinued suspension of the writ of Habeas Cor-pus in Ireland.

Leading members of the Liberal party propose to give a farewell dinner to the United States minister, Mr Adams

Sir George Lee, Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench died to-day.

Florence, Feb 19—The report is current here that the French Government has de-cided to gate towards the Roman States, if the United States, as minister to command Admiral Farragut in the Adriatic to act in concert with the Mediterranean

Cadiz, Feb 20—The steamship City of Cadiz from New York has arrived

San Francisco, Feb 20—Late Arizona advices give particulars of a fight between the Walla Walla Indians under three of their principal chiefs and a force of the United States troops resulting in the sub-ject of the after The Indians were arm-ed with Henry, Spencer and Sharpe rifles and fought with great bravery. Twenty Indians were wounded

Selma, Alabama, Feb 20—The steamer Belle List, sunk 25 miles below here, yes-terday. No lives were lost

New York, Feb. 21—The Tribune's Washington special says. Upon reading several Sherman letters, the President promptly telegraphed to him acknowledg-ing its receipt, and saying substantially that in view of the objections suggested he would not assign him to the command. He would allow him to remain in Mis-souri. It is said the President will assign another commander to the new district in a few days. Prominent Democrats are urging the President to appoint General Hancock, who is known to be very objec-tionable to Sheridan, and one of his bit-terest opponents since the beginning of the war.

New York, Feb 21—The Herald's spe-cial says—Commissioner Wilson, of the General Land Office, has had an interview with a prominent officer of the Canadian Government, who holds a life office from the Crown, in relation to the public lands for sale in Kansas. This gentleman states that it was his intention to resign his of-fice and lend his assistance to organize a colony of Canadians with a view to settle-ment in the southern part of Kansas.

Burlington, Vermont, Feb. 20—The large steam mill at Richmond, Vermont, was destroyed by fire last evening. Loss unknown.

New York, Feb. 21, 3 p. m.—The steam-ship Helvetia, from Liverpool, has arrived.

The British Navy, of which every Briton is so deservedly proud, presents, according to the telegraph, from time to time, repulsive instan-ces of lingering barbarism and cruelty but, to the great honour of the admiralty, those cases are only to be made public in order to secure the abolition of the evils Nor, notwithstanding the numerous croakings of Senior United critics, "the Service" seem to "go to the deuce" in consequence The Lords of the Admiralty have just issued a court circular, prohibiting in future the practice of "gagging" If a sailor happens to be violent, he is no longer to be "gag-ged" by his mess mates, with a handspike or a "bunch of onions"—but he is to be placed in a cell. Until the issue of this circular the public probably imagined that "gagging" the mouths of our gallant tars was as extinct a punishment as bull-baiting, or slinging a refractory tar in a bread bag, under a burning sun, up to the main-yard, pillori truck As we have said, the scan-dal has only to be made public in order to be done away with. Not long ago there was a "tatooing" case in a midshipman's mess; we shall not hear of anything more of that description, we hope. When it was discovered that on board one of her Majesty's training-ships young gentlemen cadets were flogged with birch rods as though they had been the blackest sheep in a reformatory; that punishment has likewise been abrogated. "Gag-ging" has been the next to go; and we do hope there are not many other blundering and barbarous practices in the navy awaiting expo-sure and abolition

A singular discovery has been made at Milan. In one of the churches there is a statue of St. Maurilio, which, in the immemorial affection for relics and heroes, the pious citizens had dressed in a Garibaldi shirt. In the late revolution it was proposed to remove it, and it was then discovered that the venerated image was a mere case, and that it was necessary to remove a little door in the breast, when it was found to be filled with a quantity of the most precious relics, including a little vial containing a little water, said to be the tears of the Virgin. The water, in evaporating, left a little sediment, which was found to be the ashes of the martyrs. The relics were placed in two little vials, which were sealed and kept. The people, however, escaped and ran away by the door.

Special Notice.

THE GREAT NERVE STIMULANT

have been supplied to other parties who have been robbed in the past by worthless and pretended grand specifics are now offered to the wholesale system of advertising. The famous pills is a done. A box containing 50 pills is of value, as a remedy for nervous diseases.

Maggie's motto is contained in a small compass, and is one of the most potent remedies in the world. There is no mineral in his Pills—they do not embitter the stomach, destroy appetite and constitution, but they give tone to the digestion. They give the pale cheek a healthy glow, and steady the nerves.

Uniform of scrofulous disease and contagious diseases, Salt Rheum, Boils, Pimples, are thoroughly eradicated by the use of these pills. In fact, Maggie's Pills are a Diarrhœa Pills cure when all other fail. For Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, diseases of the skin, Maggie's Ointment is unequalled.

Sold by all druggists at 25 cents per box. CAUTION! Buy no Pills unless the signature of Maggie is on the box, as others are bogus. The genuine have the Pill encased in a little pamphlet, and each box of the genuine have the Pill encased in tin foil. Maggie's powder.

Orders for the United States should be addressed to J. Haydock, No. 11 Pine-street, New York.

Agents can write freely about the Pills, and a reply will be returned by return mail. Write for "Maggie's Pamphlet."

Disease

The medicine cannot be injured by any climate. Write and I will forward Pamphlet free.

Feb. 23 1867.

To Consumptives.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, the prescription with the directions for preparing the simple remedy by which his cure was effected. His only object is to benefit others, and he hopes every sufferer will try his prescription, as it will cost them nothing and may prove a blessing. Please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, No. 165 South Second Street, Brooklyn, New York.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

It has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to civilization. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the Missionary, and no traveller should be without it. Like every other good thing, the Pain Killer has been extensively coun-terfeited; which, (while it is an acknowledgment on the part of the counterfeiters of its real worth) is a serious hindrance to its usefulness as the deceived purchaser estimates the value of the Pain Killer by the base compound he has purchased for the genuine article.

Purchasers should be careful and not allow the dealer to sell them worthless imitations, on which they realize a larger profit, but take only the Pain Killer and see that it is the genuine, bearing the signature of Perry Davis and Son upon the label.

The Pain Killer is sold at wholesale by Druggists and Medicine Dealers, and Commission Merchants in the principal cities, and retailed by Apothecaries, Grocers, and at Variety Shops generally throughout the world.
