CABLE NEWS.

London, March 31.—In the House of Commons last evening, Lord Malmesbury disclaimed any intention on the part of the Government to interfere in the affairs of Ireland.

In the House of Commons, petitions in favour of and against the Irish Church establishment were read.

Mr Gladstone, after calling for the reading of the Acts of Parliament in relation to the Irish Church, moved that the House resolve itself into Committee to consider them. He declared the time had come when the Irish Church establishment ceased to exist as a State establishment. He would give no details of the measure by which this was to be brought about, because it was not the duty of the Opposition to arrange them. All proprietary rights should be respected. There should no longer be a salaried clergy paid by the State and connected with the Church. A fund for the benefit of Ireland should be created from the surplus of the incomes of the Bishops. Mr Gladstone proceeded to explain that the Liberal party had not dealt with this question, because it had never been presented to them in a concrete form at the present time. Both parties, he said, were excusable for neglecting the subject, because the public sense had not been fully aroused in regard to it. He repelled the charge of apostacy which had been made against him. Speaking of measures which should be adopted, he recommended that the churches and parsonages should be left to the clergy. Those who choose to maintain them would individually the owners of the advowsons. After further arguments Mr Gladstone concluded with an appeal to the House to take some definite action.

Lord Stanley replied, opposing the hasty action in matter saying, the House should wait until the commission on the Irish Church should make their report; and he concluded by moving his resolution, of which he gave notice last Friday, that the consideration of the subject be left over to the next Parliament.

Lord Cranbourne, the member for Stamford, moved a resolution that the principle of disestablishing the Irish Church be settled now, and the details be left to the next Parliament.

The debate was then adjourned.

A bill abolishing flogging in the army has been passed in the House of Commons.

The ice cleared out of the Richelieu on Sunday. No damage was done. The water is not high. The steamer Firefly left for Belœil on Monday.

The design used on several denominations of the new postage-stamps, a likeness of the Queen as she now looks—a likeness, and not a numistic profile—is, we think, in very good taste. The colours of the new stamps are also well chosen.

The following (1867) Quebec built ships have been recently sold in England:—Anna Lois, 1,156 tons, A. 7 years, £6 15s per ton; Eremenia, 1,222, A. 7 years, £9 15s; Avon, 1,027 tons, £7 5s per ton.

Steam towing is hereafter to be tried upon the New York canals. A canal company has been formed in Syracuse to build a steam tug, and apply it to a new plan for towing on the Erie canal. The tug is to tow canal boats in trains. It is claimed that the new method will reduce by one-half the cost of freighting and the length of time between Buffalo and New York.

Two more deaths have to be recorded in connection with the Todmorden tragedy. The Rev. Mr Plow died on the 12th, and the infant, which was only a few days old when the murder was committed, also died on the same day. The trial of Miles Wetberill took place at Manchester on the 13 h. He was convicted of the murder of Jane Smith, and sentence of death was passed upon him. Throughout the trial, and on the sentence being passed, the prisoner did not manifest the least emotion.

In a church at Utica, last Sunday, while the sermon was being delivered, a young lady deliberately removed her bonnet from her head, drew out, one by one, seventy or eighty pins from her back hair, permitted her raven tresses to fall upon her sholders, drew the comb downward through them several times, then dexterously gathered and retwisted them, fastened them with the comb, and deliberately put back the seventy or eighty hair pins. The scene drew the attention of the entire congregation, who forgot the minister and his discourse. After the lady had replaced her hat she turned her attention to the sermon, to which she listened with greater apparent interest than any other member of the congregation.—Oswego Advertiser.

In 1867 there were 145 miles of railway opened in India; now there are 4,070 miles. The companies have repaid to the Imperial Government about £7,000,000 out of nett earnings, making the present debt due to the Government nearly £12,000,000.

By secret treaties made since Sadowa, Bavaria, Wurtemburg, and Baden are bound to appoint Prussian Generals their Ministers of War, and Wurtemburg and Baden have already done so. This enormously strengthened the Prussian hold overthe South, and, indeed, as Prussian Generals consider orders from their own King sacred, amounts to complete military fusion.

PAIN KILLER!

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE OF THE AGE.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

OUR FIRST PHYSICIANS USE AND RECOMMEND ITS USE.

IT ENJOYS THE LARGEST SALE OF ANY PROPRIETARY MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

THE PAIN KILLER

Has been favourably known for more than thirty years, during which time we HAVE RECEIVED THOUSANDS OF TESTIMONIALS, showing this Medicine to be an almost NEVER FAILING REMEDY for diseases caused by or attendant upon—Sudden Colds, Coughs, Fever and Ague, Headache, Bilious Fever, Pains in the Side, Back and Loins, as well as in the Joints and Limbs; Neuralgic and Rheumatic Pains in any part of the System, Toothache and Pains in the Head and Face.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER AND TONIC FOR THE STOMACH,

It seldom fails to cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Kidney Complaints, Sick Headache, Piles, Asthma or Phthisic, Ringworms, Boils, Felons, Whitlows, Old Sores, Swelled Joints, and General Debility of the System.

IT IS ALSO A PROMPT AND SURE REMEDY

For Cramp or Pain in the Stomach, Painters' Colic, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Scalds, Burns, Sprains, Bruises, Frost Bites, Chilblains, as well as the Stings of Insects, and the Bites of Poisonous Insects and Venomous Reptiles.

☞ Directions accompany each bottle.

It has been tested in every variety of climate, and by almost every nation known to civilization. It is the almost constant companion and inestimable friend of the Missionary, and no traveller should be without it. Like every other good thing, the Pain Killer has been extensively counterfeited; which, (while it is an acknowledgment on the part of the counterfeiters of its real worth) is a serious hindrance to its usefulness as the deceived purchaser estimates the value of the Pain Killer by the base compound he has purchased for the genuine article.

Purchasers should be careful and not allow the dealer to sell them worthless imitations, on which they realize a larger profit, but take only the Pain Killer and see that it is the genuine, bearing the signature of Perry Davis and Son upon the label.

The Pain Killer is sold at wholesale by Druggists and Medicine Dealers, and Commission Merchants in the principal cities, and retailed by Apothecaries, Grocers, and at Variety Shops generally throughout the world.
