London, April 14.—Viscount Cranbourne, Secretary of State for under Lord Derby, is dead. His eldsurviving son is the Right Hon. Vis-Cranborne, who succeeds to the ti-and estates of the late Marquis. The London journals this morning publish elaate obituary notices of the deceased
, and they all express regret at the loss
, and they all express regret at the loss the House of Commons will sustain of Peers, in consequence of his fathdeath.

After a parting interview with the Queen this morning, the Prince and Princess of Wales, accompanied by their respective left London on their visit to Ireland.
They took a special train to Holyhead, where they embark on the fleet which will convey them across the Irish Sea. It is expected they will land in Dublin to-morrow evening.

Dublin, April 14.—The great preparations which have been made here to give every public welcome to the visit of the Prince of Wales are completed. The castle is changed into a Royal palace for his accommodation. St. Patrick's Cathedral has been splendidly decorated for the coming ceremonies attending the initiation of His Royal Highness as a knight of St. Patrick The quays and public buildings are lavishly decorated, and the flags, streamers, mottoes, and other decorations are beautiful.
The thoroughfares have been erected in the principal streets, through which the Royal visitors is to pass. The people of the surrounding country are pouring into the city, and crowds of visitors are hourly arriving from England to witness the ceremonies and participate in the festivities of the occasion.

New York, April 15.—The Herald's special states startling revelations regarding the secret plots of the Radicals by which the Union form of government is to be supplanted by a Dictatorship, the supreme Court virtually abolished, and Grant, Colfax and the National Banks are to be the victims. These revolutionary schemes are to be accomplished thus:— On the removal of Johnston and installation of Wade, three or four months before the inauguration of the next Presidential term. The election of Grant, President, and Wade Vice-President, by the aid of the army if necessary. 3rd. Virtually packing the Supreme Court by depriving it of power to pass an opinion upon the constitutionality of reconstruction acts or any acts of the Government. 4th. Extending the term of office of President, Vice-President and Senate to ten years, from March 1st, 1869. 5th. Inflation of the currency through the National Banks and the people in good humour by the plenty of paper afloat making them feel with the apparent prosperity.
Perhaps the despatch, is the end and aim of the radical conspiracy.

New York, April 15.—The exiled directors of the Erie railroad, who have been confined in Barracks for some weeks, are no longer to be intimidated by scares, and they went to Jersey City with freedom.
Messrs. Drew and Fisk proceeded to the ferry office at Pier 1 North River, where the annual meeting of the Long Dock company was held. John Bigelow was elected President; Daniel Drew, Vice-President; H. N. Otis, Treasurer; Henry Lapham, Secretary.

New York, April 15.—The steamer Hamburg, from Southampton, has arrived.

San Francisco, April 15.—The steamer Henson sailed to-day, taking $740,000 in treasure, of which $20,000 are for New York.

New York, April 15.—A terrible accident occurred on the Erie Railroad about five this morning near 12 miles west of Port Jervis. Twenty-five or thirty persons are reported to be killed and sixty or seventy wounded. Charles K. Loomis, of Buffalo, is among the killed. E. B.
Phillips and Charles Gray, of the Michigan Southern Railroad, were wounded. A portion of the train including one sleeping car, was thrown from the track by a misplaced switch, and went over a bank some 15 or 20 feet high. Three passenger coaches and a sleeping car were burned.
Later accounts put the number of killed and wounded at seventy.
