McHENRY JAYCEES YOUTH BOWLING TOURNAMENT BANQUET. A banquet for all participants in the first McHENRY JAYCEES youth bowling tournament was held Sunday evening, January 29, at the American Legion Hall.

After a delicious dinner served to the youthful bowlers and the attending parents, Jaycees Thomas Landre, director of Youth Activities, and Anthony Pintozzi, chairman of the bowling tournament, presented the awards.

Award winners were: in the girls league: Karen McNally, high scorer trophy and 500 club award; and winning team members, Georgia Posthuma, Lynn Merkel, Betty O'Brien, Nancy Kralowetz and Merrilou Smith, each receiving trophies.

Boys league winners include: Terry Oeffling and Bill Funk, recipients of special American Junior Bowling Congress awards for games over 225; Dick Friedberg, Rick Justen, Bill Funk and Terry Oeffling, 500 club award winners, and winning team members: Tom Blair, Roy Watson, Terry Oeffling, Johnny Miller and Jim Arbogast.

In addition to these awards, every tournament participant received a certificate of achievement from the American Junior Bowling Congress.

All bowlers who were not present at the banquet to receive their achievement certificates, may pick them up at McHenry Recreation, hosts to the Jaycee tournaments.

The second tourney, now in process, still has several openings in the girls league, for any girls up to 18 years of age, interested in this fine sport.
