TELEGRAPH.

CABLE NEWS.

Lon. May 28—All the leading journals of London have editorials on the result of the impeachment of the President of the United States. The Monitor says the Radical party has lost ground without gaining what it opposed. The Post thinks the result is not final, and believes the question will decide the issue in the coming presidential election. The Telegraph regrets that the seven Republican Senators acted as they did, and attributes their action to fear of the conviction of the President precipitate a crisis.

Lon. May 28. The Daily News thinks that Johnson has escaped merely, and that he has not been acquitted. The writer thinks that the strength of the President has been materially impaired by the late contest.

The Morning Post thinks that the Radicals ought to be pleased at their defeat, and predicts that the time will be distant when they will.

The Daily Telegraph cites the division in Republican ranks, and argues from that that court was above partizanship, and that the verdict was a true one.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Lon. May 29, 1.20 p.m.—Consols for money 94¼ to 94¾ for account.

Liv. May 29, 1.20 p.m.—Cotton steady; sales to arrive at 11 to 12¼ for American 36,000 bales; stocks all at Liverpool, including 90,000 American. Ship. Bombay to 2nd inst. since last mail 34 bales. Breadstuffs dull and declining. Flour 24s 3d. California white 13s; Western common 37s 6d. Flour 24s 3d. Pork dull. Others unchanged.

New York Press Despatches.

Cincinnati, May 28.—Coburn and McCullough pleaded guilty of a violation of the laws of Indiana.

Judge Wilson, in passing the sentence of imprisonment on them, expressed his regret that the statutes of the State did not allow the infliction of a higher penalty.

Parties will have to serve their 40 days in the Lawrenceburg gaol.

New York, May 29.—A committee of the Common Council are hearing the proposition to widen Broadway from 17th to 59th street. It is said the job will cost from twenty to twenty millions dollars.

The Parisians had a grand pic nic yesterday at Bellevue Gardens. The attendance was numerous and select. About 1 P.M. the 69th Regiment of the Irish Republican Guard assembled in Washington Square, and were in full force, mustering about 600 men. Colonel Whitehead, late of the Montreal Life Brigade, was in command.

The Tribune's special says:—It is generally believed that the committee appointed under Butler's resolution to investigate the charges of bribery will confine their inquiries principally to journalists, and to elicit from them the grounds on which editorial articles and despatches in favour of those charges have been based. The committee of the Chicago Convention with a record of the proceedings, have reached this city, and will to day present to General Grant and Speaker Colfax the notice of their acceptance of the nomination.

The nomination of General Schofield as Secretary of War was taken up in the Senate to-day, but not acted upon.

General Grant and Speaker Colfax will, it is announced, start about the 1st of July for Colorado, and expect to be absent about two months. Their trip is solely for the purpose of recruiting their healths.

The Herald's special says:—The President either denies or admits that there is to be a change in the Cabinet.

The Europa, from Glasgow, and City of Paris from Liverpool, have arrived.

"The following epitaph may be seen in the cemetery of a parish in the environs of Paris: "Here lies Madame N——, wife of M. N——, Member of the Institute. The railing around this tomb was manufactured by her husband."

A WONDROUS ESCAPE.

A most remarkable escape from a position of fearful peril occurred recently at the Clifton Paper Mill. A boy named Strofe, about ten years of age, was engaged in rolling paper around a horizontal shaft, when the sleeve of his right arm was caught by the shaft, and he was hurled around it, fortunately not with extreme velocity, as the shaft was turning at a moderate speed.

Close to the shaft was a horizontal wooden roller resting on bearings, and the boy's feet, as he was drawn under the shaft, struck this roller and hurled it about ten feet through the air. It struck a young man who was at work in the room, on the side of the head, knocking him to the floor insensible. The fireman was also in the room, and hastened to the shaft to throw it out of gear, but as he came near it, the boy's foot struck him on the head, and he too was knocked down. Not being injured, however, he immediately gathered himself up and succeeded in stopping the shaft. The boy was extricated, and was found not to be dangerously hurt. One of his arms was badly wrenched, and he is otherwise bruised so that he will be doubtless laid up for some time. None of the other parties were seriously injured. The escape of the boy from death (he was taken from the shaft within eight inches from the post which supported it at one end) was little short of a miracle.—Syracuse Republican.

A man named Joseph McMullan was arrested in Belleville on Wednesday morning, on a charge of stealing a waggon, valued at $[illegible], from Mr H. T. Forward, Napanee. He was conveyed by a constable of Lennox and Addington to Napanee.

The St. John (N.B.) Evening Globe complains that reports and blue books relating wholly to the late Province of Canada are being printed at the general expense of the Dominion. The report of the Commissioner of Public Works for last year is instanced, being in a volume of over 500 pages, relating exclusively to the operations of the Department prior to the Union.

The French Corps Legislatif has undertaken to check the ambitious, but rather ruinous schemes of M. Haussmann, the Prefect of the Seine, for embellishing the city of Paris by recommending that in future the budget of the city shall be submitted to the consideration of the Imperial Legislature. The opposition members claim that the municipal councils of Paris and Lyons ought to be elected by the ratepayers, just like those of other towns in France, instead of being nominated by the Emperor.

An exchange says: A newspaper is read by hundreds who never see the attractive bills which are posted in taverns and store rooms. Every subscriber to a country paper reads such advertisements carefully. He knows who is selling out, and what is offered for sale. The advertisements are a topic of conversation when friends meet, and arrangements are made for attending sales. The result is a large crowd, spirited bidding, and a realization of ten, twenty or fifty times what it cost to advertise. No money is so sure to return a large profit as that spent on printer's ink.

A claim is about to be pressed on the English Government, on the subject of the vast estates of the princes of O'Donlevi of Ulnia in Ireland. It appears the possessions of that family were intrusted to the Crown of England in 1789, by the Countess O'Donnell, for the purpose of being transferred to the heirs of her first husband, O'Donlevi, who died in exile, consequent on the expulsion of the Stuarts. After having been considered as Crown property for upward of a century, the O'Donlevi estates, situated in Down and Antrim, and valued at more than $70,000,000, are now claimed by one of the family who is prepared to prove his right to them. The Polish and Gallician journals assert that the claimant is a Polish emigrant.

Over sixty specimens of surgical instruments have been found at Pompeii, two of which have been patented in France as new inventions.

There is a young Prussian violinist who executes difficult compositions without arms, for which members the artist is utterly deprived by nature. He places his violin on a stool before him, takes his bow between the toes of his left foot, and presses the strings with the toes of his right. He has given several concerts at Berlin and Leipsic, and is soon to perform in Paris.

Letters from Algeria give the most harrowing accounts of the condition of the people. "The Arabs," writes one of our correspondents, "continue to eat their compatriots and the children of Europeans. At Kandouri three Arab women, who were lodged and fed for three days in the house of a colonist, drowned his son, a boy of 12 years, and ate him, afterwards confessing the atrocity to the father. There have been many assassinations of Europeans by Arabs in our neighbourhood (only three miles from the town of Algiers). The French are much excited and alarmed, and blame the authorities for not affording them better protection against the natives. Marshal M'Mahon and the Archbishop are at open war, the former accusing the latter of making mischief by his efforts at proselytizing, and the other retorting that it is the system of government that is at fault, and that the Mussulman cannot assimilate with the Frenchman, and that they will always be enemies. Public opinion is, on the whole, with the Archbishop.

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co.,
Large Manufacturers of
GRAND OVERSTRUNG SQUARE
PIANOS,
Corner of King & Princess Streets,
KINGSTON, ONTARIO.

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. announce to the Public that they are now in possession of facilities for manufacturing Pianos unsurpassed, if equalled, by any in the Dominion.

The members of the Firm are Practical Piano Makers, and are anxious to establish their success in manufacturing enterprise by careful workmanship rather than by mere speculation. They are able skilfully to superintend every department, and are prepared to guarantee every instrument they sell.

For strength of manufacture and materials, beauty of finish, and durability and excellence of tone, they challenge the Dominion to produce superior instruments; and while they claim for their work every excellence that can be expected from skilful and enterprising workmen, they beg to announce that their resources are sufficiently ample to enable them to compete in prices with any speculator in Pianos.

The Subscribers keep no Travelling Agent. All orders addressed to the Subscribers, or sent through any respectable Music Dealer, will receive attention. Orders through mail will be attended to as if selected in person.

RAPPE, WEBER, & CO.

May 20.

A CARD.

RAPPE, WEBER, & Co. deem it unnecessary in their announcement above to notice the advertisement of their competitor, Mr F. C. Cline. They beg to inform the public that it was not the privilege of Mr Cline to retain all of the late J. C. Fox's workmen.

The Advertisers were selected by the late Mr Fox from the best establishments in New York, (Steinway's, Stoddard's, Weber, Gabler, etc.)

After Mr Fox's death, and before Mr Cline's purchase of a part of Mr Fox's stock, Rappe, Weber & Co. had determined to go into business on their own account. As at present constituted, their establishment consists of four Proprietors, every one of whom have been foremen, and their workmen who have been foremen; so that so far as the "culling of workmen" (a novelty in language) is concerned, Rappe, Weber & Co. have the honour to announce that they made their selection before it was permitted to Mr Cline to make his. If Mr Cline was a practical Piano maker, it might be competent to him to remark upon the skill of other workmen; but as he is not, it may be well to remind him that the shoemaker should stick to his last.

The Advertisers do not press upon the public the merits of any Travelling Agent, and any person holding himself out as such may be treated as utterly unauthorized. Our Pianos are candidates for popular favour, and we have no doubt they will win it.
