CABLE NEWS.

London, May 29.—The Government of Germany has abolished imprisonment for debt.

London, May 29.—Despatches from Berlin say the rumour of a Polish insurrection on the Galician frontier. At Vienna the story is discredited in well informed circles.

London, May 30.—The race for the Oaks was won by Formosa in 2 40, beating the time of the Derby made by Blue Gown last month.

London, May 29.—The Brazilian mail has arrived out, and brings the news from Paraguay.

The accounts General Lopez was at the head of the Tabicuriary and Paraguay with a large force in a strong position. Paper was strongly entrenched and provided with provisions and war stores, and his communications with the Chaco obtaining fresh supplies were open.

London, May 29.—(Special to the New York Herald.)—The American ship Living Age, Newcastle for Bombay, was wrecked. Nine of her crew have arrived at Cochin, on the west coast of India. The captain and the rest of the crew missing. The vessel belonged in Maine.

Lisbon, May 29.—Rio Janeiro dates of 9th have been received here. The latest from the scene of war that reached there to the effect that a decisive action was about to take place before Humaita. Official despatches from the allied camp announce the bombardment of the Paraguayan stronghold by the land and naval forces had ceased, and orders had been given for a general assault on the works.

Queenstown, May 30.—The steamships Erin and Cambria, from New York, arrived.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

London, May 30, 3 p.m.—Closing prices for money, 93¾; for account 93¾. Bonds 72¾; Illinois 97; Erie 47¼.

New York Press Despatches.

San Francisco, May 29.—The town of Lake, on the Central Pacific railroad, near Salt Lake City, only laid out this month, already contains a hundred houses and one hundred inhabitants.

St. Louis, May 29.—A letter from Fort Lyon, Colorado, says the celebrated Kit Carson died at that post on the 23rd instant.

Richmond, May 29.—A duel took place Thursday evening near this city between Lieut. H. B. Rand and Major R. H. Porter, of the army officers. Reed fired in the air and the matter was adjusted.

New York, May 29.—At the Hoboken Race Course for all ages, one mile and a repeat, was one by "Urbana," beating "Lida" and three others. Time 2:16¾. The second race, a two mile dash, for all ages, was won by "Local" beating "Lexington" and "Exile." Time 3:47. The third race, mile heats, all ages, $500, was won by the colt, "Richard B. Connolly," beating Clement, beating six others. Time 1:47 first 1:49¾. "Egotist" took place.

New York, May 30.—The ship Carl arrived at Quarantine yesterday with 496 Prussian passengers, twenty-five children of which died apparently of measles during the voyage of 53 days from Bremen. The ship is very filthy and the cause of the disease is uncertain that a complete fumigation was ordered before allowing the vessel to proceed to the city.

The Fort Erie correspondent of the Hamilton Spectator denies that there is any truth in the rumours of the great preparations being in progress for another Fenian invasion in the West.

An extensive mountain slip took place a few days ago in the village of Oberbilten, canton of Glaris, in Switzerland. The inhabitants, warned in time, had left their houses, which, for the most part, have been overwhelmed. Large masses continue to fall, accompanied by loud reports.

In the Victoria legislature a member who was using abusive language, was interrupted by a cry of "blackguard," whereupon he went out and bought a horsewhip and attacked the offending brother member. The combatants were finally separated after a disgraceful fight. Neither of them has been expelled.
